3 subsection 2 of section 30.1-29-04, subsection 1 of section 30.1-29-05, sections 30.1-29-07 and 4 30.1-29-08, subsection 2 of section 30.1-29-14, and section 30.1-29-19 of the North Dakota
5 Century Code, relating to guardianship and conservatorship proceedings.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

7 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 30.1-01-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is 8 amended and reenacted as follows:

9 30.1-01-06. (1-201) General definitions.

10 Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent chapters which are applicable 11 to specific chapters, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this title:

- 12 1. "Agent" includes an attorney-in-fact under a durable or nondurable power of attorney, 13 an individual authorized to make decisions concerning another's health care, and an 14 individual authorized to make decisions for another under a natural death act.
- 15 2. "Application" means a written request to the court for an order of informal probate or 16 appointment under chapter 30.1-14.
- 17 3. "Augmented estate" means the estate described in section 30.1-05-02.
- 18 4. "Beneficiary", as it relates to a trust beneficiary, includes a person who has any 19 present or future interest, vested or contingent, and also includes the owner of an 20 interest by assignment or other transfer; as it relates to a charitable trust, includes any 21 person entitled to enforce the trust; as it relates to a beneficiary of a beneficiary 22 designation, refers to a beneficiary of an account with a payable on death designation, 23 of a security registered in beneficiary form transferable on death, or other nonprobate 24 transfer at death; and, as it relates to a "beneficiary designated in a governing

- 1 instrument", includes a grantee of a deed, a devisee, a trust beneficiary, a beneficiary 2 of a beneficiary designation, a donee, or a person in whose favor a power of attorney 3 or a power held in any individual, fiduciary, or representative capacity is exercised.
- 4 5. "Beneficiary designation" refers to a governing instrument naming a beneficiary of an 5 account with payable on death designation, of a security registered in beneficiary form 6 transferable on death, or other nonprobate transfer at death.
- 7 6. "Child" includes an individual entitled to take as a child under this title by intestate 8 succession from the parent whose relationship is involved and excludes a person who 9 is only a stepchild, a foster child, a grandchild, or any more remote descendant.
- 10 7. "Claims", in respect to estates of decedents and protected persons, includes liabilities 11 of the decedent or protected person whether arising in contract, in tort, or otherwise, 12 and liabilities of the estate which arise at or after the death of the decedent or after the 13 appointment of a conservator, including funeral expenses and expenses of 14 administration. The term does not include estate or inheritance taxes or demands or 15 disputes regarding title of a decedent or protected person to specific assets alleged to 16 be included in the estate.
- 17 8. "Conservator" means a person who is appointed by a court to manage the estate of a 18 protected person, and includes limited conservators as defined in this section.
- 19 9. "Court" means the court having jurisdiction in matters relating to the affairs of 20 decedents.
- 21 10. "Descendant" of an individual means all descendants of all generations, with the 22 relationship of parent and child at each generation being determined by the definition 23 of child and parent contained in this title.
- 24 11. "Devise", when used as a noun, means a testamentary disposition of real or personal 25 property, and when used as a verb, means to dispose of real or personal property by 26 will.
- 27 12. "Devisee" means a person designated in a will to receive a devise. In the case of a 28 devise to an existing trust or trustee, or to a trustee or trust described by will, the trust 29 or trustee is the devisee and the beneficiaries are not devisees.
- 30 13. "Disability" means cause for a protective order as described in section 30.1-29-01.

