Jeb Oehlke
Deputy Treasurer

Mr. Chairman, members of the committee:

For the record I am Jeb Oehlke, Deputy Treasurer for the Office of State Treasurer. I am here in support of HB 1095, which was submitted by the Treasurer's Office.

This is a housekeeping bill which amends the statute relating to the distribution of Taylor Grazing Act funds to reflect how the allocation of these federal funds is determined. The Bureau of Land Management apportions the funds among the counties and the State Treasurer's Office distributes the funds to the counties accordingly. This statutory change reflects that practice.

There is no fiscal impact from this change.

We ask the committee for a Do Pass recommendation.

Thank you.
