7 SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 15.1-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
8 and enacted as follows:

9 Dyslexia screening - Report to legislative management.

- 10 1. Each public elementary school shall offer to administer dyslexia screenings to any 11 enrolled student through the end of the second grade. A parent or legal guardian of a 12 student may refuse a dyslexia screening offered by the school.
- 13 2. The board of a school district may contract with, employ, and compensate dyslexia
14 specialists, credentialed by the superintendent of public instruction under section
15 15.1-02-16, to educate and train district teachers in appropriate dyslexia screening
16 methods, identification, and intervention. A dyslexia specialist hired by the board of a 17 school district must be trained in proven dyslexia remediation strategies.
- 18 3. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules, in consultation with 19 teachers, school administrators, and other stakeholders, setting forth the criteria for 20 administering dyslexia screenings and for notifying the student's parent or legal 21 guardian of the results of the screening.
- 22 4. The board of each school district shall report annually to the superintendent of public
23 instruction regarding the district's efforts to screen and identify students with dyslexia.
24 Before June first of each even-numbered year, the superintendent of public instruction
25 shall compile the information and report to the legislative management.
- 26 5. For purposes of this section, "dyslexia" means a specific learning disability that is 27 neurological in origin and characterized by difficulties with accurate or fluent 28 recognition of words and poor spelling and decoding abilities, independent of the 29 individual's general intelligence level.

30 SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 15.1-34 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
31 and enacted as follows:

1 Dyslexia - Training to teachers, administrators, and ancillary staff - Intervention.

2 The superintendent of public instruction shall collaborate with regional education

3 associations to disseminate information, training materials, and notice of training opportunities

4 to school districts and nonpublic schools regarding dyslexia identification and intervention. If

5 public school personnel identify a student as having dyslexia, a trained teacher employed or

6 contracted by the school may provide dyslexia intervention services to the student.
