Minutes:

Chairman Belter opened the hearing on SB 2162.

Senator Larry Robinson: (attachment #1)

Chairman Belter: Is this bill identical to the ones in previous sessions?

Senator Robinson: Yes, it is.

Curt Sherman, Minot ND, President of the Silver Haired Assembly: (testimony attached)

Rep Froseth: What is your source of funding? What is your annual budget?

Sherman: Since 1997 our organization has been working with donations. Last session we started having one instead of two delegates per county. Prior to the session last July, we had $7,000. It cost approximately $12,000. But donations are our primary source. We need about $20,000 to operate for two years.

Rep Weiler: How do the donations come in? Do you send out letters?

Sherman: We send a letter once a year to each of the senior centers.

Rep Drovdal: Do you have an estimate about how much money this would bring in to your organization?

Sherman: We don't know for sure. $18,000 went to wildlife and $12,000 went to trees for ND. These are the two line items on there now.

Rep Grande: How many member do you have? How are they chosen.

Sherman: We have 42 people that participated in the Assembly. They are nominated and elected from their county. Each county has their own ballot.

Rep Grande: How do people find out about this program ?

Sherman: Each county, in November of every other year, we send out a packet to the senior centers, the chairman of the county and one other packet. It includes everything anyone needs to become a delegate.

Rep Grande: Do you have to attend a senior center in order to find out about it?

Sherman: Yes, they attend senior centers. They are 60 or older. We also put a letter in the paper.

Rep Grande: Are the centers helping out? Are they charged a fee as a member? Or do the centers contribute any money to the organization?

Sherman: Most senior centers have a fee. Anywhere from $2.00 per person to $5.00 per person. We asked each senior center to donate $1.00 per member as an allocation to us which they do. Ward county has had some extra money and has given us over $3000 over the past two years.

Rep Grande: I'm from Cass County and it appears to be inequitable to have one member from each county. How was that decided?

Sherman: It was decided in 1980 by the people that started the program. Each county was to have 2 delegates. Because of lack of money, we have gone down to one.

Rep Weiler: Do you have access to the mailing list for the AARP? (yes) Why have you not sent out a mailing to the 100,000 members of AARP in ND?

Sherman: We have. The request has been in the mailing that the AARP has sent out. It is in their newsletter. They have offered to help whenever they can.

Bernie Wagner, Silver Haired Education Association: (testimony attached #2)

Wagner: 200 last year.

Rep Headland: In your testimony here, you comment that the vote two years ago was down party lines. Why do you think that?

Wagner: We wondered because it came out of the Senate overwhelmingly. And then when we got the report back - I don't know the reason.

Chairman Belter: I would explain it this way. It does have nothing to do with politics. The issue before our committee is that you are asking the legislature to put an extra line on the tax form so that your organization can collect money. From my perspective, you have these organizations throughout the state that should be picking up the ball and making the necessary donations in order for your organization to carry on your assembly which is a very admirable thing to do. But what I have a problem with is that if your organizations are not willing to come forward and put up the necessary funding .which would take very little funding from your membership, if they are not willing to do that on a voluntary basis, what makes you think that they are going to voluntarily going to contribute on the tax form.

With no more testimony Chairman Belter closed the hearing.

Discussion

Rep Schmidt: You heard them tell you that this will probably be their last shot. It started in ND about the same time it was started on a national scale. Senator Frank Wenstrom set aside $40,000 from the general fund for the silver haired assembly. I attended the 1994 session. In 1997 the funding was taken away from them. Since then they have gone down hill. I think this is very important.

Chairman Belter: I don't think this is a question about the purpose of the silver haired legislature. We do have a resolution to study that tax system and do away with the long form.

Unfortunately it didn't get passed last time. We already have two things on the check off which I personally believe shouldn't be there and I hate to add another one. Until that study is done, I think we should keep it clean. The other issue from my perspective is that the seniors have not come forward and taken the responsibility. I just don't think we need that extra line.

