18 paragraph 4 of subdivision n of subsection 2 of section 27-20.1-06, the petition must 19 contain sufficient statements to establish deprivation unless the child has resided in 20 the home of the proposed guardian for at least one year before the filing date of the 21 petition.
- 22 2. A petition under this chapter must be reviewed by the court to determine whether the 23 contents of the petition comply with section 27-20.1-06.
- 24 3. If a petition alleges deprivation, the petition will be reviewed by the court to determine 25 whether there has been a sufficient showing of deprivation.
- 26 4. If the petitioner has made an insufficient showing of deprivation, the court, without oral 27 argument or an evidentiary hearing shall issue an order denying the petition. If the 28 petitioner has made a sufficient showing of deprivation justifying a guardianship, the 29 court shall set a date for an evidentiary hearing.

1 27-20.1-08. Procedure upon approval of petition.

2 1. The court shall issue a summons in accordance with rule 5 of the North Dakota Rules
3 of Juvenile Procedure and appoint a lay guardian ad litem upon the approval of the 4 petition.

5 2. An initial hearing must be set in accordance with rule 2 of the North Dakota Rules of 6 Juvenile Procedure.

7 3. For a petition filed under paragraphs 1, 2, or 3 of subdivision n of subsection 2 of 8 section 27-20.1-06:

9 a. The petitioner may request the court waive the hearing requirement.

10 b. The petition must state any person interested in the welfare of the child who 11 opposes the appointment of the proposed guardian shall file an objection to the 12 appointment and a demand for hearing within ten days of the service of the 13 petition. If an objection is not filed within ten days, the court may order the 14 appointment of a guardian for the child without a hearing upon review of the 15 guardian ad litem's report.

16 c. If the petition is unopposed, the court may order appointment of a guardian on 17 the strength of the pleadings, including the report of the guardian ad litem, if 18 satisfied that the conditions of paragraphs 1, 2, or 3 of subdivision n of 19 subsection 2 of section 27-20.1-06 have been met, or may conduct a hearing and 20 require proof of the matters necessary to support the order sought. Before 21 appointment of the guardian, the court shall consider whether the child has or will 22 have significant excess assets and determine whether a conservatorship is 23 necessary under chapter 30.1-29.

24 d. The guardian ad litem shall file a report in accordance with rule 17 of the North 25 Dakota Rules of Juvenile Procedure, within twenty days after appointment.

26 27-20.1-09. Right to counsel.

27 1. If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines the interests of the child are or 28 may be inadequately represented, the court may appoint an attorney to represent the 29 child.

30 2. At a proceeding commenced under this chapter, a parent who is indigent and unable 31 to employ legal counsel is entitled to counsel at public expense. If a parent appears

1 without counsel the court shall ascertain whether the parent knows the parent may be 2 represented by counsel and that the parent is entitled to counsel at public expense if 3 indigent. The court may continue the proceeding to enable the parent to obtain 4 counsel and, subject to this section, counsel must be provided for an unrepresented
5 indigent parent upon the parent's request and the court's determination that the parent 6 is indigent.

7 3. An indigent parent is one who meets the definition of indigent under the guidelines
8 adopted by the commission on legal counsel for indigents.

9 27-20.1-10. Conduct of hearings.

10 1. A hearing under this chapter must be conducted by the court without a jury, in an 11 informal but orderly manner, and separately from other proceedings not included in 12 section 27-20-03 or section 27-20.1-02.

13 2. The proceedings must be recorded by stenographic notes or by electronic, 14 mechanical, or other appropriate means.

15 3. The petitioner shall present the evidence in support of any allegations of the petition 16 not admitted.

17 4. The general public must be excluded from the hearing and only the parties, their 18 counsel, witnesses, victims, and any other persons the court finds to have an interest 19 in the proceedings may be admitted. The court may temporarily exclude the child or 20 other person from the hearing if, after being warned by the court that disruptive 21 conduct will cause removal from the courtroom, the child or other person persists in 22 conduct justifying removal from the courtroom.

23 5. If the child has or will have significant excess assets, the court shall determine 24 whether a conservatorship is necessary under chapter 30.1-29.

