16		ARTICLE III - COMPACT MEMBERSHIP AND WITHDRAWAL
17	1.	This compact governs each member state to the fullest extent permitted by their
18		respective constitutions, superseding and repealing any conflicting or contrary law.
19	2.	By becoming a member state, each such state offers, promises, and agrees to 20		perform and comply strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions of this 21		compact, and has made such offer, promise, and agreement in anticipation and
22		consideration of, and in substantial reliance upon, such mutual and reciprocal
23		performance and compliance by each other current and future member state, if any.
24		Accordingly, in addition to having the force of law in each member state upon its 25		respective effective date, this compact and each of its articles shall also be construed
26		as contractually binding each member state when:
27		a. At least one other state has likewise become a member state by enacting
28		substantively identical legislation adopting and agreeing to be bound by this 29		compact; and

1		b.	Notice of such state's member state status is or has been seasonably received
2			by the compact administrator, if any, or otherwise by the chief executive officer of
3			each other member state.
4	3.	For	purposes of determining member state status under this compact, as long as all
5		othe	er provisions of the compact remain identical and operative on the same terms,
6		legis	slation enacting, adopting, and agreeing to be bound by this compact shall be
7		dee	med and regarded as "substantively identical" with respect to such other legislation
8		ena	cted by another state notwithstanding:
9		a.	Any difference in subsection 2 of article IV with specific regard to the respectively
10			enacting state's own method of appointing its member to the commission;
11		b.	Any difference in subsection 5 of article IV with specific regard to the respectively
12			enacting state's own obligation to fund the commission;
13		C.	Any difference in subsections 1 and 2 of article VI with specific regard to the 14			number and identity of each delegate respectively appointed on behalf of the 15			enacting state, provided that no more than three delegates may attend and 16			participate in the Convention on behalf of any state; or
17		d.	Any difference in subsection 7 of article X with specific regard to the respectively
18			enacting state as to whether subsection 1 of article V of this compact shall
19			survive termination of the compact, and thereafter become a continuing
20			resolution of the legislature of such state applying to Congress for the calling of a
21			convention of the states under Article V of the Constitution of the United States,
22			under such terms and limitations as may be specified by such state.
23	4.	Whe	en fewer than three-fourths of the states are member states, any member state
24		may	withdraw from this compact by enacting appropriate legislation, as determined by
25		state	e law, and giving notice of such withdrawal to the compact administrator, if any, or
26		othe	erwise to the chief executive officer of each other member state. A withdrawal shall
27		not a	affect the validity or applicability of the compact with respect to remaining member
28		state	es, provided that there remain at least two such states. However, once at least
29		thre	e-fourths of the states are member states, then no member state may withdraw
30		from	the compact prior to its termination absent unanimous consent of all member
31		state	es.

1		ARTICLE IV - COMPACT COMMISSION AND COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR
2	1.	Nature of the compact commission. The compact commission ("commission") is
3		hereby established. It has the power and duty:
4		a. To appoint and oversee a compact administrator;
5		b. To encourage states to join the compact and Congress to call the Convention in 6		accordance with this compact:
7		c. To coordinate the performance of obligations under the compact:
8		d. To oversee the Convention's logistical operations as appropriate to ensure this
9		compact governs its proceedings;
10		e. To oversee the defense and enforcement of the compact in appropriate legal
11		venues;
12		f. To request funds and to disburse those funds to support the operations of the 13		commission, compact administrator, and Convention; and
14		g. To cooperate with any entity that shares a common interest with the commission
15		and engages in policy research, public interest litigation, or lobbying in support of 16		the purposes of the compact. The commission shall only have such implied
17		powers as are essential to carrying out these express powers and duties. It shall 18		take no action that contravenes or is inconsistent with this compact or any law of 19		any state that is not superseded by this compact. It may adopt and publish
20		corresponding bylaws and policies.
21	2.	Commission membership. The commission initially consists of three unpaid members.
22		Each member state may appoint one member to the commission through an 23		appointment process to be determined by their respective chief executive officer until 24		all positions on the commission are filled. Positions shall be assigned to appointees in 25		the order in which their respective appointing states became member states. The 26		bylaws of the commission may expand its membership to include representatives of 27		additional member states and to allow for modest salaries and reimbursement of 28		expenses if adequate funding exists.
29	3.	Commission action. Each commission member is entitled to one vote. The 30		commission shall not act unless a majority of its appointed membership is present,
31		and no action shall be binding unless approved by a majority of the commission's

