SEN. BEARD MOVED that the report be adopted, which motion prevailed.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that a committee of two be appointed to escort Commanding Officer of the USS North Dakota, Robert L. Edmonson III to the rostrum, which motion prevailed.

PRESIDENT MILLER APPOINTED Senators Dever and Paulson to the escort committee.

REMARKS OF ROBERT L. EDMONSON III, COMMANDING OFFICERS OF THE USS NORTH DAKOTA

Madam President and Members of the North Dakota Senate, from the Officers and Crew of the USS NORTH DAKOTA, the 11th Ship of the VIRGINIA Class, thank you for your continued support. I am delighted to be here as their representative. It is my honor and privilege to report on the current status of YOUR warship.

I am proud to report that YOUR ship and the men who fight it are BOLD and LETHAL, ready to deliver unstoppable combat power to deter or defeat any adversary.

On February 12, 2021, I became the fourth Commanding Officer of the NORTH DAKOTA following her return from a 2nd successful Deployment. From the first day, I was in awe of what a great ship and crew I had the opportunity to lead and together we began the incredible journey that was to unfold. We were immediately tasked with completing a shortened, strenuous Deployed Preparations Period, the workup prior to our most recent, 3rd deployment. We got to work.

The crew executed the preparations period flawlessly, consistently delivering exceptional performance in the face of immense operational, material, and schedule pressure. Here are a few highlights of those important preparations:

USS NORTH DAKOTA was chosen to participate in the Submarine Command Course. This is one of the Submarine Force's pinnacle events, where hopeful Commanding Officers and Executive Officers are challenged to lead a crew through intense and complicated peace and wartime operations. During these exercises the officers and the crew practice tactics that challenge the full spectrum of submarine operations. They are pitted against other submerged, surfaced and air combatants in preparation for the day when we are called into action.

Following this exercise, we had the pleasure of hosting Midshipmen, young naval officers at the beginning of their careers, while operating near Mayport, Florida. The crew shared their stories of service, sacrifice and operating the ship, and warmly welcomed these Midshipmen into the Navy Family. The crew's excellence and motivation helped ensure that only the best Midshipmen would be chosen to lead the Submarine Force in their future career.

The crew operated off the coast of Florida in joint operations with Seal Delivery Vehicle – Team Two, an exercise that included multiple special ops teams who conducted diving operations in and out of the ship's lock out trunk, developing new procedures and refining tactics. This was impactful and prepared the crew and our Special Forces teams for future missions.

The crew worked tirelessly and completed multiple intense maintenance periods to ensure that YOUR ship was in the highest state of material and combat readiness. I had the pleasure of reporting to Admiral Houston, the Commander of Submarine Forces, prior to our most recent deployment on NORTH DAKOTA's readiness. He stated we were deploying with the highest state of operational and material readiness that he'd ever seen.

I soon realized just how important these preparations were.

NORTH DAKOTA deployed for the 3rd time on March 29th of last year, almost one month to the day after Russia had invaded Ukraine. We pushed off the pier from New London, CT - the Submarine Capital of the world – cheered on by all of the family and fellow shipmates we had to leave behind. They proudly sang Anchors Away and chanted the ship's motto "Strength from the Soil, Reapers of the Deep" as we cast off lines and sounded the whistle, one long blast to indicate a warship underway.

There was a sense of urgency, the entire crew and their families felt the call to duty that we would answer in Theatre. However, I later learned how challenging, dynamic, and important this deployment would be; one of the most difficult I've seen in my 25 years of Naval service.

The deployment was hard, and the operational tempo was high, but YOUR crew didn't show it. Their performance and their achievements were so impactful that our time at sea was extended from 6 months to 7 months. Our missions were so crucial to our national security, that we were requested from the highest levels of command to stay at sea 94 percent of those 7 long months. For over two months, we were in total communications blackout.

One of the important strategic resources we enjoyed was our network of allies, both at sea and in port. We made port calls in Tromso, Norway; Faslane, Scotland; Rota, Spain; and Toulon; France. As you can see from the ports visited, we operated everywhere! Your crew represented NORTH DAKOTA with honor while they recovered from intense operations and resupplied.

Across the deployment we traveled over 40,000 total miles, including going above the Arctic Circle and sailing throughout the Atlantic and Mediterranean Sea.

We made a huge investment developing the leaders to inherit our future, achieving the highest levels of retention, qualification, and advancement across all submarines in the Atlantic Fleet. Often sailors testified their commitment to service grew because of what they had accomplished on deployment and that their personal efforts allowed the ship to answer the call, every single time – with excellence.

The return from deployment celebrations were commensurate with their achievements. I had the pleasure to brief our deployment to multiple commanders including a brief in Washington DC to your very own, Senator Cramer.