- 1 14. "Distributee" means any person who has received property of a decedent from the 2 decedent's personal representative other than as a creditor or purchaser. A 3 testamentary trustee is a distributee only to the extent of distributed assets or 4 increment thereto remaining in the trustee's hands. A beneficiary of a testamentary 5 trust to whom the trustee has distributed property received from a personal 6 representative is a distributee of the personal representative. For the purposes of this 7 provision, "testamentary trustee" includes a trustee to whom assets are transferred by 8 will to the extent of the devised assets.
- 9 15. "Estate" includes the property of the decedent, trust, or other person whose affairs are 10 subject to this title as originally constituted and as it exists from time to time during 11 administration.
- 12 16. "Exempt property" means that property of a decedent's estate which is described in 13 section 30.1-07-01.
- 14 17. "Expert examiner" means:
- 15 a. A licensed physician;
- 16 b. A psychiatrist;
- 17 c. A licensed psychologist trained in a clinical program;
- 18 d. An advanced practice registered nurse who is licensed under chapter 43-12.1 19 within the role of a certified nurse practitioner or certified clinical nurse specialist, 20 who has completed the requirements for a minimum of a master's degree from an 21 accredited program, and who is functioning within the scope of practice in one of 22 the population foci as approved by the state board of nursing; or
- 23 e. A physician assistant who is licensed under chapter 43-17 and authorized by the 24 state board of medical examiners to practice in this state.

5 (1) To vote;
6 (2) To seek to change marital status; or 7 (3) To obtain or retain a motor vehicle operator's license.
- 8 3. Upon the filing of a petition, the court promptly shall set a date for hearing on the 9 issues of incapacity, appoint an attorney to act as guardian ad litem, appoint a 10 ~~physician or clinical psychologist~~ an expert examiner to examine the proposed ward, 11 and appoint a visitor to interview the proposed guardian and the proposed ward. The 12 proposed guardian shall attend the hearing on the petition unless excused by the court 13 for good cause.
- 14 4. The duties of the guardian ad litem include:
15 a. Personally interviewing the proposed ward;
16 b. Explaining the guardianship proceeding to the proposed ward in the language, 17 mode of communication, and terms that the proposed ward is most likely to 18 understand, including the nature and possible consequences of the proceeding, 19 the right to which the proposed ward is entitled, and the legal options that are 20 available, including the right to retain an attorney to represent the proposed ward; 21 c. Advocating for the best interests of the proposed ward. The appointed attorney 22 serving as legal guardian ad litem may not represent the proposed ward or ward 23 in a legal capacity; ~~and~~ 24 d. Submitting a written report to the court containing the guardian ad litem's 25 response to the petition; and 26 e. Reviewing the visitor's written report submitted in accordance with subdivision h 27 and i of subsection 6 and discussing the report with the proposed ward.
- 28 5. The ~~physician or clinical psychologist~~ expert examiner shall examine the proposed 29 ward and submit a written report to the court. The written report must contain:
30 a. A description of the nature and degree of any current incapacity or disability, 31 including the medical or psychological history, if reasonably available;

- 1 b. A medical prognosis or psychological evaluation specifying the estimated severity 2 and duration of any current incapacity or disability;
- 3 c. A statement as to how or in what manner any underlying condition of physical or 4 mental health affects the proposed ward's ability to provide for personal needs; 5 and
- 6 d. A statement as to whether any current medication affects the demeanor of the 7 proposed ward or the ability of the proposed ward to participate fully in any court 8 proceeding or in any other procedure required by the court or by court rule.
- 9 6. The visitor shall have the following duties:
- 10 a. To meet, interview, and consult with the proposed ward regarding the 11 guardianship proceeding, including explaining the purpose for the interview in a 12 manner the proposed ward can reasonably be expected to understand.
- 13 b. To ascertain the proposed ward's views concerning the proposed guardian, the 14 powers and duties of the proposed guardian, the proposed guardianship, and the 15 scope and duration thereof.
- 16 c. To interview the person seeking appointment as guardian.
- 17 d. To interview other persons interested in the welfare of the proposed ward.
- 18 e. To visit the proposed ward's present place of residence.
- 19 e-f. To discuss an alternative resource plan with the proposed ward, if appropriate.
- 20 f-g. To obtain other relevant information as directed by the court.
- 21 g-h. To submit a written report to the court.
- 22 h-i. The visitor's written report must contain:
- 23 (1) A description of the nature and degree of any current impairment of the 24 proposed ward's understanding or capacity to make or communicate 25 decisions;
- 26 (2) A statement of the qualifications and appropriateness of the proposed 27 guardian and a recommendation regarding whether the proposed guardian 28 should be appointed;
- 29 (3) If the visitor recommends the proposed guardian should be appointed, a 30 recommendation regarding an alternative individual or entity that should be 31 appointed as guardian;

