3 SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

- 4 1. "Charitable organization" means a nonprofit organization whose primary purpose is 5 for relief of poor, disabled, underprivileged, or abused persons, support of youth
6 and youth programs, or the prevention of abuse to children and vulnerable adults.
- 7 2. "Claim" means any claim for money damages brought against a charitable 8 organization or an employee of the charitable organization for an injury caused by 9 the charitable organization or an employee of the charitable organization acting 10 within the scope of the employee's employment.
- 11 3. "Employee" means every present or former officer or employee of the charitable 12 organization or any person acting on behalf of the charitable organization in an 13 official capacity, temporarily or permanently, with or without compensation.
- 14 4. "Injury" means personal injury, death, or property damage.
- 15 5. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to a 16 condition, which results in an injury.
- 17 6. "Personal injury" includes bodily injury, mental injury, sickness, or disease 18 sustained by a person and injury to a person's rights or reputation.
- 19 7. "Property damage" includes injury to or destruction of tangible or intangible 20 property.
- 21 8. "Scope of employment" means the employee was acting on behalf of the 22 charitable organization in the performance of duties or tasks of the charitable 23 organization assigned to the employee by the charitable organization.

1 SECTION 2. Liability of charitable organizations - Limitations - Statute of 2 limitations.

- 3 1. A charitable organization may be only held liable for money damages for a 4 personal injury or property damage proximately caused by the negligence or 5 wrongful act or omission of an employee acting within the employee's scope of 6 employment.
- 7 2. The liability of the charitable organization under this Act is limited to a total of two 8 hundred fifty thousand dollars per person and one million dollars for any number of 9 claims arising from any single occurrence. The charitable organization may not be 10 held liable, or be ordered to indemnify an employee held liable, for punitive or 11 exemplary damages.
- 12 3. An action brought under this Act must be commenced within the period provided in 13 chapter 28-01.
