2A. Bill and fiscal impact summary: Provide a brief summary of the measure, including description of the provisions having fiscal impact (limited to 300 characters).

HB 1304 changes the allocation of oil and gas gross production tax revenues. The bill also increases the maximum amount the counties are allowed to receive (increases the county caps).

B. Fiscal impact sections: Identify and provide a brief description of the sections of the measure which have fiscal impact. Include any assumptions and comments relevant to the analysis.

The bill creates a city allocation of $208,000 after each $1 million annual distributional tier, to be allocated to cities with a population greater than 7,500. This allocation is doubled for cities with a significant oil-related employment base. The impact of the city allocation provisions is estimated to equal +$1.456 million per year, or $2.912 million for the 2009-11 biennium. Dickinson is expected to receive one $208,000 allocation each year, and Williston is expected to receive three $416,000 allocations each year.

The county population-based caps are also increased in this bill. The cap provisions are expected to increase total county revenues by an estimated $5.8 million for the 2009-11 biennium. These increased county revenues are expected to be allocated primarily to McKenzie, Mountrail, and Bowman Counties.

There are numerous other distributional provisions in this bill that result in shifts among cities and among county general funds, infrastructure funds, and others. Only those impacts that cause a net change in total revenue are estimated here. The two provisions that result in a net gain in city and county revenues - the special city allocation and the increase in the county caps - result in a corresponding decrease in permanent oil tax trust fund revenues totaling $8.712 million for the 2009-11 biennium.
