7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

8 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 30.1-01-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is 9 amended and reenacted as follows:

10 30.1-01-06. (1-201) General definitions.

11 Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent chapters which are applicable 12 to specific chapters, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this title:

- 13 1. "Agent" includes an attorney-in-fact under a durable or nondurable power of attorney, 14 an individual authorized to make decisions concerning another's health care, and an 15 individual authorized to make decisions for another under a natural death act.
- 16 2. "Application" means a written request to the court for an order of informal probate or 17 appointment under chapter 30.1-14.
- 18 3. "Augmented estate" means the estate described in section 30.1-05-02.
- 19 4. "Beneficiary", as it relates to a trust beneficiary, includes a person who has any 20 present or future interest, vested or contingent, and also includes the owner of an 21 interest by assignment or other transfer; as it relates to a charitable trust, includes any 22 person entitled to enforce the trust; as it relates to a beneficiary of a beneficiary 23 designation, refers to a beneficiary of an account with a payable on death designation, 24 of a security registered in beneficiary form transferable on death, or other nonprobate

- 1 transfer at death; and, as it relates to a "beneficiary designated in a governing 2 instrument", includes a grantee of a deed, a devisee, a trust beneficiary, a beneficiary 3 of a beneficiary designation, a donee, or a person in whose favor a power of attorney 4 or a power held in any individual, fiduciary, or representative capacity is exercised.
- 5 5. "Beneficiary designation" refers to a governing instrument naming a beneficiary of an 6 account with payable on death designation, of a security registered in beneficiary form 7 transferable on death, or other nonprobate transfer at death.
- 8 6. "Child" includes an individual entitled to take as a child under this title by intestate 9 succession from the parent whose relationship is involved and excludes a person who 10 is only a stepchild, a foster child, a grandchild, or any more remote descendant.
- 11 7. "Claims", in respect to estates of decedents and protected persons, includes liabilities 12 of the decedent or protected person whether arising in contract, in tort, or otherwise, 13 and liabilities of the estate which arise at or after the death of the decedent or after the 14 appointment of a conservator, including funeral expenses and expenses of 15 administration. The term does not include estate or inheritance taxes or demands or 16 disputes regarding title of a decedent or protected person to specific assets alleged to 17 be included in the estate.
- 18 8. "Conservator" means a person who is appointed by a court to manage the estate of a 19 protected person, and includes limited conservators as defined in this section.
- 20 9. "Court" means the court having jurisdiction in matters relating to the affairs of 21 decedents.

29 devise to an existing trust or trustee, or to a trustee or trust described by will, the trust 30 or trustee is the devisee and the beneficiaries are not devisees.
- 31 13. "Disability" means cause for a protective order as described in section 30.1-29-01.

- 1       14. "Distributee" means any person who has received property of a decedent from the 2       decedent's personal representative other than as a creditor or purchaser. A 3       testamentary trustee is a distributee only to the extent of distributed assets or 4       increment thereto remaining in the trustee's hands. A beneficiary of a testamentary 5       trust to whom the trustee has distributed property received from a personal 6       representative is a distributee of the personal representative. For the purposes of this 7       provision, "testamentary trustee" includes a trustee to whom assets are transferred by 8       will to the extent of the devised assets.
- 9       15. "Estate" includes the property of the decedent, trust, or other person whose affairs are 10      subject to this title as originally constituted and as it exists from time to time during 11      administration.
- 12      16. "Exempt property" means that property of a decedent's estate which is described in 13      section 30.1-07-01.
- 14      17. "Expert examiner" means:
15      a. A licensed physician;
16      b. A psychiatrist;
17      c. A licensed psychologist trained in a clinical program;
18      d. An advanced practice registered nurse who is licensed under chapter 43-12.1 19      within the role of a certified nurse practitioner or certified clinical nurse specialist, 20      who has completed the requirements for a minimum of a master's degree from an 21      accredited program, and who is functioning within the scope of practice in one of 22      the population foci as approved by the state board of nursing; or 23      e. A physician assistant who is licensed under chapter 43-17 and authorized by the 24      state board of medical examiners to practice in this state.
- 25      18. "Fiduciary" includes a personal representative, guardian, conservator, and trustee.
- 26      ~~18.~~19. "Foreign personal representative" means a personal representative appointed by 27      another jurisdiction.
- 28      ~~19.~~20. "Formal proceedings" means proceedings conducted before a judge with notice to 29      interested persons.
- 30      ~~20.~~21. "Governing instrument" means a deed, will, trust, insurance or annuity policy, account 31      with payable on death designation, security registered in beneficiary form transferable

26 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 30.1-28-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is 27 amended and reenacted as follows:

28 30.1-28-03. (5-303) Procedure for court appointment of a guardian of an incapacitated 29 person.

- 30 1. Any person interested in the welfare of an allegedly incapacitated person may petition 31 for the appointment of a guardian. No filing fee under this or any other section may be

1 required when a petition for guardianship of an incapacitated person is filed by a 2 member of the individual treatment plan team for the alleged incapacitated person or 3 by any state employee in the performance of official duties.

