of North Dakota

REENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1410

Introduced by

Representatives Vetter, Damschen, Karls, Klemin, B. Koppelman, K. Koppelman, Pollert, Satrom

Senators Kannianen, Meyer, Vedaa

1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 25-01 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to prohibiting department of human services from substantially 3 burdening the exercise of religion by a patient or resident under the department's care; to 4 amend and reenact sections 12-44.1-14 and 12-47-26, subsection 12 of section 23-01-05, and 5 section 37-17.1-05 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to prohibiting a correctional 6 facility or facility under the control of the department of corrections and rehabilitation from 7 substantially burdening the exercise of religion by an offender in the facility's custody, the state 8 health officer's authority, and the governor's authority during a declared disaster or emergency; 9 and to provide a penalty.

10 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

11 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 12-44.1-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is 12 amended and reenacted as follows:

13 12-44.1-14. Inmate rights.

- 14 1. Subject to reasonable safety, security, discipline, and correctional facility 15 administration requirements, the administrator of each correctional facility shall:
- 16 4. a. Ensure inmates have confidential access to attorneys and their authorized 17 representatives.
- 18 2. b. Ensure that inmates are not subjected to discrimination based on race, national 19 origin, color, creed, sex, economic status, or political belief.
- 20 3. c. Ensure equal access by male and female inmates to programs and services 21 available through the correctional facility.
- 22 4. d. Ensure access to mail, telephone use, and visitors.
- 23 5. e. Ensure that inmates are properly fed, clothed, and housed.

1       6.   f.   Ensure that inmates have adequate medical care. Adequate medical care means 2            necessary treatment for a medical or health condition for which serious pain or 3            hardship would occur if care is not given. A correctional facility may not deny 4            adequate medical care to an inmate who does not have health insurance or does 5            not have the ability to pay the costs of the medical or health care.

6       7.   g.   Ensure that inmates may reasonably exercise their religious beliefs.

7       2.   Correctional facility staff or an administrator of a correctional facility may not:

8       a.   Substantially burden the exercise of religion by an offender in the custody of the 9            correctional facility unless the burden is in furtherance of a compelling 10          governmental interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering that 11          compelling governmental interest;

12       b.   Treat religious conduct more restrictively than any comparable secular conduct 13          unless the correctional facility demonstrates the disparate treatment is necessary 14          to further a compelling penological interest and is the least restrictive means of 15          furthering that compelling penological interest; or 16       c.   Deny clergy access to an offender in the custody of the correctional facility for the 17          purpose of providing religious services unless the correctional facility 18          demonstrates the denial is necessary to further a compelling penological interest 19          and is the least restrictive means of furthering that compelling penological 20          interest.

21       3.   An offender in the custody of a correctional facility claiming to be aggrieved by a 22          violation of subsection 2 may assert, after exhausting appropriate administrative 23          remedies, that violation as a claim or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain 24          appropriate relief, including costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

25       SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 12-47-26 of the North Dakota Century Code is 26       amended and reenacted as follows:

27       12-47-26. Uniform kindly treatment of inmates.

28       1.   The warden and all officers of the penitentiary uniformly shall treat the inmates 29          thereof of the penitentiary with kindness, and the warden shall require of the officers 30          and guards that, in the execution of ~~their~~the officers' and guards' respective duties, 31          ~~they~~the officers and guards in all cases shall refrain from boisterous and unbecoming

1 language in giving their orders and commands. ~~No corporal~~Corporal or other painful or 2 unusual punishment ~~shall~~may not be inflicted upon the inmates of the penitentiary for 3 violation of the rules and regulations ~~thereof~~of the penitentiary.

