PRESIDENT MYRDAL APPOINTED Sens. Schobinger and Tomac to the escort committee.

REMARKS OF SHANDA DOAN, MISS RODEO NORTH DAKOTA 1999

Good afternoon Madam President and Senators. My name is Shanda Doan and I am honored to have the opportunity to greet you today. My roots with the Legislature go back to when I was two years old, crawling around in Rep. Strinden's office when I came to visit my mom at work. Two sessions ago I was here as a "Page for the Day" and in 1997 I served as a Senate Assistant Committee Clerk.

Today I'm before you wearing a different hat -- literally. This black Resistol and silver crown go with my newly attained role: Miss Rodeo North Dakota 1999. This year I have the opportunity to serve as the state's goodwill ambassador for the sport of rodeo, the western way of life, and the State of North Dakota.

Having grown up on a ranch near McKenzie that my great-great-grandfather homesteaded in 1882, I have a love of the American cowboy, North Dakota pioneers, and the spirit of independence, grit, and cooperation that they portray. So that I can relay some of that spirit to others, I am taking a leave of absence in 1999 from my studies at the University of Wyoming where I am a senior majoring in Agricultural Economics in Business in preparation for earning an advanced degree in Agricultural Law.

I will devote the next year to making hundreds of appearances both in state and nationally, attending rodeos and other events, visiting with people of all ages and from all walks of life. I recently had the distinct honor of carrying our American flag in all 23 performances of the National Western Stock Show and Rodeo in Denver. I've also been to several schools to acquaint children with the sport of rodeo and its heritage. Their eyes light up and imaginations go to work when they learn that roping calves and training wild horses are part of real ranch work.

The culmination of my reign will be when I compete in the Miss Rodeo America Pageant next December in Las Vegas. Whether I'm lucky enough to win or not, my goal for the next year is to touch as many lives as possible -- to make a positive impact and help keep our heritage alive.

The Miss Rodeo North Dakota program has a proud history. Throughout its 44 years, 14 of our titleholders have been runners-up or among the top 10 in the national pageant. One went on to be Miss Rodeo America. I'm proud to be a North Dakotan and proud to be among the ranks of these women.

You each should have received an invitation to my coronation auction and dance to be held this Sunday, February 14, at the Hotel Bismarck beginning at 6:00 p.m. I would like to personally invite and encourage you to attend and join in the celebration.

Thank you again for this opportunity to speak to you today. In closing, I would like to share with you a bit of cowboy logic that I've learned about moving cattle, leadership, and politics. When we're riding ahead of the herd, we need to take a look back every now and then to make sure the herd is still there. I hope you have a productive day and a good session. Happy trails!

MOTION

SEN. ST. AUBYN MOVED that the remarks of Shanda Doan, Miss Rodeo North Dakota, be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.
