5            chapter 6-08.5 to a law enforcement agency or the department of human services.
6            This subsection may not be construed to impose a duty on a financial institution to 7            investigate a suspected financial exploitation of an eligible adult or to make a report to 8            the department of human services or law enforcement agency.

9            SECTION 2. Chapter 6-08.5 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as 10 follows:

11            6-08.5-01. Definitions.

12            As used in this chapter:

- 13            1. "Account" means funds or assets held by a financial service provider, including a 14            deposit account, savings account, share account, certificate of deposit, trust account, 15            individual retirement account, guardianship or conservatorship account, investment or 16            securities account, retirement account, loan, extension of credit, or safe deposit box.
- 17            2. "Eligible adult" means an individual who is at least sixty-five years of age or a 18            vulnerable adult as defined in section 50-25.2-01.
- 19            3. "Financial exploitation" means the wrongful or unauthorized taking, withholding,
20            appropriation, or use of an eligible adult's money, assets, or property for one's own
21            benefit or the benefit of a third party. The term includes defrauding an eligible adult.
- 22            4. "Financial service provider" means a financial institution, credit union, savings and 23            loan association, or trust company.
- 24            5. "Financial transaction" means any of the following as applicable to the business or 25            services provided by a financial service provider:
- 26            a. A transfer or request to transfer or disburse funds or assets in an account;
27            b. A request to initiate a wire transfer, initiate an automated clearing house transfer,
28            or issue a money order, cashier's check, or official check;
29            c. A request to negotiate a check or other negotiable instrument;
30            d. A request to change the ownership of an account; ~~or~~ 31            e. A request for a loan, extension of credit, or draw on a line of credit; or

1 f. A request to designate or change the designation of a beneficiary to receive any 2 property, benefit, or contract right for an eligible adult.

3 6. "Law enforcement agency" means an agency authorized by law to enforce the law and 4 to conduct or engage in investigations or prosecutions for violations of the law.

5 6-08.5-02. Eligible adult financial exploitation prevention - Duration of refusal or 6 hold - Notification and reporting - Immunity.

7 1. If a financial service provider has a good faith belief to suspect financial exploitation
8 occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted, the financial service provider may 9 refuse a financial transaction or hold a financial transaction on an account:

10 a. Belonging to the eligible adult;

11 b. On which the eligible adult is a beneficiary, including a trust, guardianship, or 12 conservatorship account; or

13 c. Belonging to a person suspected of perpetrating financial exploitation.

14 2. A financial service provider may refuse a financial transaction or hold a financial 15 transaction under this section if the department of human services or a law
16 enforcement agency provides information to the financial service provider 17 demonstrating it is reasonable to believe financial exploitation occurred, was 18 attempted, or is being attempted.

19 3. Subsection 2 does not require a financial service provider to refuse a financial 20 transaction or hold a financial transaction if provided with information by the 21 department of human services or a law enforcement agency alleging financial 22 exploitation occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted. Except as ordered by a 23 court, a financial service provider may determine whether to refuse a financial 24 transaction or hold a financial transaction based on the information available to the 25 financial service provider.

26 4. A financial service provider refusing a financial transaction or holding a financial 27 transaction based on a good faith belief to suspect financial exploitation occurred, was 28 attempted, or is being attempted shall:

29 a. Except with regard to an account administered by a bank or trust company in a 30 fiduciary capacity, make a reasonable effort to notify, orally or in writing, one or 31 more parties authorized to transact business on the account; and

- 1            b. Report the incident to the department of human services, if the incident involves 2            financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult as defined in section 50-25.2-01.
3            5. Notice under this section is not required to be provided to a party authorized to 4            conduct business on the account if the party is the suspected perpetrator of financial 5            exploitation.
6            6. A financial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
7            provider, is immune from all criminal, civil, and administrative liability:
8            a. For refusing or not refusing a financial transaction, or for holding or not holding a 9            financial transaction under this section; or 10           b. For actions taken in furtherance of the determination made under subdivision a, if 11           the determination is based upon a good faith belief financial exploitation
12           occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted.

13            6-08.5-03. Reporting to a law enforcement agency or the department of human 14            services - Immunity.

- 15            1. If a financial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
16            provider has a good faith belief to suspect financial exploitation of an eligible adult 17            occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted, the financial service provider, or an 18            employee, officer, or director of a financial service provider may report the information
19            to a law enforcement agency or the department of human services.
20            2. This section does not impose a duty on a financial institution to investigate a
21            suspected financial exploitation of an eligible adult or to make a report to a law
22            enforcement agency or the department of human services.
23            3. A financial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
24            provider, is immune from all criminal, civil, and administrative liability for reporting or 25            not reporting under this section if the determination is made based on a good faith
26            belief that financial exploitation occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted.

27            6-08.5-04. Individuals who may be contacted regarding suspected financial 28            exploitation - Immunity - Exemption from customer consent and notice provisions.

- 29            1. A financial service provider may offer to an eligible adult the opportunity to submit and 30            update periodically a list of individuals the eligible adult authorizes the financial service

1           provider to contact if the financial service provider has reasonable cause to suspect
2           the eligible adult is a victim or a target of financial exploitation.

3           2. Notwithstanding subsection 1, a financial service provider having a good faith belief to 4           suspect an eligible adult is the victim or target of financial exploitation may convey the 5           suspicion to one or more of the following individuals, provided the individual is not the 6           suspected perpetrator:

7           a. An individual on the list described in subsection 1.

8           b. A co-owner, additional authorized signatory, or beneficiary on the eligible adult's
9           account.

10          c. An attorney-in-fact, trustee, conservator, guardian, or other fiduciary who has 11          been selected or appointed to manage some or all of the financial affairs of the 12          eligible adult.

13          3. If a financial service provider provides information under this section, the financial 14          service provider may limit the information, such as disclosing only that the financial 15          service provider has reasonable cause to suspect the eligible adult may be a victim or 16          target of financial exploitation, without disclosing any other details or confidential
17          personal information regarding the financial affairs of the eligible adult.

18          4. The financial service provider may choose not to contact an individual on the list 19          provided under subsection 1, if the financial service provider suspects the individual is 20          engaged in financial exploitation.

21          5. The financial service provider may rely on information provided by the eligible adult in 22          compiling a list of contact individuals.

23          6. A financial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
24          provider, is immune from all criminal, civil, and administrative liability for contacting an 25          individual or electing not to contact an individual under this section and for actions
26          taken in furtherance of that determination if the determination is made based on a 27          good faith belief financial exploitation occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted.

28          7. Contact with an individual, and any information provided under this section, is exempt
29          from the customer consent provisions in sections 6-08.1-03 and 6-08.1-04.

1        6-08.5-04. Refusal to accept power of attorney - Immunity.

2        1. A financial service provider may refuse to accept an acknowledged power of attorney if 3        the financial service provider has a good faith belief to suspect the principal is or may 4        be the victim or target of financial exploitation by the agent or individual acting for or 5        with the agent.

6        2. A financial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
7        provider, is immune from all criminal, civil, and administrative liability for refusing to 8        accept a power of attorney or for accepting a power of attorney under this section and 9        for actions taken in furtherance of that determination if the determination was based 10       on a good faith belief financial exploitation occurred, was attempted, or was being 11       attempted.
