10-11-02-01. Application.

1. Upon receipt of a request for application, the attorney general's licensing division will prepare and furnish the applicants with a copy of North Dakota Century Code chapter 43-31 and the procedures and rules for licensing.
2. When an application for detection of deception examiners license is received by the attorney general's licensing division, all requested information has been furnished, and the examination fee has been received, the application will be forwarded to a representative from the bureau of criminal investigation.
3. After a background investigation has been conducted, by the representative, the representative will return the application to the licensing division with advice to the attorney general regarding the action to be taken on the application, i.e., issuance on reciprocity, approval, or denial.
4. Upon receipt of the application, the licensing division will notify the attorney general of the representative's findings, and the attorney general will take final action on the application, i.e., issuance on reciprocity, approval, or denial. Then the licensing division will notify the applicant in regard to the appropriate action taken by the attorney general.
