He said the State Auditor's office will determine which performance audits to conduct if the committee does not request any. He asked the committee to bring any requests for performance audits to future committee meetings.

COMMITTEE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

At the request of Chairman Christmann, the Legislative Council staff reviewed a memorandum entitled Legislative Audit and Fiscal Review Committee - Statutory Duties and Responsibilities for the 2009-10 Interim - Recommendations and Requests Made During Previous Interims. AUDIT PROCESS FOR STATE AGENCIES

Chairman Christmann called on Mr. Ron Tolstad, State Auditor's office, who reviewed a document entitled Overview of Audit Procedures State of North Dakota. A copy of the information presented is on file in the Legislative Council office. He said the State Auditor's office does not have statutory authority to audit all state agencies. He said agencies that are not audited by the State Auditor are audited by certified public accounting (CPA) firms. He said other state agencies are also audited by CPA firms at the request of the State Auditor when the State Auditor does not have sufficient resources to audit the entity. He said CPA firms are required to follow Guidelines to Independent Certified Public Accountants Performing Audits of State Agencies and audits performed by CPA firms are paid for by the state agency being audited.

Mr. Tolstad said the State Auditor's office is audited every two years by an independent CPA firm that is contracted with by the Legislative Council. He said the office also receives a peer review every three years.

Mr. Tolstad said the results of audits are presented to the Legislative Audit and Fiscal Review Committee by the State Auditor's office or the CPA firm that performed the audit.

STUDY OF REQUIREMENTS FOR POLITICAL SUBDIVISION AUDITS

At the request of Chairman Christmann, the Legislative Council staff reviewed a memorandum entitled Study of the Structure and Requirements of the State Auditor's Office Necessary for Auditing Political Subdivisions - Background Memorandum.

Section 4 of 2009 House Bill No. 1129 provides for a study of the structure and requirements of the State Auditor's office necessary to carry out its auditing of political subdivisions, as required by law, including how such audits should be adequately self-funded. The Legislative Management has assigned this responsibility to the Legislative Audit and Fiscal Review Committee.

The Legislative Council staff said Sections 54-10-13 and 54-10-14 require the State Auditor to perform audits of political subdivisions. The State Auditor's office has identified the following 1,173 political subdivisions subject to audit:

- Counties (53).
- Cities (354).
- Park districts (186).
- School districts (193).
- Firefighters relief associations (4).
- Airport authorities (10).
- Public libraries (8).
- Water resource districts (20).
- Garrison Diversion Conservancy District (1).
- Rural fire protection districts (226).
- Special education districts (22).
- Area career and technology centers (5).
- Correction centers (4).
- Recreation service districts (1).
- Weed boards (2).
- Irrigation districts (6).
- Rural ambulance service districts (12).
- Southwest Water Authority (1).
- Regional planning councils (8).
- Soil conservation districts (57).

The Legislative Council staff said in lieu of audit reports every two years, Section 54-10-14 allows the State Auditor to receive annual reports from school districts with less than 100 enrolled students; cities with a population of less than 500; park districts and soil conservation districts with less than $200,000 of annual receipts; and other political subdivisions with less than $100,000 of annual receipts, excluding any federal funds passed through the political subdivision to another entity.

The Legislative Council staff said Section 54-10-14 also allows political subdivisions to choose to be audited by a CPA or licensed public accountant rather than by the State Auditor. The public accountant must comply with generally accepted government auditing standards and submit copies of the audit report to the State Auditor's office when the report is delivered to the political subdivision. The State Auditor must review the audit report and may review the public accountant's workpapers to determine if the report and workpapers meet generally accepted government auditing standards. The State Auditor may charge the political subdivision a fee of up to $80 per hour, not to exceed $500, for costs related to reviewing the audit report and workpapers.

The Legislative Council staff said the State Auditor's office's Division of Local Government Audits is primarily responsible for auditing political subdivisions, reviewing audits submitted by public accounting firms, and reviewing annual reports submitted in lieu of audit reports. The State Auditor's office, in its 2009 budget request, removed three full-time equivalent (FTE) positions due to the closing of the local government audit office in Bismarck. The Division of Local Government Audits is now located in the Fargo office and currently has six FTE auditor positions and two part-time temporary auditor positions. The 2009 Legislative Assembly provided approximately $1.34 million of special funds for the division for the 2009-11 biennium.

The Legislative Council staff said political subdivision audits are conducted in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Government auditing standards include general standards relating to independence, professional judgment, competence, quality control, and assurance. Audit standards are published in the United States Government Accountability Office's Government Auditing Standards, commonly referred to as the "Yellow Book."

The Legislative Council staff presented the following proposed study plan for the committee's consideration:

1. Receive and review information regarding a history of the State Auditor's office's Division of Local Government Audits, including funding and staffing levels.
2. Receive and review information regarding the State Auditor's office staffing needs, revenues, and costs relating to conducting political subdivision audits.
3. Receive testimony from other interested persons regarding the study of the structure and requirements of the State Auditor's office necessary to carry out its auditing of political subdivisions.
4. Develop recommendations and any bill drafts necessary to implement the recommendations.
5. Prepare a final report for submission to the Legislative Management.

