21 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 22 10. If within a renaissance zone there is property that is included in a tax increment 23 financing district, the city in which the property is located shall provide the department 24 of commerce an annual report regarding any such property at the time requested by 25 the department of commerce. The report required under this subsection must identify 26 the property, provide the expected duration of inclusion of the property in the tax 27 increment financing district and the renaissance zone, and identify any property and 28 income tax benefits of the property and the expected duration of those benefits. The 29 department of commerce shall deliver an annual report compiling the information 30 required under this subsection to the legislative management ~~interim committee on-~~

1 taxation issues or upon request of any other interim committee of the legislative-2 management.

3 SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Section 54-03-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
4 amended and reenacted as follows:

5 54-03-02. When legislative assembly meets.

6 1. The legislative assembly shall meet at the seat of government in the month of 7 December following the election of ~~the~~its members thereof for organizational and 8 orientation purposes and shall thereafter recess after the organizational session until 9 the time provided in subdivision a of subsection 2.

10 2. The legislative assembly shall reconvene annually for a number of days to be 11 determined by the legislative assembly, but the total number of days may not exceed 12 the number of natural days available under the constitution.

13 a. In odd-numbered years, the legislative assembly shall reconvene at twelve noon 14 on the first Tuesday after the third day in January of the year following the 15 organizational session as provided in subsection 1 or at twelve noon on a date 16 selected by the legislative management but not earlier than January second nor 17 later than January eleventh of the year following the organizational session and, 18 following. Before recessing, the legislative assembly shall adopt a biennial state 19 budget and enact biennial appropriations. At the close of business of the regular 20 session, the legislative assembly shall adjourn recess subject to subdivision b and 21 subsection 3.

22 b. In even-numbered years, the legislative assembly shall reconvene at a time and 23 date selected by the legislative management. The legislative assembly may 24 review and, if necessary, amend the budget and appropriations. Following the 25 close of business, the legislative assembly shall recess subject to subsection 3.

26 3. Notwithstanding a motion to adjourn sine die, the legislative assembly shall reconvene 27 as determined by the legislative management. The number of natural days used may 28 not exceed the number of natural days available under the constitution which have not 29 been previously used by that legislative assembly in regular session and which are not 30 required to satisfy the annual requirements under subsection 2.

1 SECTION 13. Section 54-03-02.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted
2 as follows:

3 54-03-02.2. Introduction of bills in even-numbered years.

4 During reconvened sessions in even-numbered years, a bill review committee must be 5 appointed in the same manner as standing committees. Each legislator shall submit to the bill 6 review committee a copy of each bill the legislator wishes to introduce during the session. The 7 bill review committee shall identify which bills must be prioritized based on the importance and 8 time sensitivity of the bill subjects. Bills prioritized by the committee must be introduced during 9 the reconvened session. Bills not prioritized by the committee may not be introduced during the 10 reconvened session. If a sponsor of a bill not introduced during the reconvened session is a 11 member of the legislative assembly during the next odd-numbered year legislative session, the 12 sponsor may introduce the bill in the that odd-numbered year legislative session.

13 SECTION 14. Section 54-03-02.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted
14 as follows:

15 54-03-02.3. Committees.

16 During each organizational session, members of standing committees must be appointed 17 for the biennium. Unless otherwise provided by law, the members of a standing committee 18 appointed during the organizational session shall meet jointly when the legislative assembly is 19 not in session and shall meet separately by chamber when the legislative assembly is in 20 session.

22 amended and reenacted as follows:

23 54-03-06. Chairman of committee may administer oath.

24 Any member of a committee ~~or interim committee~~ of the legislative assembly, while acting 25 as chairman of such committee, may administer oaths to such persons as shall be examined 26 before the committee of which the chairman is a member.

28 amended and reenacted as follows:

29 54-03.1-03. Agenda.

30 The agenda of the organizational session must include the following:

31 1. Orientation classes upon legislative rules and procedure for new legislators;

- 1 2. Presentation of reports by legislative ~~interim~~ committees or commissions;

28 issues.

