POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. LAFFEN rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR LAFFEN

MR. PRESIDENT: 20 years ago, today, I was standing on the first tee box at Pinehurst NC. We had an 8:08 tee time and just before we started I got a call from my wife, water was coming over the dikes back home in Grand Forks. When we walked into the MSP airport terminal, everyone was crowded around the TV's. I asked what had happened and they said that GFK was on fire. I couldn't believe what we were seeing. Our NWA pilot got permission to fly right over the GFK downtown and by then 11 buildings were on fire. It appeared the whole town was in flames. My office was right in the middle.

I met my family who had already evacuated to the airport. As we left for Minot I knew my house was flooding, and it appeared my office was burning. I remember thinking that everything I own was in that car - but it didn't really matter as I had my family and my golf clubs.

Mr. President, what transpired was truly unbelievable. The largest evacuation since Atlanta in the Civil War, 50K people. $1B in damage. No power, no water, no food, no gas, no stores. Nothing. About a week later cases of water starting showing up in six packs on street corners. Canned and delivered by Budweiser, we called it Floodweiser. And while the Salvation Army delivered the best beef stew ever it was difficult trying to recover with no services anywhere in town.

But Mr. President, we had something no one else had, we had ND. We moved to Fargo and the FAR Schools took in our kids. Apartments gave us day to day rent as we needed. Restaurants wouldn't let us pay. My college classmate Kevin Bartram let my office of 20 move into theirs in Fargo. We made round trip commutes between Fargo and GFK every day. I94 was under water so we had to go to Casselton just to turn north. With all the miles, I had to change oil every week. The Jiffy Lube guy wouldn't let me pay.

One Saturday morning, while mucking out the basement of my office, which by some miracle the fire missed, Governor Ed Schafer came walking up to see how we were doing. He was all alone with no idea how he even got there. He helped us carry stuff out for two hours. Mr. President, I remember laughing that here in ND we don't have looters, we have Governors who can muck out a basement.

After 30 days, we hooked up a generator to run my office computers and moved back to GFK. Two months later we were all working when the power came back on. We cried. It was the 1st sign of our city coming back to life.

Mr. President, we received incredible support from the people of North Dakota and that of our country. The almost immediate decision to fund and construct a flood protection system gave us the faith to rebuild. And rebuild we did. I remember the FEMA people complaining that we were going too fast for them. They had never seen anything like it. We weren't waiting for their approvals or their money. By the time the snow fell that winter - you could scarcely see any physical damage.

Two years later we went on a thank you trip to Washington DC. The Secretary of HUD and the Secretary of Commerce both broke down in tears. They said that in their twenty years in DC no one had ever come to thank them.

We brought clocks with an inscription on them as thank you gifts. When the secret service descended on us I remember Senator Byron Dorgan telling us that the next time we want to bring a box with a ticking timing device into the White House we should probably let him know ahead of time.

Mr. President, I don't know if we ever got the chance to formally thank the citizens of North Dakota. And even if we did, today seems a good day to do so again. ND, we couldn't have done it without you. It was too big a task. And I hope that if you ever go through a disaster like we did that you have the fortune to live amongst people like you. The people of Grand Forks thank you.

And lastly Mr. President, I'd like to thank the ND legislature for sending $52M to our city to ensure that it would never happen again. There were 12 of you here that day to push the green button. Senators: Bill Bowman, Dwight Cook, Ray Holmberg, Ralph Kilzer, Jerry Klein, Karen Krebsbach, Judy Lee, Tim Mathern, Carolyn Nelson, Larry Robinson, Terry Wanzek and Rich Wardner. Of the 20 some thousand votes you have each made in this room since none have meant so much to so many. God Bless you and God Bless the State of North Dakota.

¹ Funding for employee health insurance is adjusted to reflect the updated premium amount of $1,241 per month. Section 2 of the bill is also adjusted to reflect the revised premium rate.

- Amends Section 34-14-09 to provide that an employee may file a wage complaint with the department for disputes of at least $125 but not more than $15,000. This amendment is effective through June 30, 2019, and after that date is ineffective. The Senate version included a minimum dispute amount of $200, but no maximum or expiration date.