25 27-20.1-11. Appointment of guardian of a child.

26 1. The court may appoint a guardian of a child if the court finds by clear and convincing 27 evidence that the appointment is in the child's best interest and:

28 a. Both parents are deceased or the surviving parent's rights have been terminated 29 by a previous court order, but there has been no appointment of a guardian for 30 the child by will, the court has transferred the case to juvenile court without

1 appointment of a guardian, or the testamentary guardian failed to accept the 2 appointment under chapter 30.1-27;

3 b. The parents have consented in writing by affidavit;

4 c. All parental rights have been previously terminated; or 5 d. The child is a deprived child as defined under section 27-20-02.

6 2. The court may appoint as guardian any fit and willing person whose appointment
7 would be in the best interest of the child. If the court finds by clear and convincing
8 evidence that the child is of sufficient maturity to make a sound judgment, or the child 9 is age fourteen or older, the court may give substantial weight to the preference of the 10 child. The court shall give due consideration to other factors that may have affected 11 the child's preference, including whether the child's preference was based on 12 undesirable or improper influences.

13 3. The court may appoint a guardian as a dispositional alternative if a child has been 14 adjudicated as deprived, unruly, or delinquent under chapter 27-20.

15 27-20.1-12. Findings on petition to appoint guardian of a child - Order of appointment.

16 1. After hearing the evidence on the petition or after a waiver of the hearing, the court
17 shall make and file its findings as to whether the requirements of section 27-20.1-06 18 have been met, whether the guardian is a fit and willing person, and whether the 19 appointment of the guardian is in the child's best interest.

20 2. Upon finding that the requirements of section 27-20.1-06 have been met, the guardian
21 is a fit and willing person, and the appointment of the guardian is in the child's best 22 interest, the court shall order the appointment. The order must contain:

23 a. The name, address, and telephone number of the guardian.

24 b. Notice of the right to appeal the guardianship appointment and of the right to 25 seek modification or termination of the guardianship at any time.

26 c. If appropriate and in the child's best interest, the court shall determine the nature 27 and extent, if any, of any contact, sharing of information, and visitation between 28 the parents and the child, and the child and any other interested person.

29 d. A requirement that the guardian provide, within ninety days from the date of the 30 order, a beginning inventory of any assets owned by the child or in which the 31 child has an interest. The guardian shall file with the court and serve a copy of

- 1 the beginning inventory on the child if the child is fourteen years of age or older,
2 and any interested persons designated by the court in its order.
3 e. The date on which the first annual report is due and the requirement to file
4 annually thereafter.
5 f. The length of time the order is effective. An order appointing or reappointing a 6 guardian under this chapter is effective for up to one year unless the court, upon 7 a showing of good cause, sets a different time frame. An order may not be 8 effective for more than three years.

9 27-20.1-13. Effect of order appointing a guardian.

- 10 1. An order appointing a guardian of a child suspends any authority of a parent that is 11 granted to the guardian under that order. A parent subject to such an order is entitled 12 to treatment as a party at any subsequent juvenile court proceeding regarding the 13 child.
14 2. While a guardianship is in effect, the parent has the following rights:
15 a. Parenting time, contact, and information, to the extent delineated in the 16 guardianship order issued by the court. A parent may petition the court for 17 specific enforcement provisions of the order relating to contact, parenting time, or 18 information; and
19 b. Inheritance from the child.
20 3. The parent has the primary responsibility to financially support the child.

21 27-20.1-14. Acceptance of appointment - Consent to jurisdiction - Letters of 22 guardianship.

- 23 1. By accepting the appointment, a guardian submits personally to the jurisdiction of the 24 court in any proceeding relating to the guardianship that may be instituted by any 25 interested person.
26 2. By accepting the appointment, a guardian acknowledges the duty to file an annual 27 report under section 27-20.1-15.
28 3. Upon the guardian's acceptance of the appointment, the court shall issue letters of 29 guardianship. The letters of guardianship must contain:
30 a. The name, address, and telephone number of the guardian;
31 b. The full name of the child;

- 1 c. Any limitations on the guardian's authority to make decisions on behalf of the
2 child;
3 d. The expiration date of the appointment; and 4 e. The date by which the guardian must file the annual report required under section 5 27-20.1-15.