1		appointed membership. The commission shall meet at least once a year, and may
2		meet more frequently.
3	4.	First order of business. The commission shall at the earliest possible time elect from 4		among its membership a chairperson, determine a primary place of doing business,
5		and appoint a compact administrator.
6	5.	Funding. The commission and the compact administrator's activities shall be funded
7		exclusively by each member state, as determined by their respective state law, or by
8		voluntary donations.
9	6.	Compact administrator. The compact administrator has the power and duty:
10		a. To timely notify the states of the date, time, and location of the Convention;
11		b. To organize and direct the logistical operations of the Convention;
12		c. To maintain an accurate list of all member states, their appointed delegates,
13		including contact information; and
14		d. To formulate, transmit, and maintain all official notices, records, and
15		communications relating to this compact. The compact administrator shall only
16		have such implied powers as are essential to carrying out these express powers
17		and duties; and shall take no action that contravenes or is inconsistent with this 18		compact or any law of any state that is not superseded by this compact. The 19		compact administrator serves at the pleasure of the commission and must keep 20		the commission seasonably apprised of the performance or nonperformance of 21		the terms and conditions of this compact. Any notice sent by a member state to 22		the compact administrator concerning this compact shall be adequate notice to
23		each other member state provided that a copy of said notice is seasonably
24		delivered by the compact administrator to each other member state's respective 25		chief executive officer.
26	7.	Notice of key events. Upon the occurrence of each of the following described events,
27		or otherwise as soon as possible, the compact administrator shall immediately send
28		the following notices to all compact notice recipients, together with certified conforming
29		copies of the chaptered version of this compact as maintained in the statutes of each
30		member state:
31		a. Whenever any state becomes a member state, notice of that fact shall be given;

1		b.	Once at least three-fourths of the states are member states, notice of that fact
2			shall be given together with a statement declaring that the legislatures of at least
3			two-thirds of the several states have applied for a convention for proposing
4			amendments under Article V of the Constitution of the United States, petitioning
5			Congress to call the Convention contemplated by this compact, and further
6			requesting cooperation in organizing the same in accordance with this compact;
7		C.	Once Congress has called the Convention contemplated by this compact, and
8			whenever the date, time, and location of the Convention has been determined,
9			notice of that fact shall be given together with the date, time, and location of the 10			Convention and other essential logistical matters;
11		d.	Upon approval of the Balanced Budget Amendment by the Convention, notice of 12			that fact shall be given together with the transmission of certified copies of such 13			approved proposed amendment and a statement requesting Congress to refer
14			the same for ratification by three-fourths of the legislatures of the several states
15			under Article V of the Constitution of the United States. However, in no event
16			shall any proposed amendment other than the Balanced Budget Amendment be 17			transmitted; and
18		e.	When any article of this compact prospectively ratifying the Balanced Budget
19			Amendment is effective in any member state, notice of the same shall be given
20			together with a statement declaring such ratification and further requesting
21			cooperation in ensuring that the official record confirms and reflects the effective
22			corresponding amendment to the Constitution of the United States. However,
23			whenever any member state enacts appropriate legislation, as determined by the 24			laws of the respective state, withdrawing from this compact, the compact
25			administrator shall immediately send certified conforming copies of the chaptered
26			version of such withdrawal legislation as maintained in the statutes of each such
27			withdrawing member state, solely to each chief executive officer of each
28			remaining member state, giving notice of such withdrawal.
29	8.	Coc	operation. The commission, member states, and compact administrator shall 30		coo	perate with each other and give each other mutual assistance in enforcing this
31			pact and shall give the chief law enforcement officer of each other member state

