1. The policy of this state to stimulate the development of renewable and traditional fossil-based energy within the state with the goal of providing secure, diverse, sustainable, and competitive energy supplies that can be produced and secured within the state to assist the nation in reducing its dependence on foreign energy sources.
2. The policy of this state to promote the development of new technologies, provide innovative opportunities, create additional employment and wealth that contributes to economic development, and decrease dependence on foreign energy supplies.
3. Growth of the fossil fuel and renewable energy industries within this state to encourage the state's competitiveness for both the domestic and export markets.
4. The assistance the state provides in research, development, and marketing of North Dakota-produced energy sources, including biodiesel, biomass, coal, ethanol, geothermal, hydroelectric, hydrogen, natural gas, oil, solar, and wind.

5. The need to:
 - a. Expand the use of existing energy resources such as coal, oil, gas, wind, and hydropower by supporting continued research and development of technologies designed to enhance the use of traditional fuels.
 - b. Examine ways to diversify the state's energy resource base by encouraging the growth of renewable sources such as wind, biomass, geological, solar, and water.
 - c. Evaluate existing tax credits and incentives for all energy resources.
 - d. Modernize and expand the state's energy infrastructure to ensure that energy supplies can be safely, reliably, and affordably transported to homes and businesses.
 - e. Examine potential innovations that will be necessary to improve environmental conditions through the use of new technologies designed to encourage the continued use of fossil fuel as well as renewable resources.
 - f. Review energy industry workforce and training needs and educational opportunities to enhance the future productivity of the energy industry.
 - g. Develop a strategy to maximize the state's market opportunities in regional and global markets.

The energy independence council consists of the commissioner of commerce, a member appointed by the agriculture commissioner, a representative recommended by the lignite energy council and appointed by the governor, a representative recommended by the North Dakota petroleum council and appointed by the governor, a member from the biodiesel industry appointed by the governor, a member from the biomass industry appointed by the governor, a member from the wind industry appointed by the governor, and a member from the ethanol industry appointed by the governor.  - 3- c. The pharmacy is equipped with proper pharmaceutical and sanitary appliances and kept in a clean, sanitary, and orderly manner.
 - 4- d. The management of the pharmacy is under the personal charge of a pharmacist duly licensed under the laws of this state.
 - 5- e. The applicant for such permit is qualified to conduct the pharmacy, and is a licensed pharmacist in good standing or is a partnership, each active member of which is a licensed pharmacist in good standing, ~~or~~ a corporation or an association, the majority stock in which is owned by licensed pharmacists in good standing; or a limited liability company, the majority membership interests in which is owned by licensed pharmacists in good standing, actively and regularly employed in and responsible for the management, supervision, and operation of such pharmacy.
 - 6- f. Suitable reference sources either in book or electronic data form, are available in the pharmacy or on-line, which might include the United States pharmacopeia and national formulary, the United States pharmacopeia dispensing information, facts and comparisons, micro medex, the ASHP American society of health-system pharmacists formulary, or other suitable references pertinent to the practice carried on in the licensed pharmacy.
2. The provisions of ~~subsection 5 shall~~ subdivision e of subsection 1 do not apply to ~~the~~:
- a. The holder of a permit on July 1, 1963, if otherwise qualified to conduct the pharmacy, provided that any such permitholder ~~who~~ that discontinues operations under such permit or fails to renew such permit upon expiration ~~shall~~ is not thereafter be exempt from the provisions of ~~subsection 5~~ subdivision e of subsection 1 as to the discontinued or lapsed permit. ~~The provisions of subsection 5 shall not apply to~~
 - b. A hospital ~~pharmacies~~ pharmacy furnishing service only to patients in that hospital.
 - c. The applicant for ~~a permit to operate a pharmacy which is a hospital, if the pharmacy for which the hospital seeks a permit to operate is a retail pharmacy that is the sole provider of pharmacy services in the community and is a retail pharmacy that was in existence before the hospital took over operations.~~ A hospital operating a pharmacy under this subdivision may operate the pharmacy at any location in the community.