6 27-20.1-15. Powers and duties of guardian of a child.

- 7 1. A guardian of a child has the powers and responsibilities of a legal custodian if there is 8 a parent with remaining parental rights. If there is no parent with remaining parental 9 rights, the guardian has the rights of a legal custodian and the authority to consent to 10 the child's adoption, marriage, enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, and 11 surgical and other medical treatment. A guardian is not liable to third persons by 12 reason of the parental relationship for acts of the child.
13 2. A guardian has the following powers and duties:
14 a. The guardian must take reasonable care of the child's personal effects and 15 commence protective proceedings if necessary to protect other property of the 16 child.
17 b. The guardian may receive money payable for the support of the child to the 18 child's parent, guardian, or custodian under the terms of any statutory benefit or 19 insurance system, or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship, or 20 custodianship.
21 (1) The guardian may receive money or property of the child paid or delivered 22 by virtue of section 30.1-26-03. Any sums received must be applied to the 23 child's current needs for support, care, and education.
24 (2) The guardian must exercise due care to conserve any excess sum for the 25 child's future needs unless a conservator has been appointed for the estate 26 of the child, in which case the excess sum must be paid over at least 27 annually to the conservator. Sums so received by the guardian are not to be 28 used for compensation for the guardian's services except as approved by 29 order of the court or as determined by a duly appointed conservator other 30 than the guardian.

1 (3) The guardian may not use funds from the child's estate for room and board
2 that the guardian or the guardian's spouse have furnished to the child
3 unless a charge for the service is approved by order of the court made upon 4 notice to at least one of the child's next of kin, if notice is possible.

5 (4) A guardian may institute proceedings to compel the performance by any 6 person of a duty to support the child or to pay sums for the welfare of the 7 child.

8 c. To facilitate the child's education, social, or other activities.

9 d. To authorize medical or other professional care, treatment, or advice. A guardian 10 is not liable by reason of this consent for injury to the child resulting from the 11 negligence or acts of third persons unless it would have been illegal for a parent 12 to have consented.

13 e. A guardian shall file an annual report with the court regarding the exercise of 14 powers and duties under this subsection.

15 (1) The report must describe the status or condition of the child, including any 16 change of residence and reasons for the change, any medical treatment 17 received by or withheld from the child, the child's educational progress, any 18 expenditure and income affecting the child, and any exercise of legal 19 authority by the guardian affecting the child.

20 (2) The report must include changes that have occurred since the previous 21 reporting period and an accounting of the child's estate.

22 (3) The guardian shall report whether the child continues to require a
23 guardianship.

24 (4) The report must be filed with the court.

25 (5) The filing of the report does not constitute an adjudication or a determination 26 of the merits of the report nor does the filing of the report constitute the 27 court's approval of the report.

28 (6) The court shall review the report and a hearing may be set.

29 (7) The office of the state court administrator shall provide forms that may be used 30 to fulfill reporting requirements. Any report must be similar in substance to 31 the state court administrator's form.

1 (8) Copies of the guardian's annual report and of any other reports required by 2 the court must be mailed to the child, if the child is age fourteen or older, the 3 child's parents, unless the parents' rights have been terminated or the 4 parents are deceased, and any interested persons designated by the court 5 in its order.

6 (9) If a guardian fails to file a complete annual report as required by this 7 subdivision, fails to file a report at other times as the court may direct, or 8 fails to provide an accounting of an estate, the court, upon its own motion or 9 upon petition of any interested person, may issue an order compelling the 10 guardian to show cause why the guardian should not immediately make and 11 file the report or account, or be found in contempt for failure to comply. A 12 copy of the order to show cause must be provided to the child, if the child is 13 age fourteen or older, the child's parents, unless the parents' rights have 14 been terminated or the parents are deceased, any interested persons
15 designated by the court in its order, and the juvenile court director.

16 f. The guardian shall inform the court of any change in the child's residence within 17 thirty days of the change, but must seek prior authorization of the court to 18 establish or move the child's residence outside of the state.

19 g. In determining what is in the child's best interest, the guardian shall take into 20 account the child's preferences to the extent actually known or reasonably 21 ascertainable by the guardian.

