1       SECTION 6. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - DEVELOPMENT OF A LAND

2       ACCESS DATABASE. During the 2019-20 interim, the legislative management shall consider
3 studying access to land for hunting and trapping and the development of a land access
4 database. If selected by the legislative management, the study must be conducted by a new 5 committee established by the legislative management to study access to public and private
6 lands for hunting, trapping, and related issues, including the development of a hunters access
7 database with the capability for landowners to provide electronic information regarding the 8 availability of the landowner's property for hunters and trappers. The voting members of the 9 committee must consist of the following, who must be appointed by the legislative management:

- 10       1. Two members representing agriculture organizations;
- 11       2. Two members representing sportsmen organizations; and
- 12       3. Five members of the legislative assembly, one of whom must be selected by the 13       committee as chairman of the committee, including:
- 14           a. One member of the majority party in the house of representatives;
- 15           b. One member of the minority party in the house of representatives;
- 16           c. One member of the majority party in the senate;
- 17           d. One member of the minority party in the senate; and
- 18           e. One member from either party in either chamber.

19       The nonvoting members of the committee are:

- 20       1. A representative of the North Dakota association of counties;
- 21       2. The agriculture commissioner or the commissioner's designee;
- 22       3. The director of the game and fish department or the director's designee; and
- 23       4. The chief information officer or the officer's designee.

24       A member of the committee who is not a state employee is entitled to reimbursement for 25 mileage and expenses as provided by law for state officers and employees, to be paid by the 26 legislative council. A state employee who is a member of the committee is entitled to receive 27 that employee's regular salary and is entitled to reimbursement for mileage and expenses to be 28 paid by the employing agency. A member of the committee who is a member of the legislative 29 assembly is entitled to receive per diem compensation at the rate provided under section
30 54-35-10 for each day performing official duties of the committee. The legislative council shall 31 pay the per diem compensation and reimbursement for travel and expenses as provided by law

Sixty-sixth
Legislative Assembly

1 for any member of the committee who is a member of the legislative assembly. The committee
2 may establish a prototype hunters access database in select counties prior to August 1, 2020.
3 The legislative management shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any 4 legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-seventh legislative 5 assembly.