1		any information or documents that are reasonably necessary to facilitate the
2		enforcement of this compact.
3	9.	This article does not take effect until there are at least two member states.
4		ARTICLE V - RESOLUTION APPLYING FOR CONVENTION
5	1.	Be it resolved, as provided for in Article V of the Constitution of the United States, the 6		legislature of each member state herewith applies to Congress for the calling of a
7		convention for proposing amendments limited to the subject matter of proposing for
8		ratification the Balanced Budget Amendment.
9	2.	Congress is further petitioned to refer the Balanced Budget Amendment to the states
10		for ratification by three-fourths of their respective legislatures.
11	3.	This article does not take effect until at least three-fourths of the several states are
12		member states.
13	A	RTICLE VI - DELEGATE APPOINTMENT, LIMITATIONS, AND INSTRUCTIONS
14	1.	Number of delegates. Each member state shall be entitled to one delegate as its sole
15		and exclusive representative at the Convention as set forth in this article.
16	2.	Identity of delegates. Each member state's chief executive officer, who is serving on 17		the enactment date of this compact, is appointed in an individual capacity to represent
18		his or her respective state at the Convention as its sole and exclusive delegate.
19	3.	Replacement or recall of delegates. A delegate appointed hereunder may be replaced
20		or recalled by the legislature of his or her respective state at any time for good cause,
21		such as criminal misconduct or the violation of this compact. If replaced or recalled,
22		any delegate previously appointed hereunder must immediately vacate the Convention
23		and return to their respective state's capital.
24	4.	Oath. The power and authority of a delegate under this article may only be exercised
25		after the Convention is first called by Congress in accordance with this compact and
26		such appointment is duly accepted by such appointee publicly taking the following
27		oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I accept this appointment and
28		will act strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions of the compact for a
29		balanced budget, the constitution of the state I represent, and the Constitution of the 30		United States. I understand that violating this oath (or affirmation) forfeits my 31		appointment and may subject me to other penalties as provided by law."

1	5.	Term. The term of a delegate hereunder commences upon acceptance of appointment
2		and terminates upon the permanent adjournment of the Convention, unless shortened
3		by recall, replacement, or forfeiture under this article. Upon expiration of such term,
4		any person formerly serving as a delegate must immediately withdraw from and cease
5		participation at the Convention, if any is proceeding.
6	6.	Delegate authority. The power and authority of any delegate appointed hereunder is
7		strictly limited:
8		a. To introducing, debating, voting upon, proposing, and enforcing the Convention
9		rules specified in this compact, as needed to ensure those rules govern the 10		Convention; and
11		b. To introducing, debating, voting upon, and rejecting or proposing for ratification
12		the Balanced Budget Amendment. All actions taken by any delegate in violation
13		of this section are void ab initio.
14	7.	Delegate authority. No delegate of any member state may introduce, debate, vote
15		upon, reject, or propose for ratification any constitutional amendment at the 16		Convention unless:
17		a. Convention rules specified in this compact govern the Convention and their 18		actions; and
19		b. The constitutional amendment is the Balanced Budget Amendment.
20	8.	Delegate authority. The power and authority of any delegate at the Convention does 21		not include any power or authority associated with any other public office held by the 22		delegate. Any person appointed to serve as a delegate shall take a temporary leave of 23		absence, or otherwise shall be deemed temporarily disabled, from any other public
24		office held by the delegate while attending the Convention, and may not exercise any 25		power or authority associated with any other public office held by the delegate, while
26		attending the Convention. All actions taken by any delegate in violation of this section
27		are void ab initio.
28	9.	Order of business. Before introducing, debating, voting upon, rejecting, or proposing
29		for ratification any constitutional amendment at the Convention, each delegate of 30		every member state must first ensure the Convention rules in this compact govern the 31		Convention and their actions. Every delegate and each member state must

1		immediately vacate the Convention and notify the compact administrator by the most
2		effective and expeditious means if the Convention rules in this compact are not
3		adopted to govern the Convention and their actions.
4	10.	Forfeiture of appointment. If any member state or delegate violates any provision of
5		this compact, then every delegate of that member state immediately forfeits his or her
6		appointment, and shall immediately cease participation at the Convention, vacate the 7		Convention, and return to his or her respective state's capital.
8	11.	Expenses. A delegate appointed hereunder is entitled to reimbursement of reasonable
9		expenses for attending the Convention from his or her respective member state. No
10		delegate may accept any other form of remuneration or compensation for service
11		under this compact.
12		ARTICLE VII - CONVENTION RULES
13	1.	Nature of the Convention. The Convention shall be organized, construed, and
14		conducted as a body exclusively representing and constituted by the several states.
15	2.	Agenda of the Convention. The agenda of the Convention shall be entirely focused
16		upon and exclusively limited to introducing, debating, voting upon, and rejecting or
17		proposing for ratification the Balanced Budget Amendment under the Convention rules
18		specified in this article and in accordance with the compact. It shall not be in order for 19		the Convention to consider any matter that is outside the scope of this agenda.
20	3.	Delegate identity and procedure. States shall be represented at the Convention
21		through duly appointed delegates. The number, identity, and authority of delegates
22		assigned to each state shall be determined by this compact in the case of member
23		states or, in the case of states that are not member states, by their respective state
24		laws. However, to prevent disruption of proceedings, no more than three delegates
25		may attend and participate in the Convention on behalf of any state. A certified
26		chaptered conforming copy of this compact, together with government-issued
27		photographic proof of identification, shall suffice as credentials for delegates of 28		member states. Any commission for delegates of states that are not member states
29		shall be based on their respective state laws, but it shall furnish credentials that are at 30		least as reliable as those required of member states.