22 h. To the extent reasonable, the guardian shall delegate to the child responsibilities 23 for decisions affecting the child's well-being.

24 i. The guardian may not delegate authority as a guardian under a power of attorney 25 without prior approval from the court.

26 27-20.1-16. Procedure for modification, resignation, or termination of a guardianship.

27 1. A guardian may petition for permission to resign. A petition for permission to resign 28 must include a request for appointment of a successor guardian unless continuation of 29 the guardianship is no longer necessary. Resignation of a guardian does not terminate 30 the guardianship unless specifically ordered by the court.

- 1 2. Any party to the proceeding in which the child's status was adjudicated, the director,
2 the child, if fourteen or more years of age, or any interested person, may petition for 3 removal or modification of a guardian on the grounds the removal or modification
4 would be in the best interest of the child. A petition for removal or modification must 5 include a request for appointment of a successor guardian unless continuation of the 6 guardianship is no longer necessary.
- 7 3. Any party to the proceeding in which the child's status was adjudicated, the director,
8 the child, if fourteen or more years of age, or any interested person, may petition for 9 termination of the guardianship due to:
- 10 a. The child's death, adoption, marriage, or attainment of majority;
11 b. The withdrawal of the parent's consent; or 12 c. The basis for the guardianship no longer exists.
- 13 4. The person seeking modification, resignation, removal, or termination of the 14 guardianship shall file a supporting affidavit with the petition demonstrating the basis
15 for the petition, and serve the petition and affidavit on the child, if the child is age
16 fourteen or older, the child's parents, unless the parents' rights have been terminated 17 or the parents are deceased, and any interested persons designated by the court in its 18 order. The petition must be reviewed by the court to determine whether to set an 19 evidentiary hearing. If an insufficient showing has been made, the court shall issue an 20 order denying the petition.
- 21 5. If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines it is in the best interest of the 22 child, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem.
- 23 6. If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines the interests of the child are or 24 may be inadequately represented, the court may appoint an attorney to represent the
25 child.

26 27-20.1-17. Expiration and termination of guardianship of a child.

- 27 1. An order appointing or reappointing a guardian under this chapter is effective for up to 28 one year unless the court, upon a finding of good cause, sets a different time frame.
29 An order may not be effective for more than three years. At least sixty days before the 30 expiration of the initial order of appointment or any following order of reappointment, 31 the court shall request and consider information submitted by the guardian, the child, if

1 fourteen years of age or older, the child's attorney, if any, the child's parents, and any 2 interested persons regarding whether the need for a guardianship continues to exist.
3 The court, at its discretion, may appoint a guardian ad litem in accordance with section 4 27-20.1-08, before the hearing. The court shall hold a hearing on whether the 5 guardianship should continue. Following the hearing and consideration of submitted 6 information, the court may:

7 a. Terminate the guardianship if shown by clear and convincing evidence that the 8 circumstances that led to the guardianship no longer exist;

9 b. Reappoint the guardian for up to three years; or 10 c. Appoint a new guardian.

11 2. A guardian's authority and responsibility terminates upon the death, resignation, or 12 removal of the guardian, or upon the child's death, adoption, marriage, or attainment 13 of majority, but termination does not affect the guardian's liability for prior acts or the 14 guardian's obligation to account for funds and assets of the child. For cases arising 15 under section 27-20-30.1, the age of majority is age twenty-one.

16 3. The supreme court, by rule or order, shall provide for the regular review of 17 guardianships in existence on August 1, 2019.

18 27-20.1-18. Appointment of emergency guardian of a child.

19 1. Upon petition by a person interested in the child's welfare, the court may appoint an 20 emergency guardian if the court finds that compliance with the procedures of this 21 chapter will likely result in substantial harm to the child's health, safety, or welfare.
22 Immediately upon receipt of the petition for an emergency guardian, the court shall 23 appoint a guardian ad litem to advocate for the best interests of the child.

