POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. AARSVOLD: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

Congratulations to the May-Port-C-G Boys' Basketball team who won the State Class "B" basketball tournament over the weekend. The victory marks consecutive state championships for the Patriots and their third in ten years. Head coach Del Kessler and assistant Merle Strand have achieved a record duplicated but by few.

The athletic success demonstrated on the basketball court is but one facet of a well-rounded and successful program at May-Port-C-G High School. The Future Business Leaders program has won 14 consecutive competitions as the outstanding chapter in North Dakota. The Odyssey of the Mind program found students from May-Port-C-G winning the state and national meets and advancing to the international competition. Additionally, of those seniors taking the ACT placement test, one-half of the May-Port-C-G participants have scored 26 or higher.

We wish the best to May-Port-C-G as they continue to demonstrate those qualities of excellence that North Dakotans have come to expect.
