4.1-88-01. Definition.
In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, "wool dealer" means a person that buys wool from a producer.

4.1-88-02. Wool dealer - License required.
1. Before a person may transact business as a wool dealer, the person must be licensed by the agriculture commissioner.
2. This section does not apply to the purchase of wool:
   a. By a wool cooperative from a member of the cooperative; or
   b. By one member of a wool cooperative from another member.

4.1-88-03. Application for wool dealer's license - Required information.
To obtain a wool dealer's license, a person must complete an application and submit it to the agriculture commissioner. The application must include:
1. The applicant's name and:
   a. The name of each partner if the applicant is a partnership;
   b. The name of each corporate officer and the state of incorporation if the applicant is a corporation; and
   c. The name of each manager and the state of organization if the applicant is a limited liability company;
2. The applicant's mailing address; and
3. The applicant's principal place of business.

4.1-88-04. License - Fee - Expiration.
1. The fee for a wool dealer’s license is ten dollars.
2. A wool dealer’s license issued under this chapter expires on June thirtieth of each year.
3. A wool dealer’s license is not transferable.

1. As a condition of licensure, the applicant must post a bond with the agriculture commissioner. The bond must be:
   a. A surety bond;
   b. A cash bond; or
   c. An irrevocable letter of credit.
2. The agriculture commissioner must be named as the obligee.
3. The bond required by this section must be:
   a. In an amount and form required by this chapter;
   b. Applicable to the period during which the wool dealer's license is in effect;
   c. For the benefit of any person selling wool to the wool dealer or the dealer’s agent; and
   d. Conditioned for the payment of any financial obligation owed by a wool dealer to another person in conjunction with the sale of wool.

A bond filed by an out-of-state applicant for a wool dealer's license may name as trustee a financially responsible, disinterested person who is satisfactory to the agriculture commissioner.

1. The agriculture commissioner shall determine the amount of the bond required in accordance with this chapter, provided that the amount of the bond is not less than ten thousand dollars.
2. If at the time of licensure or at any point during the period of licensure the agriculture commissioner has reason to believe that a bond is inadequate to secure the performance of the wool dealer's obligations, the commissioner shall require an increase in the amount of the bond.

4.1-88-08. Release of records - Confidentiality.
1. As a condition of licensure, the applicant shall agree to provide to the agriculture commissioner, upon request, any financial record that the commissioner deems relevant for purposes related to:
   a. The issuance of a wool dealer's license; or
   b. An investigation after issuance of a wool dealer's license.
2. As a condition of licensure, the applicant shall file a records release with the agriculture commissioner, authorizing the commissioner to obtain, from any source, any financial record that the commissioner deems relevant for purposes related to:
   a. The issuance of a wool dealer's license; or
   b. An investigation after issuance of a wool dealer's license.
3. Any information gained by the agriculture commissioner under this section is confidential and may be provided only:
   a. To federal authorities in accordance with federal law;
   b. To the attorney general, state agencies, and law enforcement agencies, for use in the pursuit of official duties; and
   c. As directed by an order of a court pursuant to a showing of good cause.

1. The agriculture commissioner shall deny an applicant a wool dealer's license if:
   a. The applicant's current assets do not exceed the applicant's current liabilities; or
   b. The applicant submitted false or misleading information in connection with the application.
2. The agriculture commissioner may deny an applicant a wool dealer's license:
   a. If after due investigation, the commissioner has reason to believe that the applicant has failed to pay, in a timely manner and without reasonable cause, prior obligations incurred in connection with wool transactions; or
   b. For any other just and good cause.
3. Any applicant denied a license under this section may request a hearing before the agriculture commissioner, within thirty days of the denial.

A wool dealer shall notify the agriculture commissioner of:
1. Any legal change to the name in which the wool dealer's license is issued;
2. Any change to the legal status of the wool dealer; and
3. Any change in the nature and scope of the wool dealer's business, if that change would warrant an increase in the amount of the bond posted by the dealer in accordance with this chapter.

Each wool dealer shall keep records regarding all purchases and sales of wool for a period of two years. The records may be examined by the agriculture commissioner upon request.