2007 TESTIMONY

SB 2162

January 23, 2007

Sen. Herb Urlacher, Chairperson
Senate Finance and Tax Committee
Testimony Senate Bill 2162
Sen. Larry Robinson

Mr. Chairperson and members of the committee. I appear before you today as the prime sponsor of Sen. Bill 2162, a bill designed to provide for an optional income tax check off for use by the North Dakota Silver Haired Education programs. Mr. Chairperson and members of the committee, this bill is no stranger to this committee and this legislature. Last year this bill was approved by this committee and the Senate only to be defeated in the House of Representatives. We are back because we believe in this program and the work of the Silver Haired Education Association.

Built into the bill is a provision to cover the costs associated with the collection of these dollars, up to $12,000 for the 2007-2009 biennium. The remaining dollars would then be transferred to the state treasurer for deposit in the Silver Haired Education program fund. Moneys in this fund are appropriated as a standing and continuing appropriation to the department of human services for distribution to the silver haired education association as needed, to cover expenses associated with the silver haired legislative assembly and other education programs of the organization.

Mr. Chairperson and members of the committee, we have a unique opportunity to provide support for an important organization in our state. These folks have elected to remain involved in the political process. We are all better off for that decision. They bring a life of experience to the table and many of the ideas and proposals are channeled to the legislative assembly of this great state.

Mr. Chairperson and members of the committee. These folks are from America's Greatest Generation. They have given so much and now are asking so little. Let's support their cause and approve this bill so they can continue their important work.

Thank you.

SENATE BILL 2162
LEWIS AND CLARK ROOM
TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 2007
11.00 A.M.

Chairman Urlacher and members of this committee—GOOD MORNING

My name is Curtis Herman from Minot, North Dakota. I am President of the North Dakota Silver-Haired Education Association (NDSHEA) and am also Chairman of the Steering Committee which is the governing body of the NDSHEA. I am in favor of SB 2162 because of the need to have adequate funding necessary to continue the work of SHEA.

The goal of the SHEA is to make a difference in the livelihood of the Seniors in North Dakota. The North Dakota Silver-Haired Education Association is an organization composed of Senior Citizens from throughout North Dakota who are 60 years of age and older. SHEA is a 501-C-3 non-profit tax exempt corporation. Originally SHEA was funded by contract with (Federal Older American Act) dollars channeled through the Aging Network of North Dakota (ANND), local match and additional contributions. SHEA lost this Federal funding in 1997 and although the office closed its doors, the vision of the Silver-Haired Assembly remained strong in the hearts and minds of many people. Since 1997 SHEA has been able to continue with contributions from senior clubs and other organizations. It is our hope that with the passage of SB 2162 we will again be able to organize an office staff and continue to improve the health and welfare of the approximate 180,000 senior citizens of North Dakota. According to the last census North Dakota persons aged 60 and older comprise 29 per cent of our population and this percentage number is growing in leaps and bounds. Thus the need for an organization such as the North Dakota Silver-Haired Education Association.

One delegate is elected from each county in North Dakota to represent that county at the North Dakota Silver-Haired Legislative Assembly. The term of office is for two years. During the first day of the Assembly a Steering Committee is formed. The steering committee composed of one delegate is elected from each of the Governor's eight regions is elected to serve on the Steering Committee. The President, President Pro Tem and the representative from the Reservations are also members of the Committee.

The last SHEA was held on July 26, 27, and 28, 2006 in the North Dakota House Chambers with forty four of the fifty three counties represented. The state of Missouri held the first Silver-Haired Legislature in 1972 and has convened one every year since. At the present time there are 36 states that have an organized Silver-Haired Education Association. The first NDSHEA was convened in 1980 and is a pattern of the Missouri experience. A Silver-Haired Legislative Assembly has been held every other year since 1980. The Silver-Haired Legislature is a model legislative session whose purpose is to provide an educational experience for older citizens, informing them about the legislative process through actual involvement in it and to provide a forum through which the needs of their constituents can be brought forth and addressed.

