69.5-01-03-06. Stewards - General authority.

1. The stewards for each racing meeting are responsible to the commission for the conduct of the race meeting in accordance with the laws of this state and the rules adopted by the commission. The stewards only have authority to resolve conflicts or disputes between all other racing officials or licensees where the disputes are reasonably related to the conduct of each race, or races, and to punish violators of these rules in accordance with the provisions of these rules.
2. Should any steward be absent at race time, the other two stewards shall agree on the appointment of a deputy for the absent steward or if they are unable to agree on a deputy, then the racing secretary shall appoint a deputy for that race. If any deputy steward is appointed, the commission must be notified immediately by the stewards.
3. All three stewards must be present in the stands during the running of each race.
4. The period of authority for the association stewards commences upon issuance of their license by the commission and terminates thirty days after the end of each racing meet.

5. Stewards, from their own observations, may take notice of misconduct or rule violations and institute investigations and compliance of possible rules' violations.
6. Stewards may inspect at any time a license document or paper related to horse racing including, without limitation, partnership papers, jockey employment contracts, appointments of authorized agents or jockey agents, jockey agents' engagement records, and the adoption of colors.

69.5-01-03-07. Stewards - Enforcement authority.

1. Stewards shall enforce these rules and the racing laws of this state and have authority to charge any licensee for a violation of these rules and the laws of this state, to conduct hearings, and to recommend to the commission the imposition of administrative fees or suspensions within the limits and procedures of this section. The decision of the stewards as to the extent of a disqualification of any horse in any race is final for purposes of distribution of the pari-mutuel pool and purses.
2. Stewards may impose administrative fees of up to one thousand dollars for each offense or suspend occupational licenses for up to six months for each offense, or both such fee and suspension. Such action by the stewards does not bar the commission from imposing a more severe penalty if so required in the determination of the commission. However, the commission shall initiate no action increasing any steward's penalty after sixty days from the date of the stewards' action. The stewards, instead of taking action against a licensee, may refer any alleged violation to the commission for hearing and decision, but such referral to the commission by the stewards is not necessary as a condition to commission action against a licensee. In cases where fines or penalties alter the results of a race, the stewards shall re-award purses, prizes, awards, and trophies.
3. All fines imposed by the stewards upon a licensee must be paid by the licensee to the commission within forty-eight hours after imposition.

History: Effective July 1, 1989; amended effective January 1, 2008.

69.5-01-03-08. Stewards' summary hearings.

1. Violations. The stewards may take summary and immediate action when violations constitute an immediate danger to public health, safety, and welfare. If such action is taken prior to the summary hearing procedure in subsection 2, the affected licensee is entitled to a postsuspension hearing pursuant to such subdivision. The stewards may conduct summary proceedings for violations involving the following:

- a. Horse riding.
 - b. The use of drugs and medication.
 - c. Possessing a device for the injection of prohibited substances in horses.
 - d. Suspensions under reciprocity agreements with other states.
 - e. Acts prohibited by any of the provisions of North Dakota Century Code chapter 12.1 and any other criminal offenses prohibited by state law when by a preponderance of evidence, the stewards believe such offenses to have occurred.
 - f. Prearranging or attempting to prearrange the outcome of a race.
2. Summary hearing procedure. Stewards' hearings in respect to matters exempted from notice and hearing provisions, unless waived by the licensee, nevertheless shall provide at least the following:
- a. Written notice to the licensee, delivered at least three days prior to the hearing, informing the licensee of the charges against the licensee and the possible penalties which may be imposed as well as the right to counsel; the right to present a defense, including witnesses for that purpose; and the right to cross-examine the stewards' witnesses.
 - b. The stewards may grant a continuance of any hearing set under the summary procedures authorized for good cause shown.
 - c. Failure of a licensee to appear at any scheduled hearing shall constitute a violation of these rules.

History: Effective July 1, 1989.

General Authority: NDCC 53-06.2-04, 53-06.2-05, 53-06.2-10

69.5-01-03-09. Appeals from stewards' hearings.