Before an individual may serve as the agent of a wool dealer, the individual must be licensed by the agriculture commissioner. In order for an individual to obtain an agent's license, the agent's principal must request the licensure, at the time and in the manner determined by the agriculture commissioner.
4.1-88-13. Agent's license - Requirements - Liability of principal. Before the agriculture commissioner issues an agent's license, the commissioner shall verify that:
   1. The agent's principal is a wool dealer licensed in accordance with this chapter; and
   2. The principal has filed with the agriculture commissioner a signed statement indicating that the principal is responsible for and will be held strictly liable for any acts and omissions arising out of the agent's wool dealings, even if the dealings were not authorized by the principal.

4.1-88-14. Agent's license - Grounds for denial - Hearing. 1. The agriculture commissioner may refuse to issue an agent's license:
   a. If the individual seeking the license was previously denied a wool dealer's license or an agent's license;
   b. If the individual seeking the license has had a wool dealer's license or an agent's license revoked;
   c. If the individual seeking the license has been convicted of an offense for which a term of imprisonment or a fine is authorized by statute; or
   d. For any other just and good cause.
   2. Any applicant denied a license under this section may request a hearing before the agriculture commissioner, within thirty days of the denial.

4.1-88-15. Agent's authority - Limitation. While acting as an agent, an individual may not conduct any transaction involving livestock, in the agent's own name.

4.1-88-16. Order to cease and desist - Hearing. The agriculture commissioner may issue an order to cease and desist if the commissioner has reason to believe that a person has committed or is about to commit a violation of this chapter. If the commissioner issues a cease and desist order, the commissioner shall hold a hearing within thirty days of the issuance and within sixty days of the issuance, revoke the order or make it permanent, as the facts require.

4.1-88-17. Investigation of wool dealer - Hearing. 1. The agriculture commissioner shall investigate the conduct of any wool dealer if the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the wool dealer may have violated this chapter or engaged in any activity that constitutes a ground for license revocation under this chapter.
   2. If after conducting an investigation the agriculture commissioner has probable cause to believe that a violation of the chapter occurred or that the wool dealer engaged in any activity that constitutes a ground for license suspension or revocation under this chapter, the commissioner may conduct a hearing to determine whether the license of the wool dealer should be suspended or revoked.

4.1-88-18. Grounds for suspension or revocation of license. The commissioner may revoke the license of a wool dealer if:
   1. The wool dealer has violated this chapter;
   2. The wool dealer has been found guilty of deceit, fraud, dishonesty, forgery, or theft, as a dealer in wool;
   3. The wool dealer submitted false or misleading information in connection with the application for licensure;
   4. The wool dealer has failed to maintain records that disclose all purchases and sales of wool, as required by section 4.1-88-11;
   5. The wool dealer has refused the commissioner's request to provide financial records to the commissioner, as required by section 4.1-88-08; or
6. The wool dealer has failed to pay for wool purchased in a timely manner and without reasonable cause.

1. Before the agriculture commissioner may suspend or revoke a wool dealer's license, the commissioner shall:
   a. Prepare a complaint;
   b. Designate the time and place for a hearing; and
   c. Serve a copy of the complaint and a notice of the hearing upon the wool dealer at least fifteen days before the date of the hearing.
2. The agriculture commissioner shall serve the required notice by registered mail or in the manner provided by the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure for the service of a summons.
3. At the hearing, the agriculture commissioner shall take and receive testimony and evidence.
4. After the hearing, the agriculture commissioner shall issue an order to:
   a. Dismiss the proceedings;
   b. Suspend the wool dealer's license; or
   c. Revoke the wool dealer's license.
5. The aggrieved party may appeal the order to the district court of the county in which the party maintains its principal place of business.

If a wool dealer defaults in the provisions of any bond required by this chapter, the wool dealer is deemed to be insolvent within the meaning of this chapter. The claim for relief for damages upon the bond, and the amount recovered in any claim for relief for the conversion of wool purchased by the wool dealer, while the license is in force and effect, constitutes a trust fund in the hands of the agriculture commissioner for all persons having a claim for relief against the wool dealer on the bond.