Senator Urlacher, Chairman of the Senate Finance Taxation Committee.

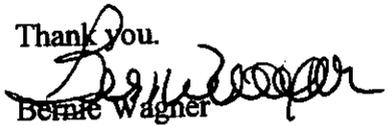

I am Bernie Wagner Secretary of SHEA Steering Committee.

I appear here this morning asking your support of this very important piece of Legislation.

I concur with all of remarks that our President Curt just completed.

If we don't succeed this Legislation Session I am afraid that our Silver Haired program will be History and if we do succeed we will be in a position to hire someone instead of asking our Steering Committee members to prepare all of our Legislation.

Thank you.

SB2162

Good Morning Chairman Belter and members of the House Finance and Taxation Committee

I am Bernie Wagner, I am hear to talk to you in favor of SB 2162 and why I feel that you should consider my request to approve this very important Bill.

I have been in contact with each of you several times by email requesting your support.

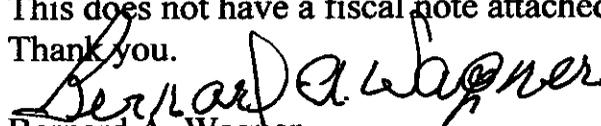

Yes, I concur with the remarks that President Herman presented to you. You may wonder why I strongly support this issue. In Sunday Feb 12 issue of the Fargo Forum, Richard Rathge , director of North Dakota data center gave figures and numbers how the Senior population in North Dakota is going to escalate in the next 10 to 15 years. I am a Veteran of WW11 serving with the North Dakota National Guard in the South Pacific. I have been involved in Veterans affairs and the elderly since the Korean War. I served on the Administrative Committee on Veterans Affairs in both sub committees and the Chairman of the Committee representing WW1 Veterans, Amvet's and the Disabled American Veterans as Department Commander. I am presently the Ombudsman for the North Veterans Home, President of the 164th Infantry Association for the United States, Chairman of South Central Adult Services, Chairman of Barnes County Seniors, Chairman of Barnes County Housing. My wife and I live in Bridgeview Estates in Valley City which is an Assisted Living facility with 45 apartments and I am the Chairman of the Bridgeview Estates Board that supervises daily operation.

As a Silver Haired Delegate and the Secretary of the Steering committee I know first hand the need for the existence of the Silver Haired Education Association in the State of North Dakota. If this bill is not approved the existence of the SHEA program is in jeopardy. As you know it came out of the Senate with overwhelming support. We had the same type of support 2 years ago but the House of Representatives voted no on the bill strictly on party lines and I would certainly hope that we don't witness this type of support for our elderly in the State of North Dakota this session.

This does not have a fiscal note attached so this is a win-win bill.

Thank you.

Big shift in elders forecast

Seniors 'tidal wave' to change economy

By Patrick Springer
pspringer@forumcomm.com

North Dakota is beginning a dramatic population shift that will thin the ranks of the state's most productive workers while the proportion of seniors balloons as "baby boomers" retire.

The demographic "tidal wave" will include significant economic ripple effects, including a projected loss of earnings from wages and salaries approaching $1 billion in 2020, according to a new report.

"This is just one year, and this is not even the peak year," said Richard Rathge, director of the North Dakota State Data Center and lead author of the report on the economic implications of the state's graying population.

Starting two years ago, the leading edge of the baby boom generation reached age 60, and the number of those reaching retirement age by 2020 likely will swell by 55,785, roughly the population of Bismarck.

That year, the number of seniors age 65 or older - almost 600,000 - will exceed the number of those in the prime working-age population, ages 35 to 54, a group projected to drop from 183,435 in 2000 to 146,717 in 2020.

More than 8 of 10 people in the prime working years are in the labor force, while only 15 percent of seniors are wage and salary earners, according to the report.

"What do we think's going to happen to the work force?" Rathge said, adding that policy makers and employers should begin planning to meet the challenge.

