BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Two new subsections to section 52-04-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code are created and enacted as follows:

If a political subdivision is the owner or contractor of a project subject to this section, the political subdivision may either post the required bond or irrevocable letter of credit or assign the responsibility of posting the bond or irrevocable letter of credit to the general or prime contractor. If a project has more than one general or prime contractor, the political subdivision may assign the responsibility of posting the bond to a maximum of five general or prime contractors in equal shares of the entire bonding liability regardless of the amount or type of work assigned to each general or prime contractor. Thirty months after the completion or discontinuance of the project, the bureau shall determine the total benefits paid to employees of each employing unit or units. If the total amount of benefits paid to employees of the employing unit or units exceeds the total amount of contributions collected from the units under the North Dakota unemployment compensation law, each general or prime contractor required to post a bond for the project shall pay an equal share of the amount of benefits paid to the employees of the units which exceeded the total amount of contributions collected from the unit or units. If a general or prime contractor required to provide a bond for the project does not pay its required equal share, job service North Dakota shall collect the payment from the surety company that executed the surety bond or the bank that issued the irrevocable letter of credit. The general or prime contractors required to post a bond for the project are liable for an equal share of any amount of benefits paid to employees of the general or prime contractors working on the project which exceed the amount of contributions collected from employers that worked on the project and which is not covered by the amount of the bonds or irrevocable letters of credit.

For purposes of this section, "political subdivision" means any county or city.
