COMPARISON OF SELECTED STATES' TAX RATES AND PROPERTY TAX RELIEF/INCENTIVE PROGRAMS

The schedule below provides a comparison of property and other taxes in North Dakota to other states. The other states were selected based on having a lower property tax per capita than North Dakota (see attached appendix from the Tax Department's 2010 State and Local Taxes report):

		Per Capita
		State and	Percentage of	Percentage of	Percentage of	Percentage of		Diesel Fuel
	2010	Local Property	State Sales	Highest Local	Individual Income	Corporate	Gas Tax Per	Tax Per	Cigarette Tax
	Population	Taxes	Tax	Sales Tax	Тах	Income Tax	Gallon	Gallon	Per Pack of 20
North Dakota	672,591	$839	5%	2.50%	1.84% to 4.86%	2.1% to 6.4%	$.230	$.230	$0.440
Alabama	4,779,736	$490	4%	5.00%	2.00% to 5.00%	6.5%	$.210	$.220	$0.425
Arkansas	2,915,918	$506	6%	4.00%	1.00% to 7.00%	1.0% to 6.5%	$.215	$.225	$1.150
New York	19,378,102	$559	4%	4.88%	4.00% to 8.97%	7.1%	$.244	$.227	$2.750
Oregon	3,831,074	$573	0%	0.00%	5.00% to 11.00%	6.6% to 7.9%	$.240	$.240	$1.180
Source: Tax Commissioner's office.

The schedule below provides information from the Lincoln Institute of Land Policy on property tax relief and incentive programs in each state identified above that were in effect in 2009:

Residential Property Tax Relief Programs	Incentives for Specific Property Improvements	Incentives for Economic Development
Homestead credit for 65 years of age and older or totally disabled residents up to $4,500 if annual income is $26,000 or less and assets are $75,000 or less. Renter's credit, not to exceed $400, if 20 percent of annual rent exceeds 4 percent of income.		Renaissance zones, tax increment financing, and property tax exemptions for improvements to commercial buildings and new and expanding business projects
Disabled veteran and disabled resident, or the surviving spouse, exemption of the first $120,000 of true and full valuation of eligible property if the disabled veteran is a paraplegic or disabled resident confined to a wheelchair.
surviving spouse based on percentage of disability	Exemption of up to $150,000 of true and full value for the first two years after the taxable year in which construction is begun for all new single-family residential property and condominiums
	Exemption for up to five years on assessments on improvements to residential buildings that are at least 25 years old if approved by city or county

	Residential Property Tax Relief Programs	Incentives for Specific Property Improvements	Incentives for Economic Development
	Principal residence exemption for individuals with total disability or 65 years of age and older with an annual income of $7,500 or less	Tax abatement of the full value of all capital investment by a company that is locating to a Brownfield (contaminated or polluted) development property and the lesser of 30 percent of the original cost of the property as remediated or $2 million is eligible for up to 100 percent abatement of noneducation property taxes for up to 20 years.	Property tax abatements, tax increment districts, and enterprise zones
	Senior citizens, blind, disabled, and retired persons - Homestead exemption for all state taxes and up to $5,000 in assessed value for county taxes and school district taxes
	Under 65 years of age - Homestead exemption for up to $4,000 in assessed values of state taxes and up to $2,000 in assessed value for countywide and school district taxes
	Veteran, incompetent veteran, and veteran's surviving spouse - Exemption from all ad valorem taxes
	Homestead tax credit which provides a $350 reduction in property taxes assessed on all homesteads used as primary residence of the owner of the homestead	None	Tax increment financing
	Homestead property tax exemption for disabled veterans or their surviving spouse of the full value of homestead
	Residential property for seniors or disabled residents is assessed based on the assessed value when the person became eligible or a later value, whichever is less.
New York	Income tax property tax credit for all real estate owned based on income levels and property values	Corporate income tax credit for property taxes for remediated Brownfield property	Empire zones, banking development districts, industrial and commercial property exemptions in cities of one million or more, school property tax credits for farmers, tax increment bonds, exemptions for business investment, limited profit housing companies, municipal-owned housing projects housing development fund companies
	Senior citizen homestead exemption available at option of local governments and school districts	The value of energy conservation improvements is exempt from property taxes but not special assessments.
	Exemption for persons with disabilities not to exceed 50 percent of assessed value. Maximum eligible levels are set locally.	Fifteen-year property tax exemption for construction of solar, wind, and farm waste energy systems. The exemption is equal to the increase in assessed value attributable to the new system.

	Residential Property Tax Relief Programs	Incentives for Specific Property Improvements	Incentives for Economic Development
	Basic school tax relief (STAR) exemption for all homeowners. The exemption amount is determined annually by a formula.	Exemption for the increase in assessed value due to
	Enhanced STAR exemption for 65 years of age and older with an income of less than $67,850. The exemption is adjusted annually.	Partial tax exemption for certain living quarters which have been constructed or reconstructed as an auxiliary dwelling unit for senior citizens or disabled individuals
	Eligible veterans exemption of $5,000 of assessed value from all taxes except local school taxes. Eligible disabled veterans exemption of full assessed value.	Real property tax abatement to owners of residences that include more than one dwelling unit for installation of protective safety devices at the request of disabled or senior citizens
	Alternative veterans exemptions of 15 percent of assessed value for a wartime veteran and additional 10 percent to a wartime veteran who was in a combat zone. Veterans incurring service-related disability receive an additional reduction in assessed value of residence equal to one-half of the veteran's disability. Exemption applies to all taxes except school taxes.	green roof up to $100,000 or the tax liability of the eligible building
	Volunteer firefighter and ambulance worker exemption of 10 percent of assessed value of property if allowed by local option
	Eligible clergy are exempt from general municipal and school district taxes up to $1,500 of assessed value.
		Tax exemption from the increase in assessed value for multiple dwelling alterations and improvements in any city to which the multiple dwelling law applies
Oregon	Property tax deferral for disabled or senior citizens - State pays property taxes for the citizen and the citizen makes payments to the state.	Full exemption from property taxes for the value of eligible alternative energy systems	Exemptions for food processors and buildings under construction, strategic investment program, enterprise zones, vertical housing development zones, and tax increment financing
	Homestead exemption for active duty military of up to $60,000 of assessed value on homestead. Beginning July 1, 2006, the exemption is increased by 103 percent each year.	The assessed value of historic property is frozen for up to 15 years upon approval of a preservation plan that includes substantial rehabilitation work.
	Disabled veteran and veteran's surviving spouse exemption of up to $18,000

ATTACH:1