The report predicts a drop of 58,882 income earners below age 55 in 2020 compared to 2000 - a loss that would translate into a drop in earnings of about $1.5 billion, the vast majority from wages and salaries.

Rathge

In turn, the reduction in wage and salary earners has financial implications for state government. Federal income tax figures from 2004 indicated that 72 percent of the tax liability was paid by wage and salary earners.

Seniors paid about 15 percent of North Dakota's $252.6 million total tax liability in 2005, and comprised 15 percent of the state's tax filers.

"What will happen to taxes?" Rathge said in an interview. "We will see a significant reduction in tax earnings for the state."

Despite the shrinking segment of workers in the prime age group, the economic projections predict North Dakota will experience an increase in total earnings of almost $570 million by 2020, with a much larger portion coming from retirement investments and Social Security.

Cory Fong, North Dakota's tax commissioner, said he has been immersed in legislative activity and hasn't seen the data center's report on the economic impact of the rising senior population.

"Of course we always have to be looking at these kinds of trends," Fong said. He noted the state's economy currently is strong, with significant increases in almost all tax categories. North Dakota is poised to see its 15th consecutive quarter - spanning almost four years - of growth in sales tax receipts.

Rathge said many will be surprised at how rapidly the shift to a more elderly population will descend upon the state. From 2000 to 2005, the increase was a modest 3.8 percent. But that will escalate to an increase of 17.5 percent from 2015 to 2020.

"It's like this big tidal wave, it's moving forward," Rathge said of the wave of aging baby boomers, those born from 1946 to 1964. "And we've had calm

Getting ready for the senior tsunami

North Dakota's senior population, relatively stable for the past three decades, is poised to begin rapid growth over the next 15 years, growing by more than 55,000 - roughly the population of Bismarck - by 2020.

The Forum

North Dakota's rapidly aging population profile is a more dramatic version of the shift that is occurring throughout the country, and the state could serve as a policy and entrepreneurship laboratory, Rathge said.

"At the very least we should look at policies that encourage early retirement," he said, including pensions and health care coverage. Those are national policies, but states can initiate policies to entice seniors to remain in the work force.

"North Dakota's a bellwether of what's going on nationally," he said.

Although the state's increasingly gray population poses significant challenges, the report also makes the case that it also presents economic opportunities.

In Florida, for example, studies have found that one job is created for every 2.5 retirees. The ratio was even more favorable in North Carolina, where a study documented one job for every senior who migrated to an area attracting wealthy retirees, according to the report.

But Florida and western North Carolina are viewed as "high amenity" areas that attract the well-to-do, a situation that poses challenges for many rural areas, Rathge said. Still, communities and busi-

Since 1997 SHEA has been able to continue with contributions from senior clubs and other organizations. It is our hope that with the passage of SB 2162 we will again be able to organize an office staff and continue to improve the health and welfare of the approximate 160,000 senior citizens of North Dakota. According to the last census North Dakota persons aged 60 and older comprise Approximately 30 per cent of our population and this percentage number is growing in leaps and bounds. Thus the need for an organization such as the North Dakota Silver-Haired Education Association.

One delegate is elected from each county in North Dakota to represent that county at the North Dakota Silver-Haired Legislative Assembly. The term of office is for two years. During the last day of the Assembly a Steering Committee is formed. The steering committee is composed of one delegate elected from each of the Governor's eight regions is elected to serve on the Steering Committee. The President, President Pro Tem and the representative from the Reservations are also members of the Committee.

The last SHEA was held on July 26, 27, and 28, 2006 in the North Dakota House Chambers with forty one of the fifty three counties represented. The state of Missouri held the first Silver-Haired Legislature in 1972 and has convened one every year since. At the present time there are 36 states that have an organized Silver-Haired Education Association. The first NDSHEA was convened in 1980 and is a pattern of the Missouri experience.

A Silver-Haired Legislative Assembly has been held every

The Silver-Haired Legislature is a model legislative session whose purpose is to provide an educational experience for older citizens, informing them about the legislative process through actual involvement in it and to provide a forum through which the needs of their constituents can be brought forth and addressed.