1. Upon the insolvency of a wool dealer, the agriculture commissioner may apply to the district court of the county in which the dealer maintains its principal place of business for appointment as the trustee.
2. Upon notice to the wool dealer, as the court shall prescribe but not exceeding ten days, or upon a written waiver of notice by the dealer, the court shall hear and make a determination regarding the application in a summary manner.
3. If the court determines that the wool dealer is insolvent within the meaning of this chapter and that it would be in the best interest of persons holding claims against the dealer for the purchase price of wool sold to the dealer or to the dealer's agent that the agriculture commissioner execute the trust, the court shall issue an order appointing the commissioner as the trustee, without bond.
4. Upon being appointed as the trustee, the agriculture commissioner shall perform the duties of a trustee as set forth in this chapter.

1. a. Upon being appointed trustee, the agriculture commissioner shall take possession of all accounts and records pertaining to the wool dealer's business. After reviewing the records, the agriculture commissioner may return to the dealer any records that are not necessary to the settlement of claims under this chapter.
   b. Upon being appointed trustee, the agriculture commissioner shall take possession of all wool purchased by the dealer under the dealer's license and remaining in the dealer's possession.
2. The agriculture commissioner, as trustee, shall publish a notice once each week for three consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of each county in which the wool dealer maintains its principal place of business.
dealer was conducting business, directing any person having a claim against the dealer to file the claim and all supporting documentation with the commissioner no later than forty-five days from the last date of publication. Any person failing to meet the filing requirements set forth in the notice is barred from participating in any funds marshalled by the commissioner under this chapter.

1. The agriculture commissioner, as trustee, may in the name of the state upon its own relation but for the benefit of all claimants against the wool dealer’s bond, maintain suits or special proceedings upon the bond and against any person who has converted any of the wool, for the purpose of marshalling all of the trust assets of the insolvent dealer and distributing the assets among the claimants.
2. However, recourse must be had against the bond before recourse is had against a person who knowingly and in good faith converted any of the wool, unless the agriculture commissioner determines it necessary that all of the remedies be pursued at the same time.

1. A claimant may not pursue a separate claim for relief against the wool dealer’s bond unless the agriculture commissioner fails or refuses to apply for appointment as trustee.
2. A claimant may pursue concurrently with the agriculture commissioner, however, any other remedy against the wool dealer or the dealer’s property that the claimant may have for the entire claim or for any deficiency that occurs after all payments have been made from the trust fund.

1. The agriculture commissioner may:
   a. Prosecute an action for any claim arising under this chapter;
   b. Appeal from any adverse judgment to the court of last resort; and
   c. Settle and compromise any action if the commissioner determines that doing so is in the best interests of the claimant.
2. When the agriculture commissioner receives a compromise payment or the full amount of any bond or conversion claim, the commissioner may exonerate the person compromising or paying the claim from further liability growing out of the action.

4.1-88-26. Moneys collected on claims - Required deposit.
All moneys collected and received by the agriculture commissioner as trustee must be deposited in the Bank of North Dakota pending the marshalling of the fund.

1. Upon recovery of the trust fund, or so much of the fund as is recoverable or necessary to pay the outstanding claims, the agriculture commissioner shall file with the court a report showing the amount payable on each claim, after recognition of all proper liens, pledges, assignments, and deductions.
2. If the trust fund is insufficient to pay all claims in full, the agriculture commissioner shall prorate the fund among the claimants.
3. The court shall notify the claimants by mail regarding the proposed distribution and direct that the claimants show cause why the report and distribution should not be approved.
4. After holding a hearing on the matter, the court shall:
   a. Approve or modify the report;
   b. Issue an order directing that the trust fund be distributed; and
   c. Discharge the agriculture commissioner from all duties as trustee.
The agriculture commissioner is not required to pay any filing fee or other court cost or disbursement in connection with an application for appointment as trustee or with any action brought under this chapter if the fee, cost, or disbursement accrues to the state or to a county of this state.

1. Any person violating this chapter is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.
2. Any person violating this chapter is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars for each violation. The civil penalty may be adjudicated by a court or by the agriculture commissioner through an administrative hearing.