4 2. The petition for appointment of a guardian must state:

- 5 a. The name, address, and corporate or agency status of the petitioner, and its 6 connection with or relationship to the proposed ward;
- 7 b. The name, age, and address of the proposed ward;
- 8 c. The name and address of any person or institution having care or custody over 9 the proposed ward;
- 10 d. The names and addresses of the spouse, parents, and adult children or, if none, 11 any adult siblings and any adult with whom the proposed ward resides in a 12 private residence, or, if none, the nearest adult relative;
- 13 e. A brief description of and the approximate value of the real and personal property 14 and income of the proposed ward, so far as they are known to the petitioner;
- 15 f. The extent of guardianship authority sought, including full authority, limited 16 authority, or no authority in each area of residential, educational, medical, legal, 17 vocational, and financial decisionmaking unless the petitioner is undecided on the 18 extent of authority in any area, in which case the petition must state the specific 19 areas in which the authority is sought;
- 20 g. The occupation and qualifications of the proposed guardian;
- 21 h. The name and address of the attorney, if known, who most recently represented 22 the proposed ward;
- 23 i. A statement alleging specific facts establishing the necessity for the appointment 24 of a guardian;
- 25 j. The name and address of any current conservator appointed for the proposed 26 ward;

28 in a power of attorney or as an agent in a health care directive;
- 29 l. The name and address of any representative payee for the proposed ward;
- 30 m. That less intrusive alternatives to guardianship have been considered; ~~and~~

1 n. In the form of an attached recent statement, the physical, mental, and emotional 2 limitations of the proposed ward; from ~~a physician, mental health services~~ 3 ~~provider, or other health care provider~~ an expert examiner, if available; and 4 o. Whether the petition seeks to restrict any of the following rights;

5 (1) To vote;

6 (2) To seek to change marital status; or 7 (3) To obtain or retain a motor vehicle operator's license.

8 3. Upon the filing of a petition, the court promptly shall set a date for hearing on the 9 issues of incapacity, appoint an attorney to act as guardian ad litem, appoint ~~a~~ 10 ~~physician or clinical psychologist~~ an expert examiner to examine the proposed ward, 11 and appoint a visitor to interview the proposed guardian and the proposed ward. The 12 proposed guardian shall attend the hearing on the petition unless excused by the court 13 for good cause.

14 4. The duties of the guardian ad litem include:

15 a. Personally interviewing the proposed ward;

16 b. Explaining the guardianship proceeding to the proposed ward in the language, 17 mode of communication, and terms that the proposed ward is most likely to 18 understand, including the nature and possible consequences of the proceeding, 19 the right to which the proposed ward is entitled, and the legal options that are 20 available, including the right to retain an attorney to represent the proposed ward;

21 c. Advocating for the best interests of the proposed ward. The appointed attorney 22 serving as legal guardian ad litem may not represent the proposed ward or ward 23 in a legal capacity; ~~and~~

24 d. Submitting a written report to the court containing the guardian ad litem's 26           court rule.

- 27        b. In determining whether appointment of a conservator is appropriate, the court 28        shall consider the reports ordered by the court under this subsection from a 29        guardian ad litem; and ~~either a physician or clinical psychologist~~ expert 30        examiner. The court, guardian ad litem, petitioner, or person to be protected may

1                    subpoena the individual expert examiner who prepared and submitted the report 2                    to appear, testify, and be cross-examined.

3            4.   The person to be protected must be present at the hearing in person, unless good 4                    cause is shown for the absence. Good cause does not consist of the physical difficulty 5                    of the person to be protected to attend the hearing. The court shall take all necessary 6                    steps to make the courts and court proceedings accessible and understandable to 7                    impaired persons. The court may convene temporarily, or for the entire proceeding, at 8                    any other location if it is in the best interest of the person to be protected.

9            5.   In any case in which the veterans' administration is or may be an interested party, a 10                   certificate of an authorized official of the veterans' administration that the person to be 11                   protected has been found incapable of handling the benefits payable on examination 12                   in accordance with the laws and regulations governing the veterans' administration 13                   shall be prima facie evidence of the necessity for such appointment a conservator or 14                   other protective order.

15       3-6.   After hearing, upon finding that ~~a basis for~~ the appointment of a conservator or other 16                   protective order ~~has been established~~ is appropriate, the court shall make an 17                   appointment or other appropriate protective order.

18            SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 30.1-29-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is 19                   amended and reenacted as follows:

20            30.1-29-08. (5-408) Permissible court orders.

21            1.   The court shall exercise the authority conferred in this chapter consistent with the 22                   maximum self-reliance and independence of the protected person and make 23                   protective orders only to the extent necessitated by the protected person's actual 24                   mental and adaptive limitations and other conditions warranting the procedure.

25            2.   The court has the following powers which may be exercised directly or through a 26                   conservator in respect to the estate and affairs of protected persons:

27                   a.   While a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order is 28                   pending and after preliminary hearing and without notice to others, the court has 29                   power to preserve and apply the property of the person to be protected as may 30                   be required for the benefit of the person to be protected or the benefit of the 31                   dependents of the person to be protected.

