INVOCATION BY JOHN WARNER
PASTOR OF SARON LUTHERAN CHURCH
FORMER SENATOR

Creator God, we gather on this day to honor the memory of our friends and colleagues who have served their communities and this state as members of the North Dakota State Senate. While their service in this Chamber and their lives here on earth have ended, we give thanks to you for the blessing that each of them was for their family and to those they served.

We, too, were privileged to have known them and we are grateful to you for their lives of faithful service. Thank you for their loved of our great state, for their desire to give their very best. Thank you for their willingness to speak wisdom to power and comfort to the powerless. Make us, the ones they left behind, ever mindful of the high standards of justice and equity that they established in their time and help us to pass on that legacy to those who follow.

We are gathered today in the presence of their families. We are so very grateful to them for sharing their loved ones in this great enterprise that is the governance of North Dakota. Envelope all of us in the reassurance of your love as we gather in mourning for those who have departed and grant a full measure of wisdom and honor to those who carry on the task. Amen

MEMORIAL ADDRESS BY FORMER SENATOR JOHN ANDRIST

Honorable Lt. Gov. Sanford, friends and family of the brothers and sister we honor today, and all of you who make me smile every time I see you:

It is good to be back in this chamber, albeit a bit intimidating from this vantage point. For 22 years this was my second home, and I like to think “my second neighborhood”, to borrow a term from Mr. Rogers.

In my second session of being away I must admit quite honestly, I miss all of you dreadfully. The last time I filed for reelection I had decided I was going to keep doing this until I was recalled by God. Alas, I soon learned, my arms are too short to box with God.

My challenge in speaking today about our seven honorees, is that I really only knew one of them, and unless they served your own city or district you probably didn’t personally know them either.

Yet, in a larger sense we are all bonded in a special brotherhood or sisterhood or whatever you call it. I like to use the term love. So I’ve chosen to share a few words about how important to our lives this thing is that we casually refer to as love. Love is the most powerful emotion in our lives. Indeed, love is what Jesus was all about.

The word love appears more than 500 times in newer versions of the Bible, a majority of them in the new testament. The Aramaic language in which Jesus spoke had at least 4 or 5 words for different forms of love, whereas our English word must share many connotations.

Love is that titillation you experienced on your honeymoon, but it is also the emotion you experience 30 years later when you were more grateful than amorous. Love is that inexplicable joy a new mother feels when she first touches her newborn child, and the sensation that grabs a new father the first time that baby smiles at him.
Love is not only what makes marriage work for different kinds of people and personalities. It is what creates civility wherever we interact with others. The stronger our feeling of love for another, the better we are able to deal with faults and differences. I once wistfully asked the love of my life if she really loved me. Her response was, “If I didn’t love you I couldn’t stand you!”

So it is with us. Love is the force which holds us together after every bitter debate, and brings us back tomorrow. It is the mother of respect and civility. Another form of love can make us run into burning buildings to save people we may not know, or to stop and give aid when we encounter an accident on the highway. It is what makes us smile when children sing, and weep in the death of people close to us.

At least twice in recent months I have felt crushed by anguish at the passing of an unrelated friend that I loved. It seemed just too difficult to emotionally handle.

Most of us understand the power of forgiveness, but forgiveness simply cannot happen apart from love. The two are inseparably linked.

Love is the force which binds us together in communities just like this one we share in this very room at his very time, as well as with all the others who have sat in these chairs before us, including the seven we honor today. This love and this community spans the ages, uniting us forever, with people like:

Perry Grotberg of Valley City, who served from 1981 to 1984, and was particularly devoted to education of the handicapped and disabled. Truer love has no man.

Like Gene Hilken of Wilton, who served from 1983 to 1990, who loved Vivian, farming, wildlife, and amateur baseball.

Like Buckshot Hoffner of Esmond, whom I am told was as easy to love as anyone whoever populated this place, and who filled so many leadership roles in his community and our state, including directing our State’s Centennial Celebration in 1989. He served in five House sessions starting in 1963 and four Senate sessions ending in 1980.

Like Shirley Lee of Turtle Lake and Bismarck, who fell in love with this work as a Senate staffer for a number of years before getting the opportunity to serve six sessions of her own between 1974 and 1984.

Like Chuck Orange of Grand Forks, who served in the House from 1973 to 1976 and the Senate from 1977 to 1980. He is the only honoree who never had a wife to love, yet he had a magnetic personality and charming sense of humor in a lifetime of community involvement.

Jim Pomeroy of Fargo, like me, he served later in his life. 2007 to 2010 after a long career of service as a church pastor and advocate for education, worker, and women’s rights. I knew him as quiet, unassuming, and yes, loving.

Finally, Howard Freed, an accomplished attorney and Dickinson community leader during a long life in Dickinson that just ended two weeks ago, 6 days short of his 91st birthday. He was an Eagle Scout and Boy Scout leader, and was serving in the U.S. Navy when WWII ended. His time in the Senate was from 1967 to 1978. We may not have physically known these seven, but we are connected through the power of love. It truly is the tie that binds.

A few weeks ago the past of my church closed his service with a benediction including these words credited to Carlo Carretto, an Italian Catholic Brother, who died in 1988. It was really quite profound for me: “Live love, let love invade you, it will never fail to teach you what you must do.”

I would be honored if a few of you would write this down and place it on your desk, as I did on my refrigerator, pondering it a few times before it is lost in your clutter and your memory. “Live love, let love invade you, it will never fail to teach you what you must do.”

I am so honored to be among you, to have been given the opportunity to serve here and work with you. And yes, I really do love you.
BENEDICTION BY JOHN WARNER
PASTOR OF SARON LUTHERAN CHURCH
FORMER SENATOR

Gracious and eternal God, as we conclude this service of remembrance, we ask for your blessings as we seek to become citizens of a beloved community, loving you and loving our neighbors as ourselves.

We pray that you will bless us with your continued presence because without it, hatred and arrogance will infect our hearts. But with the blessing of your presence, we know that we can renew the ties of mutual regard which can best form our civic life. We pray that we will always see each other as created in your image, a singular unit of God's grace, unprecedented, unrepeable and irreplaceable.

Endow us with a spirit of gratitude and humility that we may become a blessing to those we serve. Help us always to remember the words of the prophet Micah, "What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness and walk humbly with God?". Amen