1. Any licensee aggrieved by the imposition by the stewards of any fee or suspension may appeal to the commission. Appeals must be in writing, filed with the commission within fourteen days of the stewards' order. The stewards shall, in that event, forward to the commission their charges and evidence for an administrative hearing (de novo) by the commission upon all of the evidence pursuant to North Dakota Century Code chapter 28-32. No appeal from a stewards' order to the commission shall stay or supersede the penalty imposed by the stewards unless the commission shall order, in writing, a stay of the penalty.

2. The stewards shall possess and may exercise emergency authority, as follows:
 - a. Substitute officials. When in an emergency any official is unable to discharge the official's duties, the stewards may approve the appointment of a substitute. The stewards shall report such appointment immediately to the commission.
 - b. Substitute jockeys. The stewards have the authority in an emergency to place a substitute jockey on any horse in the event the trainer does not do so. Before using such authority, the stewards shall attempt, in good faith, to contact the trainer to inform the trainer of the emergency and to afford the trainer the opportunity to appoint a substitute jockey. If the trainer cannot be contacted, or if the trainer is contacted but fails to appoint a substitute jockey and to inform the stewards by thirty minutes prior to post time, then the stewards may appoint under this rule.
 - c. Substitute trainer. The stewards have the authority, in an emergency, to designate a substitute trainer for any horse.
 - d. Excuse horse. In case of accident or injury to a horse or any other emergency deemed to exist by the stewards before the start of any race, the stewards may excuse the horse from starting.
 - e. Exercise authority. No licensee may exercise a horse on the track between races unless upon the approval of the stewards.

69.5-01-03-10. Steward investigations and decisions.

1. Investigations. The stewards, upon direction of the commission, shall conduct inquiries and shall recommend to the commission the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of reports, books, papers, and documents for any inquiry. The commission stewards have the power to administer oaths and examine witnesses and shall submit to the commission a written report of every such inquiry made by them.

2. Cancel trifecta. The stewards shall cancel trifecta wagering any time there are fewer than five betting interests unless there is a late scratch.
3. Form reversal. The stewards shall take notice of any marked reversal of form by any horse and shall conduct an inquiry of the horse's owner, trainer, or other persons connected with said horse including any person found to have contributed to the deliberate restraint or impediment of a horse in order to cause it not to win, be likely to cause it not to win, finish as near as possible to first, or be likely to finish as near as possible to first.
4. Fouls.
 - a. Extent of disqualification. Upon any claim of foul submitted to them, the stewards shall determine the extent of any disqualification and shall place any horse found to be disqualified behind the others in the race with which it interfered or may place the offending horse last in the race.
 - b. Coupled entry. When a horse is disqualified under this section and where that horse was a part of a coupled entry and, where, in the opinion of the stewards, the act which lead to the disqualification served to unduly benefit the other part of the coupled entry, the stewards may, at their discretion, disqualify the other part of the entry.
5. Protests and complaints. The stewards shall investigate promptly and render a decision in every protest and complaint made to them. They shall keep a record of all protests and complaints and any rulings made by the stewards and file such reports daily with the commission.
 - a. Protests involving fraud. Protests involving fraud may be made by any person at any time to the stewards.
 - b. Protests not involving fraud. Protests, except those involving fraud, may be filed only by the owner of a horse or the owner's authorized agent, the trainer, or the jockey of the horse in the race over which the protest is made. The protest must be made to the clerk of the scales or to the stewards before the race is declared official. If the placement of the starting gate is in error, no protest may be made thereon, unless the protest is entered prior to the time the first horse enters the gate.
 - c. Protest to clerk of scales. A jockey who intends to enter a protest to the clerk of scales following the running of any race, and before the race is declared official, shall notify the clerk of scales of this intention immediately upon the arrival of the jockey at the scales.

- d. Prize money of a protested horse. During the time of determination of a protest, any money or prize won by a horse protested or otherwise affected by the outcome of the race must be paid to and held by the horseman's accountant until the protest is decided.
- e. Protest in writing. A protest, other than one arising out of the actual running of a race, must be in writing, signed by the complainant, and filed with the stewards one hour before post time of the race out of which the protest arises.
- f. Frivolous protests. No person or licensee shall make a frivolous protest nor may any person withdraw a protest without the permission of the stewards.