WHAT IS THE NORTH DAKOTA SILVER-HAIRED EDUCATION ASSOCIATION?

The North Dakota Silver-Haired Education Association Inc. (NDSHEA) :

- Incorporated as a tax exempt (501-C-3) non-profit organization.
- Contributions are tax-deductible donations.
- Plans and conducts the Silver-Haired Assembly
- Organized to encourage good citizenship and awareness of the electoral and legislative process
- Provides a forum to identify the needs and concerns of older persons
- Provides input to improve the quality of life for seniors who are frail, vulnerable, isolated, low-income or members of minorities
- Is non-partisan and not a lobbying organization
- Brings awareness of the key issues and the legislative process to promote positive action
- Does not discriminate on race, sex, religion or disability
- Identifies issues, drafts mock legislation to learn about the process of bills
- Provides training through various education means
- Members serve as advocates and works on their behalf, for the senior population of North Dakota

How is the Silver-Haired Education Association Governed?

The Steering Committee is the governing board for the Silver-Haired Education Association. At least one elected delegate from each of North Dakota's eight Governor's Regions and a representative from the Native American elderly, make up the committee. Advisory members, with aging concerns, may also have a representative. The term of office is for two years.

Delegates must be at least 60 years of age and reside in the county from which they were elected. The delegates serve as a communicator for seniors in their county to inform them about issues and bills.

What is the Silver-Haired Assembly?

The Assembly is a model legislative session that meets every even numbered year for several days in the Legislative House Chambers of the North Dakota State Capitol. Elections are held every two years. A delegate is elected from each county and one represents the reservations. Members must be 60 years of age or older and reside in the county from which they are elected.

The delegates are educated in the legislative process through participation in bill drafting, committee work and debate on vital issues of concern to older North Dakotans. The delegates are responsible for keeping their constituents informed on the activities of the Silver-Haired Assembly.

How and When Did the Interest in Silver-Haired Assemblies Begin?

Commentators characterized the 1970's as a time of political apathy among Americans. However, it was during the 1970's that the emergence of our senior citizens became activated.

Missouri held the first Silver-Haired Legislature in 1972 and convened a session annually since.

The first North Dakota Silver-Haired Assembly was convened in 1980 and was patterned after Missouri. A Steering Committee was appointed with broad representation from service agencies and organizations, state leaders, and legislators.

The first Assembly decreed a resolution to hold a second session in 1982. Sessions have been held every two years since then: 1984, 1986, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1994, 1996, 1998, 2000, 2002, 2004, and 2006.

The North Dakota Silver-Haired Assembly is successful and will continue to provide input on senior issues at the state level.

What is the National Silver-Haired Congress?

There are senior issues, which are by their nature, complexity and magnitude, transcend state boundaries and must be addressed at the national level. Through a NATIONAL SILVER-HAIRED CONGRESS, a national senior citizens congressional forum is established to provide:

- A legislative focus for concerns of Older Americans
- "Elder legislation" in bill form
- National visibility of aging issues
- A national forum for involvement of the elderly in the federal legislative process
- Necessary follow-up on aging issues involving ongoing communications with Congress
- Provides "grassroots" input to our National Congress

The inaugural National Silver-Haired Congress was held in Washington, DC, February 1997. This was an opportunity of a lifetime for older adults to meet and determine Actions necessary to solve some of the nations's most vexing problems—not only for the older generations but for generations to come. The philosophy of the group goes beyond addressing needs of the elderly and includes issues that affect all generations.

While the National Silver-Haired Congress emulates the United States Congress in its size, and its internal system of checks and balances, the Silver-Haired Congress only makes recommendations to the US Congress.

The National Silver-Haired explores and debates important matters affecting the elderly. The National Silver-Haired Congress discusses alternative approaches and solutions to problems and shares them with other senior groups and individuals. Suggested bills are brought to the attention of the National Congress.
