- 19 2. "Association" means any club, association, union, brotherhood, fraternity, organization,

10 candidacy for public office;

13 e. An individual who has, in any manner, solicited or received a contribution for that 14 individual's candidacy for public office, whether before or after the election for 15 that office.

16 4. "Conduit" means a person that is not a political party, political committee, or candidate 17 and which receives a contribution of money and transfers the contribution to a 18 candidate, political party, or political committee when the contribution is designated 19 specifically for the candidate, political party, or political committee and the person has 20 no discretion as to the recipient and the amount transferred. The term includes a 21 transactional intermediary, including a credit card company or a money transfer 22 service that pays or transfers money to a candidate on behalf of another person.

30       a. Deemed properly filed when electronically delivered to the secretary of state 31       within the prescribed time and in the format established by the secretary of state.

1           If the secretary of state does not receive a statement, a duplicate of the 2           statement must be promptly filed upon notice by the secretary of state of its 3           nonreceipt. After a statement has been filed, the secretary of state may request 4           or accept written clarification along with an amended statement from a candidate,
5           political party, or political committee filing the statement when discrepancies,
6           errors, or omissions on the statement are discovered by the secretary of state, 7           the candidate, political party, or political committee filing the statement, or by any 8           interested party reciting a lawful reason for requesting clarification and an 9           amendment be made. When requesting an amended statement, the secretary of 10          state shall establish a reasonable period of time, not to exceed ten days, agreed 11          to by the candidate, political party, or political committee, for filing the amended 12          statement with the secretary of state.

13          b.    Preserved by the secretary of state for a period of ten years from the date of 14          filing. The statement is to be considered a part of the public records of the 15          secretary of state's office and must be open to public inspection.

16          2.    In determining the amount of individual contributions from any contributor, all amounts 17          received from the same contributor during the reporting period must be aggregated to 18          report an overall total contribution for the purposes of the statements required by this 19          chapter. Aggregate contributions must reference the date of the most recent 20          contribution. Contributions made separately by different persons from joint accounts 21          are considered separate contributions for reporting purposes.

22          3.    In reporting a contribution received through a conduit, a candidate, political party, or 23          political committee shall list each reportable contribution identifying the person that 24          submitted the contribution to the conduit and provide the required information 25          regarding the contribution from that person rather than identifying the conduit as the 26          contributor.

27          4.    Any statement and data filed electronically must be made available on the internet to 28          the public free of charge within twenty-four hours after filing.

29          4.5.    Unless otherwise provided by law, any candidate, political party, committee, or person

5 shall provide the recipient of the contribution a detailed statement that lists the name and 6 address of each individual contributor, the amount of each contribution, and the date each 7 contribution was received. The conduit also shall include on the statement the occupation, 8 employer, and principal place of business of each contributor, or the political committee if not 9 already registered according to state or federal law, which contributed five thousand dollars or 10 more in the aggregate during a reporting period applicable to the candidate, political party, or 11 political committee. The conduit shall provide the statement to the candidate, political party, or 12 political committee in a manner to allow the candidate, political party, or political committee to 13 file any statement required to be filed under this chapter.