Chairman Christmann called on Mr. Gordy Smith, State Auditor's office, who presented information regarding the Division of Local Government Audits. A copy of the information presented is on file in the Legislative Council office. He said prior to 1991, the division's expenses were paid by the state general fund. He said the 1991 Legislative Assembly determined the division should be self-funded. He said the division recently lost three experienced auditors within 22 months. He said governmental audits are becoming more complex and the division is experiencing difficulty in finding auditors willing to travel.

In response to a question from Representative Skarphol regarding audits discovering fraud, Mr. G. Smith said auditors are charged with assessing the risk of the entity but an audit is not a guarantee of finding fraud. He said the majority of fraud investigations is the result of the detection of fraud by the entity, not the auditors.

In response to a question from Representative Vig, Mr. G. Smith said entry-level auditors generally earn $700 to $800 more per month at private CPA firms than at the State Auditor's office.

In response to a question from Representative J. Kelsh, Mr. G. Smith said several smaller CPA firms have discontinued performing political subdivision audits and some larger firms are unable to accept additional clients. He said the lack of available audit firms has caused costs to increase. He said this problem is more significant in the western part of the state.

In response to a question from Representative Boucher, Mr. G. Smith said it is possible that political subdivisions will have longer periods between audits. He said political subdivisions required to have federal audits follow a stricter timeline.

Chairman Christmann said the issues surrounding political subdivision audits are serious. He urged committee members to contact the Legislative Council office or the State Auditor's office if they would like information presented or have questions to be answered at future meetings.

Representative Skarphol requested information be presented at a future meeting regarding the length of time required by the State Auditor's office to review audits submitted by private firms.

It was moved by Representative Skarphol, seconded by Representative R. Kelsch, and carried on a voice vote that the committee adopt the proposed study plan for its study of requirements for political subdivision audits.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE PERFORMANCE AUDIT

Mr. G. Smith presented the Department of Commerce performance audit dated August 11, 2009. He said the objectives of the performance audit were to determine if:

1. The application process and monitoring of centers of excellence provide adequate accountability for the use of state funds; and
2. An adequate system for monitoring operations of the Department of Commerce has been established.

Mr. G. Smith said the performance audit contains 50 recommendations. A copy of the audit recommendations is attached as Appendix B. Based on the performance audit, he said, the State Auditor's office determined:

- The application process and monitoring of centers of excellence have not provided adequate accountability for the use of state funds. No determination has been made regarding the centers of excellence having the desired economic impact as required by state law.

- The Department of Commerce has not established an adequate system for monitoring department operations. Improvements are needed to have an effective departmentwide monitoring function.
- Improvements are needed to ensure policies relating to the North Dakota Development Fund, Inc., are reviewed, updated, and complied with.
- Improvements are needed to ensure policies relating to the Agricultural Products Utilization Commission are reviewed, updated, and complied with.

In response to a question from Representative Boucher, Mr. G. Smith said there are no formal agreements entered between the Centers of Excellence Commission and approved applicants. He said only the application includes information on how the funds will be spent.

In response to a question from Representative Berg, Mr. G. Smith said in two cases, the centers of excellence applicants determined they would not be able to obtain the necessary matching funds; therefore, the centers of excellence grant funds were not provided to these applicants.

Mr. Shane C. Goettle, Commissioner, Department of Commerce, presented testimony regarding the Department of Commerce performance audit. He said the department is pleased with the results of the audit report and agrees with the majority of the recommendations. He said the department has implemented or is in the process of implementing 30 of the 50 recommendations.

Mr. Goettle said when the Department of Commerce was given oversight authority for the centers of excellence program, the department had an economic impact analysis conducted by North Dakota State University. He said the report was provided to the 2009 Legislative Assembly. He distributed a summary of the report.

In response to a question from Representative Boucher, Mr. Goettle said each university or college president signs the centers of excellence application for their institution. In addition, he said, center directors sign a compliance agreement.

In response to a question from Representative Winrich, Mr. Goettle said the Department of Commerce has contracted with a vendor to provide Indian business development services and is not using an FTE position. He said the position for Indian business development has been reclassified within the department.

In response to a question from Representative J. Kelsh, Mr. Goettle said the department has established an oversight process for centers of excellence. He said the centers of excellence are monitored over a 6- to 10-year period. He said the first centers of excellence began approximately three and one-half years ago.

Representative Boucher suggested the Department of Commerce provide updates to the committee on the status of the recommendations contained in the audit report at future meetings.

The committee recessed for lunch at 12:30 p.m. and reconvened at 1:15 p.m.

CONNECTND

Mr. Don LaFleur, State Auditor's office, presented the North Dakota University System ConnectND finance component audit report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008. He said the ConnectND finance component system is shared by state agencies and the University System. He said an earlier audit was conducted on the finance component for state agencies. He said the recommendations apply to state agencies and the University System. Based on the audit, he said, the State Auditor's office determined:

- Developers have access to the PeopleSoft production environment.
- There are users who have unnecessary "superuser" access.
- There are unnecessary security roles and permission lists.
- Financial data in other modules does not always agree to the general ledger.

