POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. DELMORE rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE DELMORE

MR. SPEAKER: I rise to the Point of Personal Privilege. Today I would like to recognize the 100th Anniversary of North Dakota Women's Right to Vote.

The North Dakota suffrage movement had strong leaders but few followers before 1912. During those "drought years" there were a few state conventions where suffragists gathered to discuss the issues. No woman suffrage bills were approved until 1917. On that date, January 23, 1917, Governor Lynn J. Frazier, a member of the Nonpartisan League, signed the women's suffrage bill giving North Dakota women the right to vote in statewide elections. Voting rights were limited. Women could vote for presidential electors and city and township officers. They could not vote for governor, members of the legislature, nor Senator or Representative to Congress.

The rest is history. Please help me to recognize this milestone in North Dakota history!!

REP. HOGAN REQUESTED that the remarks of Rep. Delmore be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.