1 (4) Recommendations, if any, on the powers to be granted to the proposed 2 guardian, including an evaluation of the proposed ward's capacity to 3 perform the functions enumerated under subsections 3 and 4 of section 4 30.1-28-04; and

5 ~~(4)~~(5) An assessment of the capacity of the proposed ward to perform the 6 activities of daily living.

7 7. In determining whether appointment of a guardian is appropriate, the court shall 8 consider the reports ordered by the court under this section from a guardian ad litem, 9 visitor, and ~~either a physician or a clinical psychologist~~ expert examiner. The court, 10 guardian ad litem, petitioner, or proposed ward may subpoena the individual who 11 prepared and submitted the report to appear, testify, and be cross-examined.

12 8. The proposed ward must be present at the hearing in person, unless good cause is 13 shown for the absence. Good cause does not consist only of the physical difficulty of 14 the proposed ward to attend the hearing. The proposed ward has the right to present 15 evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses, including the court-appointed 16 ~~physician~~ expert examiner and the visitor. The issue may be determined at a closed 17 hearing if the proposed ward or the proposed ward's counsel so requests.

18 9. The court shall take all necessary steps to make the courts and court proceedings 19 accessible and understandable to impaired persons. Accordingly, the court may 20 convene temporarily, or for the entire proceeding, at any other location if it is in the 21 best interest of the proposed ward.

22 10. If the court approves a visitor, lawyer, ~~physician~~ expert examiner, guardian, or 23 emergency guardian appointed in a guardianship proceeding, that person may receive 24 reasonable compensation from the ward's estate if the compensation will not 25 unreasonably jeopardize the ward's well-being.

14 protective order ~~has been established~~ is appropriate, the court shall make an 15 appointment or other appropriate protective order.

16 SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 30.1-29-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is 17 amended and reenacted as follows:

18 30.1-29-08. (5-408) Permissible court orders.

19 1. The court shall exercise the authority conferred in this chapter consistent with the 20 maximum self-reliance and independence of the protected person and make 21 protective orders only to the extent necessitated by the protected person's actual 22 mental and adaptive limitations and other conditions warranting the procedure.

23 2. The court has the following powers which may be exercised directly or through a 24 conservator in respect to the estate and affairs of protected persons:

25 a. While a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order is 26 pending and after preliminary hearing and without notice to others, the court has 27 power to preserve and apply the property of the person to be protected as may 28 be required for the benefit of the person to be protected or the benefit of the 29 dependents of the person to be protected.

30 b. After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other 31 protective order exists with respect to a minor without other disability, the court

1 has all those powers over the estate and affairs of the minor which are or might 2 be necessary for the best interests of the minor, the minor's family, and members 3 of the minor's household.

4 c. After hearing and upon determining that a ~~basis for an~~ appointment of a 5 conservator or other protective order ~~exists~~ is appropriate with respect to a person 6 for reasons other than minority, the court has, for the benefit of the person and 7 members of the person's household, all the powers over the person's estate and 8 affairs which the person could exercise if present and not under disability, except 9 the power to make a will. These powers include power to make gifts, to convey or 10 release the person's contingent and expectant interests in property, including 11 marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy, to 12 exercise or release the person's powers as trustee, personal representative, 13 custodian for minors, conservator, or donee of a power of appointment, to enter 14 into contracts, to create revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the estate 15 which may extend beyond the person's disability or life, to exercise options of the 16 disabled person to purchase securities or other property, to exercise the person's 17 rights to elect options and change beneficiaries under insurance and annuity 18 policies and to surrender the policies for their cash value, to exercise the person's 19 right to an elective share in the estate of the person's deceased spouse, and to 20 renounce any interest by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.

