POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. WARDNER rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR WARDNER

MR. PRESIDENT: Today is a great day for the North Dakota Senate. We have two people who have been very involved in State Government and in the legislative process come back to visit.

First of all, I would like to talk about Senator Elroy Lindaas from District 20. A real statesman who always had the people of the State in mind when he deliberated on his decisions. He was a man of integrity and a man that stood for the people. And as we, in this body, Mr. President, move forward, we need to be reminded of people like Senator Lindaas that have set an example, have set a bar, for us to follow.

So, at this time, I would like to introduce Senator Elroy Lindaas, sitting with Senator Lemm.

I'm not done yet.

It was back in 1991, when I stepped foot into the hallowed halls of the House of Representatives in the Capitol of North Dakota, elected from District 37. This is when I had the opportunity to serve with Rosemarie Myrdal. She had already been there for two sessions. Again, another person who represented the people. People came first in her deliberations. But then she left us. She left the confines of the Legislature, and moved on to the Executive Branch, Mr. President. Rosemarie Myrdal became the Lieutenant Governor of the State of North Dakota and held your position for eight years.

This is what I remember about Rosemarie Myrdal. She was a tireless warrior for education in the State of North Dakota. Those eight years she was in the Executive Branch, she continued to work with the Legislature to advance K through 12 education, as well as higher education in the State of North Dakota.

So, Mr. President, it is with pride and joy that we bring her back. She sat in your chair for four sessions and ruled the roost in the Senate. Mr. President, Rosemarie Myrdal.
