POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. LEFOR rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE LEFOR

MR. SPEAKER: Thank you Mr. Speaker.

Having lived in Dickinson nearly all of my life, I have had the ability to watch many young men and women grow up as we all do in our local communities. One of these young people, grew up in an athletic family, his mother was the head volleyball coach at the University of Mary, his father, the former head volleyball at Dickinson State University. Prior to one of their matches against each other the Dickinson coach ask the U-Mary coach out for dinner. She accepted, and years later they were married in a small church in Almont. (This was a marriage where I was in attendance.)

The grooms name was Dave Moody and the bride was Kay Johnson from Almont. Together, they raised three children all athletes. Their eldest son Nate was a wide receiver for the North Dakota State University Bison, their daughter Ali, was a standout volleyball player for NDSU. Their youngest child, Aanen, was totally dedicated to his sport of choice, basketball.

For many years, all you had to do to see Aanen Moody was by going to our West River Community Center where he would be shooting, rebounding and hustling from one end of the basketball court under the watchful eye of his dad, David.

He was dedicated to being the basketball player he could possibly be practicing, practicing and then practicing even more. Now, he stands alone at the top of the class in scoring more points than any other Class A basketball player in North Dakota history.

Just last week, he was given the award of Mr. Basketball, recognizing the best high school basketball player in the state. Just yesterday, he won the Gatorade Player of the Year award for the second year in a row. Now, he will take his talents to the University of North Dakota to play for the fighting hawks. Congratulations, Aanen on a job well done and for making Dickinson proud! Hard work really does pay off!

Thank you Mr. Speaker.

REQUEST

REP. VIGESAA REQUESTED that the remarks of Rep. Lefor be printed in the Journal, which request was granted on a voice vote.

MR. SPEAKER: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly,

Last week, High school standout, Tyler Irwin of Wahpeton was named North Dakota Miss Basketball as well as the Powerade Outstanding Senior Athlete and ND Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year...a clean sweep. After years of hard work both on and off the court, Tylee finished her high school career with 2192 points, #2 all time in ND Class A basketball scoring.

She was coached by Brian Watson, who was named ND Class A Girls BBall Coach of the Year. District 25 is very proud of Tylee and Coach Watson.