1	4.	Voting. Each state represented at the Convention shall have one vote, exercised by
2		the vote of that state's delegate in the case of states represented by one delegate, or,
3		in the case of any state that is represented by more than one delegate, by the majority
4		vote of that state's respective delegates.
5	5.	Quorum. A majority of the several states of the United States, each present through its 6		respective delegate in the case of any state that is represented by one delegate, or 7		through a majority of its respective delegates, in the case of any state that is
8		represented by more than one delegate, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction
9		of any business on behalf of the Convention.
10	6.	Action by the Convention. The Convention shall only act as a committee of the whole,
11		chaired by the delegate representing the first state to have become a member state, if 12		that state is represented by one delegate, or otherwise by the delegate chosen by the 13		majority vote of that state's respective delegates. The transaction of any business on 14		behalf of the Convention, including the designation of a secretary, the adoption of 15		parliamentary procedures, and the rejection or proposal of any constitutional
16		amendment, requires a quorum to be present and a majority affirmative vote of those 17		states constituting the quorum.
18	7.	Emergency suspension and relocation of the Convention. In the event that the chair of 19		the Convention declares an emergency due to disorder or an imminent threat to public
20		health and safety prior to the completion of the business on the agenda, and a majority
21		of the states present at the Convention do not object to such declaration, further
22		Convention proceedings shall be temporarily suspended, and the commission shall 23		subsequently relocate or reschedule the Convention to resume proceedings in an 24		orderly fashion in accordance with the terms and conditions of this compact with prior
25		notice given to the compact notice recipients.
26	8.	Parliamentary procedure. In adopting, applying, and formulating parliamentary
27		procedure, the Convention shall exclusively adopt, apply, or appropriately adapt
28		provisions of the most recent editions of Robert's Rules of Order and the American
29		Institute of Parliamentarians Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure. In adopting,
30		applying, or adapting parliamentary procedure, the Convention shall exclusively
31		consider analogous precedent arising within the jurisdiction of the United States.

1		Parliamentary procedures adopted, applied, or adapted pursuant to this section shall
2		not obstruct, override, or otherwise conflict with this compact.
3	9.	Transmittal. Upon approval of the Balanced Budget Amendment by the Convention to
4		propose for ratification, the chair of the Convention shall immediately transmit certified
5		copies of such approved proposed amendment to the compact administrator and all
6		compact notice recipients, notifying them respectively of such approval and requesting 7		Congress to refer the same for ratification by the states under Article V of the 8		Constitution of the United States. However, in no event shall any proposed
9		amendment other than the Balanced Budget Amendment be transmitted as aforesaid.
10	10.	Transparency. Records of the Convention, including the identities of all attendees and
11		detailed minutes of all proceedings, shall be kept by the chair of the Convention or 12		secretary designated by the Convention. All proceedings and records of the 13		Convention shall be open to the public upon request subject to reasonable regulations
14		adopted by the Convention that are closely tailored to preventing disruption of 15		proceedings under this article.
16	11.	Adjournment of the Convention. The Convention shall permanently adjourn upon the 17		earlier of twenty-four hours after commencing proceedings under this article or the 18		completion of the business on its agenda.
19		ARTICLE VIII - PROHIBITION ON ULTRA VIRES CONVENTION
20	1.	Member states shall not participate in the Convention unless:
21		a. Congress first calls the Convention in accordance with this compact; and
22		b. The Convention rules of this compact are adopted by the Convention as its first
23		order of business.
24	2.	Any proposal or action of the Convention is void ab initio and issued by a body that is
25		conducting itself in an unlawful and ultra vires fashion if that proposal or action:
26		a. Violates or was approved in violation of the Convention rules or the delegate
27		instructions and limitations on delegate authority specified in this compact;
28		b. Purports to propose or effectuate a mode of ratification that is not specified in 29		Article V of the Constitution of the United States; or

