11 supreme court. After determining eligibility, the supreme court, or the committee
12 designated by the supreme court, shall conduct an assessment of the applicant to 13 evaluate the applicant's need for an attorney and the ability of the applicant to sustain
14 and support an attorney.
- 15 3. In making the selection of an eligible applicant, the supreme court, or the committee 16 designated by the supreme court, shall consider the assessment and:

- 19 c. The recommendation of the presiding district court judge;
- 20 d. The economic development programs within the county or municipality;
- 21 e. The geographical location of the county or municipality in comparison to other 22 counties or municipalities participating in the program; and
- 23 f. Any prior participation in the program by the county or municipality.

1 4. The supreme court, or the committee designated by the supreme court, shall maintain
2 a list of counties and municipalities that have been assessed and are selected for 3 participation in the recruitment assistance program.

4 5. The supreme court, or the committee designated by the supreme court, may revise the 5 assessment of any county or municipality or conduct a new assessment as necessary
6 to reflect a change in conditions.

8 A county is eligible to participate in the recruitment assistance program if the county:

- 9 1. Has a population of fifteen thousand or fewer;
10 2. Agrees to provide the county's portion of the incentive payment as required under 11 section 27-02.2-06; and

- 4 1. An agreement for the payment of recruitment assistance under this chapter must