4 2. A facility under the control of the department of corrections and rehabilitation may not:

5 a. Substantially burden the exercise of religion by an offender in the custody of the 6 facility unless the burden is in furtherance of a compelling governmental interest 7 and is the least restrictive means of furthering that compelling governmental 8 interest;

9 b. Treat religious conduct more restrictively than any comparable secular conduct 10 unless the facility demonstrates the disparate treatment is necessary to further a 11 compelling penological interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering 12 that compelling penological interest; or

13 c. Deny clergy access to an offender in the custody of the facility for the purpose of 14 providing religious services unless the facility demonstrates the denial is 15 necessary to further a compelling penological interest and is the least restrictive 16 means of furthering that compelling penological interest.

17 3. An offender in the custody of a facility claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of 18 subsection 2 may assert, after exhausting appropriate administrative remedies, that 19 violation as a claim or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain appropriate relief, 20 including costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

21 SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 12 of section 23-01-05 of the North Dakota Century
22 Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23 12. Issue any orders relating to disease control measures deemed necessary to prevent 24 the spread of communicable disease. Disease control measures may include special 25 immunization activities and decontamination measures. Written orders issued under 26 this section shall have the same effect as a physician's standing medical order. The 27 state health officer may apply to the district court in a judicial district where a 28 communicable disease is present for an injunction canceling public events or closing 29 places of business. On application of the state health officer showing the necessity of 30 such cancellation, the court may issue an ex parte preliminary injunction, pending a 31 full hearing.

- 1           a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an order issued pursuant to this 2           subsection may not:
3           (1) Substantially burden a person's exercise of religion unless the order is in 4           furtherance of a compelling governmental interest and is the least restrictive
5           means of furthering that compelling governmental interest; 6           (2) Treat religious conduct more restrictively than any secular conduct of 7           reasonably comparable risk, unless the government demonstrates through 8           clear and convincing evidence that a particular religious activity poses an 9           extraordinary health risk; or 10          (3) Treat religious conduct more restrictively than comparable secular conduct 11          because of alleged economic need or benefit.
12          b. A person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of subdivision a may assert that 13          violation as a claim or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain appropriate 14          relief, including costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

15           SECTION 4. A new section to chapter 25-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is created 16 and enacted as follows:

17           Religious exercise of patient or resident under the care of the department of human 18 services.

- 19          1. The department of human services may not:
20          a. Substantially burden the exercise of religion by patient or resident under the 21          department's care unless the burden is in furtherance of a compelling 22          governmental interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering that 23          compelling governmental interest;
24          b. Treat religious conduct more restrictively than any comparable secular conduct 25          unless the department demonstrates the disparate treatment is necessary to 26          further a compelling governmental interest and is the least restrictive means of 27          furthering that compelling governmental interest; or 28          c. Deny clergy access to a patient or resident for the purpose of providing religious 29          services unless the department demonstrates the denial is necessary to further a 30          compelling governmental interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering 31          that compelling governmental interest.

- 1       2. A patient or resident of the department of human services claiming to be aggrieved by 2       a violation of this section, may assert, after exhausting appropriate administrative 3       remedies, that violation as a claim or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain 4       appropriate relief, including costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

5       SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 37-17.1-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is 6 amended and reenacted as follows:

7       37-17.1-05. The governor and disasters or emergencies - Penalty.

- 8       1. The governor is responsible to minimize or avert the adverse effects of a disaster or 9       emergency.
- 10      2. Under this chapter, the governor may issue executive orders and proclamations, and 11      amend or rescind them. Executive orders, proclamations, and regulations have the 12      force of law.
- 13      3. A disaster or emergency must be declared by executive order or proclamation of the 14      governor if the governor determines a disaster has occurred or a state of emergency 15      exists. The state of disaster or emergency shall continue until the governor determines 16      that the threat of an emergency has passed or the disaster has been dealt with to the 17      extent that emergency conditions no longer exist. The legislative assembly by 18      concurrent resolution may terminate a state of disaster or emergency at any time. All 19      executive orders or proclamations issued under this subsection must indicate the 20      nature of the disaster or emergency, the area or areas threatened, the conditions 21      which have brought it about or which make possible termination of the state of disaster 22      or emergency. An executive order or proclamation must be disseminated promptly by 23      means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public, unless the 24      circumstances attendant upon the disaster or emergency prevent or impede such 25      dissemination, and it must be promptly filed with the department of emergency 26      services, the secretary of state, and the county or city auditor of the jurisdictions 27      affected.
- 28      4. An executive order or proclamation of a state of disaster or emergency shall activate 29      the state and local operational plans applicable to the political subdivision or area in 30      question and be authority for the deployment and use of any forces to which the plan 31      or plans apply and for use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, and materials