1		c. Purports to propose or effectuate the formation of a new government. All member
2		states are prohibited from advancing or assisting in the advancement of any such
3		proposal or action.
4	3.	Member states shall not ratify or otherwise approve any proposed amendment,
5		alteration, or revision to the Constitution of the United States, which originates from 6		the Convention, other than the Balanced Budget Amendment.
7	7 ARTICLE IX - RESOLUTION PROSPECTIVELY RATIFYING THE BALANCED BUDGET
8		AMENDMENT
9	1.	Each member state, by and through its respective legislature, hereby adopts and
10		ratifies the Balanced Budget Amendment.
11	2.	This article does not take effect until Congress effectively refers the Balanced Budget
12		Amendment to the states for ratification by three-fourths of the legislatures of the 13		several states under Article V of the Constitution of the United States.
14	A	RTICLE X - CONSTRUCTION, ENFORCEMENT, VENUE, AND SEVERABILITY
15	1.	To the extent that the effectiveness of this compact or any of its articles or provisions
16		requires the alteration of local legislative rules, drafting policies, or procedure to be 17		effective, the enactment of legislation enacting, adopting, and agreeing to be bound by 18		this compact shall be deemed to waive, repeal, supersede, or otherwise amend and
19		conform all such rules, policies, or procedures to allow for the effectiveness of this
20		compact to the fullest extent permitted by the constitution of any affected member
21		state.
22	2.	Date and location of the Convention. Unless otherwise specified by Congress in its 23		call, the Convention shall be held in Dallas, Texas, and commence proceedings at
24		9:00 a.m. central standard time on the sixth Wednesday after the latter of the effective
25		date of article V of this compact or the enactment date of the Congressional resolution
26		calling the Convention.
27	3.	In addition to all other powers and duties conferred by state law which are consistent
28		with the terms and conditions of this compact, the chief law enforcement officer of 29		each member state is empowered to defend the compact from any legal challenge, as 30		well as to seek civil mandatory and prohibitory injunctive relief to enforce this compact;
31		and shall take such action whenever the compact is challenged or violated.

1	4.	The exclusive venue for all actions in any way arising under this compact shall be in
2		the United States District Court for the northern district of Texas or the courts of the
3		state of Texas within the jurisdictional boundaries of the foregoing district court. Each
4		member state shall submit to the jurisdiction of said courts with respect to such 5		actions. However, upon written request by the chief law enforcement officer of any 6		member state, the commission may elect to waive this provision for the purpose of 7		ensuring an action proceeds in the venue that allows for the most convenient and
8		effective enforcement or defense of this compact. Any such waiver shall be limited to 9		the particular action to which it is applied and not construed or relied upon as a
10		general waiver of this provision. The waiver decisions of the commission under this 11		provision shall be final and binding on each member state.
12	5.	The effective date of this compact and any of its articles is the latter of:
13		a. The date of any event rendering the same effective according to its respective 14		terms and conditions; or
15		b. The earliest date otherwise permitted by law.
16	6.	Article VIII of this compact is hereby deemed nonseverable prior to termination of the 17		compact. However, if any other phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact,
18		or the applicability of any other phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact
19		to any government, agency, person, or circumstance, is declared in a final judgment to 20		be contrary to the Constitution of the United States, contrary to the state constitution of 21		any member state, or is otherwise held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction,
22		such phrase, clause, sentence, or provision shall be severed and held for naught, and
23		the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability of the remainder of 24		this compact to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be 25		affected. Furthermore, if this compact is declared in a final judgment by a court of 26		competent jurisdiction to be entirely contrary to the state constitution of any member
27		state or otherwise entirely invalid as to any member state, such member state shall be
28		deemed to have withdrawn from the compact, and the compact shall remain in full
29		force and effect as to any remaining member state. Finally, if this compact is declared
30		in a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or substantially in
31		violation of Article I, Section 10, of the Constitution of the United States, then it shall be

1		cons	trued and enforced solely as reciprocal legislation enacted by the affected
2		member states.
3	7.	Term	ination. This compact shall terminate and be held for naught when the compact is
4		fully	performed and the Constitution of the United States is amended by the Balanced
5		Budç	get Amendment. However, notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this 6		compact, in the event such amendment does not occur within seven years after the 7		first state passes legislation enacting, adopting, and agreeing to be bound to this
8		com	pact, the compact shall terminate as follows:
9		a.	The commission shall dissolve and wind up its operations within ninety days
10			thereafter, with the compact administrator giving notice of such dissolution and 11			the operative effect of this section to the compact notice recipients; and
12		b.	Upon the completed dissolution of the commission, this compact shall be 13			deemed terminated, repealed, void ab initio, and held for naught.
