Minutes:

Sen. Flakoll opened the hearing on HB 1052, a bill relating to the licensure of veterinarians.

All members (7) were present.

John Boyce, executive secretary of the ND Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners, testified in favor of the bill. See attached testimony.

Sen. Taylor- On the VCPR, by moving it from subsection B to subsection C does this make it a little tougher in terms of freelance veterinarian writing scripts from 300 miles away or is that the intent of moving it to the other subsection there? What was the intent?

John Boyce- I don't know what the FDA's intent was in doing that.

Nancy Kopp, ND Veterinary Medical Assistant, testified in favor of the bill.

Nancy Kopp- I stand here in support of this bill, I will confirm that we did communicate with the state board of veterinary medical examiners and discussed the proposed provisions to the veterinary practice act and did agree with them. We primarily contributed suggestions and conversation towards another bill that dealt with the repeal of the purpose. I want to assure you that our membership does not feel that this bill enhances nor does it diminish the current practice of veterinary medicine and such. With that I ask for your consideration of passage of this bill.

Sen. Taylor- do you see any substantial changes in the client patient relationship by the movement of it, or did any veterinarians discuss that when you had it before the convention?

Nancy Kopp- we did not discuss that in particular I did visit with Dr. Boyce yesterday and in reviewing this bill once again as it comes before your committee and we discussed it and I was comfortable in his response in that it is through the USDA and he had discussions with legislative council in the drafting of this bill.

No opposition to the bill.

Sen. Flakoll closed the hearing.

Sen. Erbele motioned for a Do Pass and was seconded by Sen. Wanzek, roll call vote 1: 6 yea, 0 nay, 1 absent. Sen. Taylor was designated to carry the bill to the floor.

House Bill 1052

House Agriculture Committee, January 19, 2007

John R. Boyce, Executive Secretary, North Dakota Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners

The North Dakota Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners has prepared several proposed amendments to the veterinary medical practice act (NDCC 43-29) for consideration by the 2007 Legislature. These amendments, which serve mainly to correct inaccurate or outdated language, are included in House Bill 1052. The following explanation is offered for the proposed amendments.

Accreditation of veterinary medical colleges and veterinary technician training programs is done by the American Veterinary Medical Association's Council on Education, and Committee on Veterinary Technician Education and Activities, respectively. These groups now use only the word "accredited" to designate colleges and programs that meet accreditation standards. The words "approved" and "unapproved" are no longer used. Therefore, these terms are proposed for deletion from the practice act wherever they appear (seven places). In addition, wording in subsections 1 and 2 of 43-29-01.1 regarding these two accrediting bodies has been updated to reflect current usage.

The US Food and Drug Administration has revised its definition of the veterinarian-client-patient relationship. The new wording had been included in subsection 9 of 43-29-01.1.

The National Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners is the correct name for the organization previously known as the National Board Examination Committee, and that change has been made in two places in 43-29-07.2.

Subsection 1 of 43-29-07.2 has been revised in several places to allow the board to comply with policies of the National Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners regarding dates, application deadlines, and retakes for the North American Veterinary Licensing Examination.

Subsection 1a of section 43-29-14 has been modified to add violation of examination security as a ground for discipline.

All of the above changes were reviewed by the North Dakota Veterinary Medical Association leadership, and were discussed at two NDVMA meetings (September 27, 2006 in Fargo and November 9, 2006 in Bismarck).

I would be pleased to answer any questions that members of the Committee may have.
