members appointed by the governing body of the city, and two members appointed by the district. The retained mediator shall arrange and preside over the mediation proceedings.

2. REMARKS OF SENATOR SINNER

It is a distinct honor for me to introduce to the Senate a truly delightful and amazing young woman, Rosie Sauvageau, Miss North Dakota. Rosie has been one of my daughter's very best friends for the past several years, so I have had the pleasure of knowing her for some time.

Rosie is a 2010 graduate of Concordia College with majors in Communication/Theatre Arts and Apparel Design. She is an accomplished musical performer and an active composer. In her year as Miss North Dakota, Rosie has identified her platform as:

"Celebrate Diversity: One Nation, All People".

Rosie did not grow up in a family particularly interested in pageants. In fact, the first pageant Rosie ever attended was one in which she was also first competed in. She was encouraged to compete in that local pageant by a good friend and former Miss North Dakota, for the opportunity to showcase her musical skills and the opportunity to obtain a college scholarship. Rosie's first pageant in North Dakota was the 2010 state pageant held in Williston where she was awarded 2nd Runner-Up and the following year she won 1st Runner-Up. At that point Rosie felt ready to retire from pageants but her mother encouraged her to compete in one more local pageant. She won that local pageant and followed that with the 2012 title of Miss North Dakota.

Rosie has dedicated her reign to reaching out to all people through music. She is an accomplished classical pianist as well as a singer/songwriter. This year she is scheduled to perform with local musicians from around the state, conduct workshops and appear in schools around North Dakota, to bring people together through her music. For Rosie, finding a common bond through music is a great connector. As Rosie puts it, "I am confident I can help be the glue that will enable acceptance."

In January 2013, Rosie competed in the Miss America pageant in Las Vegas and won the preliminary talent award with her song and piano performance rendition of Bob Dylan's "To Make You Feel My Love". Mr. President and fellow Senators, I would like to welcome to the Senate today, Miss North Dakota, my friend, Rosie Sauvageau.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that a committee of two be appointed to escort Miss North Dakota Rosie Sauvageau to the rostrum, which motion prevailed.

The President appointed Sens. Flakoll and Sinner to the escort committee.

REMARKS OF ROSIE SAUVAGEAU MISS NORTH DAKOTA 2012

Good afternoon! I'm so excited to be here and tell you a bit about my year as Miss North Dakota, my personal story and an in depth look at my tour around North Dakota.

I am a Fargo native but I was born in Bryan, Texas. I was adopted at 9 weeks old and have lived in the Fargo area ever since. I have a younger brother, two years younger than myself, who is my parent's biological child and a younger sister who was also adopted from Texas, although my sister and I are not biologically related. So, within my immediate family there is a lot of diversity, being that my parents and my brother are Caucasian and myself and my sister are African-American. In addition to that, my parents had a daycare when I was growing up that at one point, had 5 children from 5 different counties, practicing 3 different religions. Not only was my immediate family diverse, but my home life and the daycare as well. Because of this, I learned a lot about different cultures, religions, backgrounds and how unique our differences can be.

When I arrived at my first day of kindergarten I was confused. Coming from a home life that was very diverse I walked into my first kindergarten class and noticed I was the only person of color but I understood if I could find an easy connector with people, a way to create an initial bond, I could cross over any barriers that might be in place because of physical differences.

Music has always been a huge part of my life. My mom is a music lover and made me listen to classical music as a child. She wouldn't let me watch very much TV unless it was a show with music in it. We fell into this daily routine of her pushing my highchair up to the piano in our house and turning on Sesame Street, hoping and wishing that I would be interested or inspired by the piano and take an interest in music. One day that seemed like any other, my mother did this regular routine but this day was different from the others. I started to play along with the Sesame Street theme song. My mom knew two things at this point: 1- her plan had worked, and 2 - I had an interest and a talent in music. I was two years old when this happened and my journey in music continued from there. I have been classically trained in piano, cello, organ, guitar, clarinet and accordion and actively stayed involved in choir, band, orchestra and theater throughout high school in college.

When I was a senior in college a good friend of mine and former Miss North Dakota, Jacqueline Johnson, encouraged me to consider competing in the Miss North Dakota Scholarship Organization. I decided to compete and placed 2nd Runner Up the first year, 1st Runner Up the second year, and this year was crowned Miss North Dakota in June. Since being crowned in June I've traveled over 10,000 miles and had the opportunity to speak and perform for over 25,000 people.

I've focused in on the topic of diversity. Diversity meaning simply a difference that we have - whether our skin is light or dark, whether we grew up on a farm or in the city, maybe we've lived in North Dakota our entire lives or maybe you've just moved here. Perhaps music is your connector, your common bond and your area of expertise, or maybe your area is art or sports, fishing or hunting. There are a lot of things we can find that make us unique and add to our diversity story, but these things are what make life interesting. Respecting these differences, keeping an open mind and trying to find a simple connector, an easy common bond, is a great way to start.

My easy connector is music. What is yours?

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. MARCELLAIS rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR MARCELLAIS

MR. PRESIDENT: I rise today to recognize a prominent North Dakotan, prolific author, and member of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indian Tribe who will be presented with our state's highest honor this evening. Ms. Louise Erdrich will be presented with the Theodore Roosevelt Rough Rider Award tonight in Wahpeton, where she grew up and where her parents still live today.

The eldest of seven children, she was born in Little Falls, Minnesota. The daughter of Ralph Erdrich, a German-American, and his wife, Rita (Gourneau), half French-American and half Ojibwa. Both her parents taught at the Wahpeton Indian Boarding School in Wahpeton set up by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Her maternal grandfather, Mr. Patrick Gourneau served as Tribal Chairmen for the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians for several years.

She received international acclaim for her works of fiction. For her first novel, she won the 1984 National Book Critics Circle Award for Fiction. Notable recent accomplishments include her work "The Plague of Doves", which was a finalist for the 2009 Pulitzer Prize, and "The Round House" for which she received the national Book Award on November 15, 2012.

To date, she has authored fourteen novels, three collections of poetry, and six children's books. All of these have made her a widely admired figure in the literary community.

Her North Dakota heritage provides the canvas on which she paints the backdrop of her stories. Many of her novels are set on a fictional reservation in North Dakota, where her characters come to life. And although the names of the places and families in her stories may be imagined, her storytelling makes them ring true to anyone who is familiar with North Dakota.

Through her stories, readers from around the world have been able to obtain a window into the trials, the tribulations, and the joys of life on the reservation in the upper Midwest.

Mr. President, as we are aware, this award is presented to present and former North Dakotans who have reflected credit and honor upon the great State of North Dakota and its citizens by way of their achievements. The accomplishments of Ms. Louise Erdrich makes the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians proud. The honor that she has brought to the great state of North Dakota, makes her an excellent selection for this award.

Mr. President, members of the Senate, please join in celebrating her achievements as she receives this most prestigious honor this evening in Wahpeton, North Dakota.