24 2. An emergency guardian may be appointed without hearing or notice to the child, the 25 child's parent or legal custodian, or the child's guardian ad litem only if the court finds 26 from affidavit or other sworn testimony that the child will be substantially harmed
27 before a hearing can be held. If the court appoints an emergency guardian without 28 hearing or notice to the child, the child's parent or legal custodian, or the child's 29 guardian ad litem, the child, the child's parent or legal custodian, and the child's 30 guardian ad litem must be given notice of the emergency appointment by the petitioner
31 within forty-eight hours after the emergency appointment. The court shall hold a

1 hearing on the appropriateness of the emergency appointment within ninety-six hours
2 after the emergency appointment or filing of the petition.

3 3. Reasonable notice, either oral or written, stating the time, place, and purpose of the 4 hearing must be given to the child, if fourteen years of age or older, and, to the child's 5 parents or legal custodian, if they can be found. If oral notice is provided, the petitioner 6 must file an affidavit stating that oral notice including the time, place, and purpose of 7 the hearing has been provided.

8 4. The court shall determine if there is probable cause to believe the emergency 9 appointment is in the best interest of the child and one of the provisions of 10 subsection 1 of section 27-20.1-11 is met.

11 5. If the emergency guardian is found to be appropriate, the court may order the 12 emergency guardian remain in place for no more than sixty days from the date of the 13 hearing. The court may extend the emergency order for up to six months.

14 6. A request for an emergency guardian may be included in a petition for appointment of 15 a guardian of a child under section 27-20.1-05.

16 27-20.1-19. Attorney's fees.

17 If the court determines an action brought under section 30.1-27-07 or this chapter is 18 frivolous, the court may award reasonable, actual, and statutory costs, including reasonable 19 attorney's fees, incurred by or on behalf of the child.

20 27-20.1-20. Protective order.

21 1. At any stage of the proceedings, upon application of a party or on the court's own 22 motion, the court may make an order restraining or otherwise controlling the conduct 23 of an individual if the court finds the conduct:

24 a. Is or may be detrimental or harmful to the child; or 25 b. Will tend to defeat the execution of an order of disposition; and 26 2. Due notice of the application or motion and the grounds therefor and an opportunity to 27 be heard have been given to the person against whom the order is directed.

28 27-20.1-21. Orders for evaluation.

29 1. The court may order a party or a proposed guardian to submit to a chemical 30 dependency, parental capacity, mental health, domestic violence, anger management,
31 or other relevant evaluation by a suitably licensed or certified examiner. The court may

1 request other persons having regular contact with the child submit to a chemical
2 dependency, parental capacity, mental health, domestic violence, anger management,
3 or other relevant evaluation by a suitably licensed or certified examiner. Failure to 4 submit to an evaluation will be taken into consideration by the court.

5 2. The order may be made only on motion for good cause by a party or guardian ad 6 litem, or on the court's own motion, and on notice to all parties and the person to be 7 evaluated. The order must:

8 a. Specify the type of evaluation and the type of professional or entity to perform the 9 evaluation;

10 b. Include the deadline for performing the evaluation;

11 c. Include the date by which the evaluation must be filed with the court; and 12 d. Specify the party that must pay the costs of the evaluation. If the party is unable 13 to pay the costs, the court may direct the costs to be paid, in whole, or in part, by 14 the county. The court may direct the party to reimburse the county, in whole or in 15 part, for the payment.

16 3. The evaluation must be in writing and must set out in detail the evaluator's findings,
17 including diagnoses, conclusions, and the results of any tests. The evaluator must file 18 a copy with the court.

19 4. The evaluation reports and any addendums are confidential. The public or the parties 20 may not read or copy the evaluation reports or addendums unless the court, in its 21 discretion, gives permission. The guardian ad litem may read the evaluation reports 22 and addendums but may not copy the evaluation reports and addendums unless the 23 court, in its discretion, gives permission. A party, proposed guardian, or other person 24 requested to submit to an evaluation by the court under this section is entitled to a 25 copy of the report of evaluation and any addendum, upon request.

26 27-20.1-22. Confidentiality.

27 Except as provided by section 27-20-51, all files and records under this chapter are closed 28 to the public and confidential.

29 SECTION 8. REPEAL. Sections 27-20-48.2, 27-20-48.3, and 27-20-48.4 of the North 30 Dakota Century Code are repealed.