21 d. The court may exercise or direct the exercise of its authority to exercise or 22 release powers of appointment of which the protected person is donee, to 23 renounce interests, to make gifts in trust or otherwise exceeding twenty percent 24 of any year's income of the estate, or to change beneficiaries under insurance 25 and annuity policies, only if satisfied, after notice and hearing, that it is in the best 26 interests of the protected person, and that the protected person either is 27 incapable of consenting or has consented to the proposed exercise of power.

28 e. An order made pursuant to this section determining that a ~~basis for~~ appointment 29 of a conservator or other protective order ~~exists~~ is appropriate has no effect on the 30 capacity of the protected person.

1 3. Unless terminated earlier by the court, an order appointing or reappointing a 2 conservator under this section is effective for up to five years. At least ninety days 3 before the expiration of the initial order of appointment or any following order of 4 reappointment, the court shall request and consider information submitted by the 5 conservator, the protected person, the protected person's attorney, if any, and any 6 interested persons regarding whether the need for a conservator continues to exist. If 7 it is recommended the conservatorship continue, the court may appoint a guardian ad 8 litem in accordance with section 30.1-29-07. The court shall hold a hearing on whether 9 the conservatorship should continue. Following the hearing and consideration of 10 submitted information, the court may reappoint the conservator for up to another five 11 years, allow the existing order to expire, or appoint a new conservator in accordance 12 with this section. The supreme court, by rule or order, shall provide for regular review 13 of conservatorships in existence on the effective date of this Act.

14 SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 30.1-29-14 of the North Dakota 15 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

16 2. If not otherwise compensated for services rendered, any ~~visitor,~~ lawyer, 17 ~~physician~~expert examiner, conservator, or special conservator appointed in a 18 protective proceeding is entitled to reasonable compensation from the estate.

19 SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 30.1-29-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is 20 amended and reenacted as follows:

21 30.1-29-19. (5-419) Annual reports and accounts.

22 1. At least once annually and at other times as the court may direct, a conservator 23 ~~must~~shall file a report and account with the court regarding the exercise of powers and 24 duties specified in the court's order of appointment. The report must describe any 25 expenditure and income affecting the protected person, any sale or transfer of 26 property affecting the protected person, and any exercise of authority by the 27 conservator affecting the protected person.
28 2. On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator shall file a 29 final report and accounting and provide a copy of the report or accounting to the 30 protected person. The report or accounting must be filed with the clerk of district court.
31 The filing of the report or accounting and the acceptance by the court or clerk of 1 district court of the report or accounting does not constitute the court's approval of the 2 report or accounting. The court may approve a report and settle and allow an 3 accounting only upon notice to the protected person and other interested persons who 4 have made an appearance or requested notice of proceedings. Subject to appeal or 5 vacation within the time permitted, an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing 6 an intermediate account of a conservator, adjudicates as to liabilities concerning the 7 matters considered in connection therewith. An order, made upon notice and hearing, 8 allowing a final account adjudicates as to all previously unsettled liabilities of the 9 conservator to the protected person or the protected person's successors relating to 10 the conservatorship. In connection with any account, the court may require a 11 conservator to submit to a physical check of the estate in the conservator's control, to 12 be made in any manner the court may specify. The office of the state court 13 administrator shall provide printed forms that may be used to fulfill reporting 14 requirements. Any report must be similar in substance to the state court 15 administrator's form. The forms must be available in the office of clerk of district court 16 or obtainable through the supreme court's internet website.

- 17 3. Copies of the conservator's annual report to the court and of any other reports 18 required by the court must be mailed by the conservator to the protected person and 19 any interested persons designated by the court in its order. The protected person's 20 copy must be accompanied by a statement, printed with not less than double-spaced 21 twelve-point type, of the protected person's right to seek alteration, limitation, or 22 termination of the conservatorship at any time.