Mr. LaFleur presented the followup report on the North Dakota University System ConnectND Campus Solutions information system audit. He said six recommendations were determined to be fully implemented, two were determined to be partially implemented, and two were determined to be not implemented.

INTERNAL CONTROL AND COMPLIANCE REPORTS

Mr. John Grettum, State Auditor's office, presented the State Auditor's office internal control and compliance report on the audit of the general purpose financial statements included in the June 30, 2008, annual financial report for the North Dakota University System. He reviewed the auditor's responses to the committee guidelines and said five prior audit recommendations were not implemented. He said the prior audit recommendations not implemented related to:

- Proper use of account codes, funds, fund groups, and functions available on PeopleSoft to comply with generally accepted accounting principles.
- Accrued payroll liability reconciliations.
- Approval of online transactions.
- Preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
- Monitoring of PeopleSoft access rights.

Mr. Grettum said the report identifies eight current audit recommendations relating to:

- Central stores inventory.
- Risk assessment system and the role of internal auditors.

- Segregation of accounting duties.
- Cash receipts.
- Cash and investments and related disclosure.
- North Dakota State University scholarship allowance.
- Bank reconciliations.
- Segregation of duties relating to inventory.

In response to a question from Representative Berg, Mr. Grettum said the compliance report on the audit of the general purpose financial statements included in the June 30, 2009, annual financial report for the North Dakota University System will be completed in January 2010.

Representative Berg requested the 2008 compliance and annual financial reports be available for reference purposes when the 2009 reports are presented.

In response to a question from Representative R. Kelsch, Ms. Laura Glatt, Vice Chancellor for Administrative Affairs, North Dakota University System office, said 50 percent of the recommendations have been implemented. She said although a FTE position to assist campuses and provide training would be helpful, other positions are a higher priority.

Mr. Tolstad presented the State Auditor's office report on the internal control, compliance, and other matters of the state of North Dakota Comprehensive Annual Financial Report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008. He said the State Auditor's office has audited the general purpose financial statements for the state of North Dakota for the year ended June 30, 2008. He said two prior audit recommendations relating to adequate fraud programs and access to information technology applications were not implemented. He said the report identifies seven internal control weaknesses relating to:

- Lack of adequate resources devoted to financial reporting.
- Improper financial reporting.
- Lack of fraud programs and controls.
- Lack of state agency general ledger transaction approval.
- Limiting access to information technology applications.
- Inaccurate estimates.
- Financial reporting errors.

In response to a question from Senator Heckaman, Mr. Tolstad said audit adjustments are necessary to ensure financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. He said the adjustments will not jeopardize federal fund awards.

NORTH DAKOTA UNIVERSITY SYSTEM ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT

Ms. Robin Putnam, Director of Financial Reporting, North Dakota University System, presented the annual financial report for the North Dakota University System for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008. She said an unqualified opinion was issued on the financial statements. As of June 30, 2008, she said, the University System had total assets of $1,067 million and total liabilities of $344 million, resulting in net assets of $723 million. She said net assets increased $20.2 million during fiscal year 2008.

Ms. Putnam said the annual degree credit headcount for the fall of 2007 was 41,827, less than a 1 percent decrease from the previous fall enrollment. She said total operating revenues of the University System increased 4 percent from fiscal year 2007 as a result of increases in tuition and fees, grants and contracts, and sales and services of education departments. She said investment income decreased by 46 percent from fiscal year 2007 due to declining market interest rates.

In response to a question from Representative Skarphol, Ms. Putnam said she will provide information regarding the effect on workload from increases in e-learning.

In response to a question from Representative Skarphol, Mr. Grettum said the State Auditor has the authority to review information from component units if it relates to activities the state is a party to, including funding for the new presidents' houses at the University of North Dakota and North Dakota State University. He said the State Auditor's office anticipates reviewing the cost of the houses as part of the 2009 University System office audit.

In response to a question from Representative Skarphol, Ms. Putnam said she will provide information to the Legislative Council regarding the loss on sale of capital assets in fiscal year 2007.

He said if the amendments to Section 6-01-01.1 are implemented correctly, the finding will be addressed.

Mr. Nagel presented the audit report for the Game and Fish Department for the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007. He reviewed the auditor's responses to the committee guidelines and said the report identifies two internal control findings relating to establishing fraud risk assessments and controls and a lack of general ledger transaction approval procedures.

In response to a question from Representative Boucher, Mr. Grettum said the amounts for research expenditures reported in the 2008 Accountability Measures Report were those reported to the National Science Foundation rather than amounts reported in the University System's annual audited financial statements. He said the amounts reported to the National Science Foundation should be reconciled to the audited financial statement amounts.

Ms. Glatt said the amounts reported to the National Science Foundation can be substantiated. She said a reconciliation to the audited financial statements would require a significant amount of work. She said the University System uses National Science Foundation data for comparability to other campuses.
