

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4020

Introduced by

Senators Nalewaja, Krauter, W. Stenehjem

Representatives Carlisle, Kretschmar, Warner

1 A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to study and develop a long-term plan
2 for the investigatory and penological support mechanisms of the criminal justice system.

3 WHEREAS, cooperation is needed among fire arson investigators, sheriffs, police 4 officers, state's attorneys, the bureau of criminal investigation, the state fire marshal, the 5 department of corrections and rehabilitation, the state crime laboratory, the state forensic 6 examiner, and the state toxicologist for adequate investigation of crimes, proper evidence 7 handling, and efficient case tracking and management; and

8 WHEREAS, new technology provides more evidence, requires new equipment, and 9 necessitates skilled personnel to operate the equipment; and

10 WHEREAS, the state forensic examiner needs to be supported by a coroner system 11 that is effective, coordinated, and fiscally sound to adequately investigate deaths; and

12 WHEREAS, sheriffs and the department of corrections and rehabilitation need to 13 develop a long-range plan for the management of inmates;

14 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE 15 HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN:

16 That the Legislative Council study and develop a long-term plan for the investigatory 17 and penological support mechanisms of the criminal justice system; and

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Legislative Council report its findings and 19 recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to 20 the Fifty-sixth Legislative Assembly.