1 and facilities assembled, stockpiled, or arranged to be made available pursuant to this 2 chapter or any other provision of law relating to a disaster or emergency.

3 5. During the continuance of any state of disaster or emergency declared by the 4 governor, the governor is commander in chief of the emergency management 5 organization and of all other forces available for emergency duty. To the greatest 6 extent practicable, the governor shall delegate or assign command authority by prior 7 arrangement embodied in appropriate executive orders or emergency operational 8 plans, but nothing herein restricts the governor's authority to do so by orders issued at 9 the time of the disaster or emergency.

10 6. In addition to any other powers conferred upon the governor by law, the governor may:

11 a. Suspend the provisions of any regulatory statute prescribing the procedures for 12 conduct of state business, or the orders, rules, or regulations of any state agency, 13 if strict compliance with the provisions of any statute, order, rule, or regulation 14 would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in managing a 15 disaster or emergency.

16 b. Utilize all available resources of the state government as reasonably necessary 17 to manage the disaster or emergency and of each political subdivision of the 18 state.

19 c. Transfer the direction, personnel, or functions of state departments and agencies 20 or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency 21 management activities.

22 d. Subject to any applicable requirements for compensation under section 23 37-17.1-12, commandeer or utilize any private property if the governor finds this 24 necessary to manage the disaster or emergency.

25 e. Direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken 26 or threatened area within the state if the governor deems this action necessary 27 for the preservation of life or other disaster or emergency mitigation, response, or 28 recovery.

29 f. Prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with an 30 evacuation.

- 1 g. Control ingress and egress in a designated disaster or emergency area, the 2 movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.
- 3 h. Suspend or limit the sale, dispensing, or transportation of alcoholic beverages, 4 explosives, and combustibles, not including ammunition.
- 5 i. Make provision for the availability and use of temporary emergency housing.
- 6 j. Make provisions for the control, allocation, and the use of quotas for critical 7 shortages of fuel or other life and property sustaining commodities.
- 8 k. Designate members of the highway patrol, North Dakota national guard, or others 9 trained in law enforcement, as peace officers.
- 10 7. Any person who willfully violates any provision of an executive order or proclamation 11 issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter is guilty of an infraction.
- 12 8. ~~Authorize~~The governor may authorize the adjutant general to recall to state active 13 duty, on a volunteer basis, former members of the North Dakota national guard. Those 14 recalled must possess the qualifications required by the disaster or emergency. Recall 15 under this subsection is effective only for the duration of the disaster or emergency 16 and recalled personnel will be released from state active duty upon competent 17 authority that the requirement of their service under this subsection has passed.
18 Compensation for personnel recalled under this subsection will be based upon section 19 37-07-05.
- 20 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an order, proclamation, rule, or regulation 21 issued pursuant to this section may not:
- 22 a. Substantially burden a person's exercise of religion unless the order is in 23 furtherance of a compelling governmental interest and is the least restrictive
24 means of furthering that compelling governmental interest;
- 25 b. Treat religious conduct more restrictively than any secular conduct of reasonably 26 comparable risk, unless the government demonstrates through clear and 27 convincing evidence that a particular religious activity poses an extraordinary 28 health risk; or
- 29 c. Treat religious conduct more restrictively than comparable secular conduct 30 because of alleged economic need or benefit.

- 1        10. A person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of subsection 9 may assert that
- 2                violation as a claim or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain appropriate relief,
- 3                including costs and reasonable attorney's fees.