- 1           b. After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other 2           protective order exists with respect to a minor without other disability, the court 3           has all those powers over the estate and affairs of the minor which are or might 4           be necessary for the best interests of the minor, the minor's family, and members 5           of the minor's household.
- 6           c. After hearing and upon determining that ~~a basis for an appointment of a~~ 7           conservator or other protective order ~~exists~~ is appropriate with respect to a person 8           for reasons other than minority, the court has, for the benefit of the person and 9           members of the person's household, all the powers over the person's estate and 10          affairs which the person could exercise if present and not under disability, except 11          the power to make a will. These powers include power to make gifts, to convey or 12          release the person's contingent and expectant interests in property, including 13          marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy, to 14          exercise or release the person's powers as trustee, personal representative, 15          custodian for minors, conservator, or donee of a power of appointment, to enter 16          into contracts, to create revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the estate 17          which may extend beyond the person's disability or life, to exercise options of the 18          disabled person to purchase securities or other property, to exercise the person's 19          rights to elect options and change beneficiaries under insurance and annuity 20          policies and to surrender the policies for their cash value, to exercise the person's 21          right to an elective share in the estate of the person's deceased spouse, and to 22          renounce any interest by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.
- 23          d. The court may exercise or direct the exercise of its authority to exercise or 24          release powers of appointment of which the protected person is donee, to 25          renounce interests, to make gifts in trust or otherwise exceeding twenty percent 26          of any year's income of the estate, or to change beneficiaries under insurance 27          and annuity policies, only if satisfied, after notice and hearing, that it is in the best 28          interests of the protected person, and that the protected person either is 29          incapable of consenting or has consented to the proposed exercise of power.

1 e. An order made pursuant to this section determining that a ~~basis for~~ appointment 2 of a conservator or other protective order ~~exists~~ is appropriate has no effect on the 3 capacity of the protected person.

4 3. Unless terminated earlier by the court, an order appointing or reappointing a 5 conservator under this section is effective for up to five years. At least ninety days 6 before the expiration of the initial order of appointment or any following order of 7 reappointment, the court shall request and consider information submitted by the 8 conservator, the protected person, the protected person's attorney, if any, and any 9 interested persons regarding whether the need for a conservator continues to exist. If 10 it is recommended the conservatorship continue, the court may appoint a guardian ad 11 litem in accordance with section 30.1-29-07. The court shall hold a hearing on whether 12 the conservatorship should continue. Following the hearing and consideration of 13 submitted information, the court may reappoint the conservator for up to another five 14 years, allow the existing order to expire, or appoint a new conservator in accordance 15 with this section. The supreme court, by rule or order, shall provide for regular review 16 of conservatorships in existence on the effective date of this Act.

17 SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 30.1-29-14 of the North Dakota 18 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

19 2. If not otherwise compensated for services rendered, any ~~visitor~~, lawyer, 20 ~~physician~~ expert examiner, conservator, or special conservator appointed in a 21 protective proceeding is entitled to reasonable compensation from the estate.

22 SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 30.1-29-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is 23 amended and reenacted as follows:

24 30.1-29-19. (5-419) Annual reports and accounts.

25 1. At least once annually and at other times as the court may direct, a conservator 26 ~~must~~ shall file a report and account with the court regarding the exercise of powers and 27 duties specified in the court's order of appointment. The report must describe any 28 expenditure and income affecting the protected person, any sale or transfer of 29 property affecting the protected person, and any exercise of authority by the 30 conservator affecting the protected person.

- 1        2. On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator shall file a 2        final report and accounting and provide a copy of the report or accounting to the 3        protected person. The report or accounting must be filed with the clerk of district court.
4        ~~The filing of the report or accounting and the acceptance by the court or clerk of~~ 5        ~~district court of the report or accounting~~ does not constitute the court's approval of the 6        report or accounting. The court may approve a report and settle and allow an 7        accounting only upon notice to the protected person and other interested persons who 8        have made an appearance or requested notice of proceedings. Subject to appeal or 9        vacation within the time permitted, an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing 10       an intermediate account of a conservator, adjudicates as to liabilities concerning the 11       matters considered in connection therewith. An order, made upon notice and hearing, 12       allowing a final account adjudicates as to all previously unsettled liabilities of the 13       conservator to the protected person or the protected person's successors relating to 14       the conservatorship. In connection with any account, the court may require a 15       conservator to submit to a physical check of the estate in the conservator's control, to 16       be made in any manner the court may specify. The office of the state court 17       administrator shall provide printed forms that may be used to fulfill reporting 18       requirements. Any report must be similar in substance to the state court 19       administrator's form. The forms must be available in the office of clerk of district court 20       or obtainable through the supreme court's internet website.
- 21       3. Copies of the conservator's annual report to the court and of any other reports 22       required by the court must be mailed by the conservator to the protected person and 23       any interested persons designated by the court in its order. The protected person's 24       copy must be accompanied by a statement, printed with not less than double-spaced 25       twelve-point type, of the protected person's right to seek alteration, limitation, or 26       termination of the conservatorship at any time.
