2. Each child support order, in which there is in effect an assignment under chapter 50-09 or with respect to which either the obligor or the obligee has requested review, must be reviewed by the child support agency if:

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 57-38-57 or other confidentiality statutes, upon receipt of an affidavit provided for in this subsection, the tax commissioner may provide to a child support agency a verified copy of the latest income tax return, filed with the office of the commissioner, which reports the obligor's income. The information obtained by a child support agency from the tax commissioner, in accordance with this section, retains its confidentiality and may only be used by a child support agency in the pursuit of its child support collection duties and practices. The tax commissioner may require a child support agency to make assurances, satisfactory to the commissioner, that the agency has the ability to comply with this subsection.~~

If information concerning the obligor's income sufficient to accomplish the review has not been timely furnished by the obligor and ~~is not available from the office of the tax commissioner,~~ the child support agency may apply to the court for an order compelling the obligor to furnish information sufficient to accomplish the review.

Vehicle lien.

1. In the case of a vehicle, the public authority may establish a lien by filing a notice of lien with the director of the department of transportation. The notice must be in a form prescribed by the director and contain a description of the vehicle, the name and last known address of the obligor, and any other information required by the director. The notice of lien must state that the child support obligation is past due and that a copy of the notice of lien has been served on the obligor by first-class mail at the obligor's last known address.
2. Upon filing of the notice of lien in accordance with this section, the director shall demand in writing the surrender of the certificate of title from the obligor or a superior lienholder for the purpose of recording the lien on the certificate of title. 3. Upon receipt of notice from the director that the obligor or superior lienholder has not responded to the demand for surrender of a title certificate, the public authority may obtain an order from a court of competent jurisdiction requiring the certificate of title to be delivered to the court so that a lien may be properly recorded.

1. In the case of a vessel, the public authority may establish a lien by filing a notice of lien with the secretary of state if the value of the vessel is estimated to be at least twice the cost of establishing the lien. The notice must contain a description of the make, model designation, and serial number of the vessel, including its identification or registration number, if any, and the name, social security number, and last known address of the obligor. The notice of lien must state that the child support obligation is past due and that a copy of the notice of lien has been served on the obligor by first-class mail at the obligor's last known address.
2. Upon filing of the notice of lien in accordance with this section, the notice of lien must be indexed by the secretary of state in the central notice system and may be enforced and foreclosed in the same manner as a security agreement under the provisions of title 41.

3. The secretary of state shall remove and destroy the lien notification statement in the same manner as provided for other liens in section 11-18-14 for the register of deeds. Account lien.

The notice must be in a form prescribed by the public authority and contain the name, social security number, or other taxpayer identification number and last known address of the obligor, the amount of past due support for which a lien is claimed, and any other information required by the public authority. The notice of lien must state that the child support obligation is past due and that a copy of the notice of lien has been served on the obligor by first-class mail at the obligor's last known address.
2. Upon service of the notice of lien on a financial institution in accordance with this section, the lien attaches to accounts of the obligor maintained in the financial institution, except to the extent necessary to satisfy any right of set off which exists in connection with an account, payment orders that were made by the obligor before the financial institution was served with notice of lien, or other obligations of the obligor based upon written agreements or instruments made or issued by the obligor before the financial institution was served with notice of lien.
3. A lien under this section is perfected when the financial institution is served with notice of the lien.

Lien on other personal property.

1. In the case of personal property that does not consist of a vehicle, a vessel, or an account maintained in a financial institution, the public authority may establish a lien on such personal property by filing a notice of lien with the office of the register of deeds in the county in which the personal property may be found or with the secretary of state. The notice must particularly describe the property to be subjected to the lien and the name and last known address of the obligor. The notice of lien must state that the child support obligation is past due and that a copy of the notice of lien has been served on the obligor by first-class mail at the obligor's last known address.

3. Upon filing of the notice of lien in accordance with this section, the lien attaches to and is perfected against all personal property described in the notice.

Priority of liens. A lien perfected under this chapter may not be subordinate to any other lien except a lien that was perfected before the child support lien was perfected. The public authority may, upon request of the obligor, subordinate the child support lien.

Satisfaction of lien. Upon payment of all past due child support obligations, the public authority shall provide, within a reasonable time, an appropriate satisfaction or release of a lien arising under this chapter.

Immunity from liability. A person in possession of, or obligated with respect to, property, who, upon demand of the public authority, surrenders the property or discharges the obligation to the public authority is immune from any liability to the obligor or other person arising from the surrender or payment. The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and costs against any person who commences an action that is subsequently dismissed by reason of the immunity granted by this section.

Action to enforce lien. In any case in which there has been a refusal or neglect to pay child support, the public authority, in addition to any other relief, may file an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce a lien under this chapter. The filing of an action does not preclude the public authority from pursuit of any other means of enforcement available under state or federal law.

Persons aggrieved. A person aggrieved by an action taken by the public authority to enforce a lien under this chapter may seek review of the public authority's actions in the court that issued the child support order claimed to be past due.

Full faith and credit. A lien arising in another state, under a law of that state implementing the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 666(a)(4)(A), is entitled to full faith and credit when the party seeking to enforce that lien records or serves the lien documents in the manner provided under this code. No judicial notice or hearing is required prior to recording or service of the lien documents.

No issuer of an occupational or professional certificate, permit, or license may issue such a certificate, permit, or license, or renewal thereof, to any individual who has not first provided the individual's social security number.

Inclusion of social security number in automated data base. An issuer of an occupational or professional certificate, permit, or license, that maintains an automated data base concerning individuals who have applied for or been issued a certificate, permit, or license, after the effective date of this section, must include the individual's social security number as an identifier in that data base.