The crew was recognized for employing several new tactics and techniques during operations that involved surfaced ships, aircraft, and other submarines. They dominated the undersea domain and came home heroes. They also received many congratulatory letters from submarine force leaders, personal, and ship awards that recognized a "new high bar" of excellence. I am proud to say they fully embodied the motto "Strength from the Soil - Reapers of the Deep." All of this was possible because of the effort and sacrifice of the crew and their families. We are grateful and stronger because of your community's support.

I want to conclude with letting you know that your name's sake, the USS NORTH DAKOTA and her crew have represented you with honor and have achieved the highest levels of excellence. Because of this we were awarded the Battle "E", an honor given to warships that have met and excelled at every possible task throughout the year, demonstrating the highest levels of readiness and performance. It is impressive that the North Dakota has earned this on two occasions while completed three deployments.

YOUR ship and crew are the toughest, most capable, and highly motivated men I have ever served with. They have sacrificed time with family to be our underwater front line, and they have come through in herculean efforts to stay on mission.

Thank you for the honor you have given me today to appear before you and report on your ship.

"SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 54-52-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4. The board shall calculate retirement benefits as follows:
 - a. Normal retirement benefits for all retirees, except supreme and district court judges, peace officers employed by the bureau of criminal investigation, and other peace officers employed by the state, reaching normal retirement date equal an annual amount, payable monthly, comprised of a service benefit and a prior service benefit, as defined in this chapter, which is determined as follows:

- (1) For members first enrolled:
 - (a) Before January 1, 2020, service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of service employment.
 - (b) After December 31, 2019, service benefit equals one and seventy-five hundredths percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of service employment.
 - (2) Prior service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of prior service employment.
- b. Normal retirement benefits for all supreme and district court judges under the public employees retirement system reaching normal retirement date equal an annual amount, payable monthly, comprised of a benefit as defined in this chapter, determined as follows:
- (1) Benefits must be calculated from the time of appointment or election to the bench and must equal three and one-half percent of final average salary multiplied by the first ten years of judicial service, two and eighty hundredths percent of final average salary multiplied by the second ten years of judicial service, and one and one-fourth percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of judicial service exceeding twenty years.
 - (2) Service benefits must include, in addition, an amount equal to the percent specified in subdivision a of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of nonjudicial employee service and employment.
- c. Normal retirement benefits for a peace officer employed by the bureau of criminal investigation reaching the normal retirement date equals an annual amount, payable monthly, comprised of a service benefit and a prior service benefit determined as follows:
- (1) For members first enrolled:
 - (a) Before January 1, 2020, service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of service employment.
 - (b) After December 31, 2019, service benefit equals one and seventy-five hundredths percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of service employment.
 - (2) Prior service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of prior service employment.
- d. Normal retirement benefits for a peace officer employed by the state, other than by the bureau of criminal investigation, reaching the normal retirement date equals an annual amount, payable monthly, comprised of a service benefit and a prior service benefit determined as follows:
- (1) For members first enrolled:

- (a) Before January 1, 2020, service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of service employment.
- (b) After December 31, 2019, service benefit equals one and seventy-five hundredths percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of service employment.
- (2) Prior service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of prior service employment.
- e. Postponed retirement benefits are calculated as for single life benefits for those members who retired on or after July 1, 1977.
- d.f. Early retirement benefits are calculated as for single life benefits accrued to the date of termination of employment, but must be actuarially reduced to account for benefit payments beginning before the normal retirement date, as determined under subsection 3. Except for a national guard security officer or firefighter, a firefighter ~~employed by a political subdivision, a~~ peace officer, or correctional officer employed by the bureau of criminal investigation or by a political subdivision, a peace officer employed by the state, or a supreme court or district court judge, early retirement benefits for members first enrolled after December 31, 2015, are calculated for single life benefits accrued to the date of termination of employment, but must be reduced by fixed rate of eight percent per year to account for benefit payments beginning before the normal retirement date. A retiree, other than a supreme or district court judge, is eligible for early retirement benefits only after having completed three years of eligible employment. A supreme or district court judge retiree is eligible for early retirement benefits only after having completed five years of eligible employment.
- e.g. Except for supreme and district court judges, disability retirement benefits are twenty-five percent of the member's final average salary. Disability retirement benefits for supreme and district court judges are seventy percent of final average salary reduced by the member's primary social security benefits and by any workforce safety and insurance benefits paid. The minimum monthly disability retirement benefit under this section is one hundred dollars.

SECTION 5. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - PEACE OFFICER AND PUBLIC SAFETY PERSONNEL RETIREMENT PLANS. During the 2023-24 interim, the legislative management shall consider studying the retirement system for peace officers and public safety personnel in the state. The study must include consideration of the public employees retirement system retirement plans offered to peace officers and safety personnel; how political subdivisions provide retirement benefits to peace officers and safety personnel; how other states provide retirement benefits to peace officers and safety personnel; the level of benefits and contributions in the state, political subdivision, and other state plans; how peace officers and public safety personnel transition between these retirement plans; and factors unique to retirement plans in the public safety sector. The legislative management shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-ninth legislative assembly."