SECTION 2. LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL STUDY - REGULATION AND LICENSING OF PHARMACISTS.

1. The legislative council shall consider studying, during the 2007-08 interim, the regulation and licensing of pharmacists in this state. The study must include an examination of:
 - a. The state board of pharmacy, the board's size, the manner of board membership appointment, and whether the board is representative of commercial and noncommercial pharmacists;
 - b. The state's demographics and the impact changing demographics in rural areas will have on the ability of small, locally owned pharmacies to remain economically viable and on the ability of rural residents to access low-cost pharmaceuticals and pharmacy and pharmacists' services;

- c. The pharmacy ownership restrictions, the relevance of those restrictions in terms of marketplace competition, and the impact of those restrictions on the price and availability of pharmaceuticals and on pharmacy and pharmacists' services; and
 - d. The statutory interplay between the state board of pharmacy and the North Dakota pharmaceutical association and whether the regulatory function of the board conflicts with the advocacy function of the association.
2. The legislative council shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-first legislative assembly."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new subsection to section 28-32-50 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

In any civil judicial proceeding involving adverse parties to an appeal or enforcement action involving an environmental permit issued under chapters 23-20.3, 23-25, 23-29, or 61-28 in which two or more of the adverse parties are not an administrative agency or an agent of an administrative agency, the court may award the prevailing nonagency party reasonable attorney's fees and costs if the court finds in favor of that party and determines that the nonprevailing nonagency party acted without substantial justification, or on the basis of claims or allegations that are factually unsupported. The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and costs if the court determines that the nonprevailing nonagency party's claims or allegations are frivolous as provided in section 28-26-01. If the appeal or civil judicial proceeding covered by this subsection involves multiple claims or allegations, the court may apportion attorney's fees and costs in proportion to the time reasonably spent by a prevailing party relating to claims pursued by the nonprevailing party that were frivolous, factually unsupported, or without substantial justification.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 61-28 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Appeal from permit proceedings. An appeal from the issuance, denial, modification, or revocation of a permit for which public notice or hearing is required under this chapter may be made by the person who filed the permit application, or by any person who is aggrieved by the permit application decision, provided that person participated in or provided comments during the hearing process for the permit application, modification, or revocation. An appeal must be taken within thirty days after the final permit application determination is mailed by first-class mail to the permit applicant and to any interested person who has requested a copy of the final permit determination during the permit hearing process. Except as provided in this section, an appeal of the final permit determination is governed by chapter 28-32. The department may substitute final permit conditions and written responses to public comments for findings of fact and conclusions of law. Except for violations of this chapter or any permit condition, rule, order, limitation, or other applicable requirement implementing this chapter which occur after the permit is issued, all challenges to the department's issuance, modification, or revocation of the permit or permit conditions must be made in the permit hearing process and may not be raised in any collateral or subsequent legal proceeding, and the applicant and any aggrieved person may raise on appeal only issues that were raised to the department in the permit hearing process."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 12-63-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. "Peace officer" means a public servant authorized by law or by government agency or branch, which includes a federally recognized Indian tribe in this state, to enforce the law and to conduct or engage in investigations of violations of the law.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 12-63 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Tribal peace officers. A peace officer who is a member of a police force of a tribal government who becomes licensed through the North Dakota law enforcement center is subject to the rules and procedures as provided in this chapter. A peace officer who is a member of a police force of a tribal government may act off reservation in a law enforcement capacity if the officer is a graduate of the law enforcement center or equivalent law enforcement training center or academy. If the tribal peace officer is a graduate of a non-North Dakota law enforcement center, the officer must show proficiency with North Dakota law to be licensed. A tribal peace officer may not act off reservation unless there is an agreement between the state or political subdivision and the tribe of which the tribal peace officer is a member governing the actions of the tribal peace officer off reservation. A tribal peace officer acting off reservation pursuant to an agreement with the state or political subdivision is liable for any act or omission of the officer."