- 29 14. Receive and review information, including a project startup report summarizing the 30 project description, project objectives, business need or problem, cost-benefit 31 analysis, and project risks and a project closeout report summarizing the project

1 objectives achieved, project budget and schedule variances, and lessons learned, 2 from the affected legislative or judicial branch agency regarding any information 3 technology project of the legislative or judicial branch with a total cost of five hundred 4 thousand dollars or more.

5 15. Receive information from the state board of higher education regarding higher 6 education information technology planning, services, and major projects.

8 amended and reenacted as follows:

9 54-35-16. Authority to determine if legislative assembly meets.

10 The legislative management may issue a call for the legislative assembly to convene after it 11 has recessed or adjourned under ~~subsection 2 of~~ section 54-03-02. The length of a legislative 12 session called under this section may not exceed the number of natural days available under 13 the constitution which have not been used and are not required by section 54-03-02 to be used 14 in the future by that legislative assembly. The legislative management may exercise this 15 authority, and the legislative assembly shall meet, regardless of whether the motion to close the 16 regular session of the legislative assembly was to recess to a time certain, adjourn to a time 17 certain, or adjourn sine die.

18 SECTION 30. AMENDMENT. Section 54-35-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is 19 amended and reenacted as follows:

20 54-35-18. Energy development and transmission committee.

21 The legislative management, during each biennium, shall appoint an energy development 22 and transmission committee in the same manner as the legislative management appoints other 23 ~~interim~~ committees. The legislative management shall appoint six members of the house of 24 representatives, four of whom must be from the majority political party and two of whom must 25 be from the minority political party, and six members of the senate, four of whom must be from 26 the majority political party and two of whom must be from the minority political party. The 27 chairman of the legislative management shall designate the chairman of the committee. The 28 committee shall operate according to the statutes and procedure governing the operation of 29 other legislative management ~~interim~~ committees. The committee shall study the impact of a 30 comprehensive energy policy for the state and the development of each facet of the energy 31 industry, from the obtaining of the raw natural resource to the sale of the final product in this

1 state, other states, and other countries. The study may include the review of and 2 recommendations relating to policy affecting extraction, generation, processing, transmission, 3 transportation, marketing, distribution, and use of energy.

5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 54-35-22. Workers' compensation review committee.

- 7 1. During each ~~interim~~, biennium a legislative management's ~~interim~~ workers' 8 compensation review committee must be appointed as follows: two members of the 9 senate appointed by the majority leader of the senate of the legislative assembly; one 10 member of the senate appointed by the minority leader of the senate of the legislative 11 assembly; two members of the house of representatives appointed by the majority 12 leader of the house of representatives; and one member of the house of 13 representatives appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives. The 14 chairman of the legislative management shall designate the chairman of the 15 committee. The committee shall operate according to the laws and procedures 16 governing the operation of other legislative management ~~interim~~ committees. The 17 committee may recommend legislation relating to workers' compensation. The 18 committee shall meet once each calendar quarter or less often if the committee 19 chairman determines a meeting that quarter is not necessary because there are no 20 claims to review.
- 21 2. The committee shall review workers' compensation claims that are brought to the 22 committee by injured workers for the purpose of determining whether changes should 23 be made to the laws relating to workers' compensation. A claim may not be reviewed 24 by the committee unless workforce safety and insurance has issued a final 25 determination and either the injured worker has exhausted the administrative and 26 judicial appeals process or the period for appeal has expired. ~~In order for~~ For the 27 committee to review a claim, the injured worker must first sign a release of information 28 for constituent authorization to allow the committee and legislative council to review 29 the injured worker's workforce safety and insurance records and to allow the 30 committee members and workforce safety and insurance representatives to discuss 31 the records in an ~~interim~~ committee hearing. Notwithstanding any open meeting

1 requirements, except as otherwise provided under this section, the workforce safety 2 and insurance records of an injured worker whose case is reviewed by the committee
3 are confidential. However, pursuant to the constituent's authorization, information 4 contained in the records may be discussed by the committee members and workforce 5 safety and insurance representatives in ~~an interim~~ committee hearing.

6 3. The committee shall accept testimony of an injured worker and of a representative 7 designated by the injured worker. After the committee has received the testimony of 8 the injured worker and the injured worker's representative, the committee shall request 9 that workforce safety and insurance provide testimony.
