1. A person may not engage in the business of buying, selling, or exchanging of trailers, or advertise or hold out to the public as being in the business of buying, selling, or exchanging of trailers without first being licensed.
2. Application for dealer's license and renewal license must be made to the director on forms as the director prescribes and furnish, the application must be accompanied by an annual fee of thirty dollars for which must be issued one dealer plate. The applicant for an initial trailer dealer license shall submit a nonrefundable fee of one hundred dollars for the initial inspection with the application. A dealer's license expires on December thirty-first of each year, and application for renewal of a dealer's license must be made on or before the expiration of the current dealer's license. Any dealer who fails to submit a renewal application before the expiration of the dealer's current license, in addition to all other fees due, shall pay a one hundred dollar fee at the time the dealer's license is renewed.
3. A trailer dealer's license may be issued only to those who will maintain a primary established place of business and will abide by all the provisions of law pertaining to trailer dealers. In addition, the dealer shall maintain that person's business records in one central location.
4. Upon the payment of a fee of ten dollars for each additional plate, the director shall register and issue dealer's license plates for use on any trailers owned by the licensed dealer, and the trailers bearing the dealer's license plates may be lawfully operated upon the public highways of this state by the dealer during the year of the registration, in the direct functions of demonstrating, buying, selling, or transporting trailers. A dealer's license plates expire on December thirty-first of each year.
5. The term "trailer" as used in this chapter does not include those trailers exempt from registration in chapter 39-04.

The department may suspend the license of a trailer dealer licensed under this chapter if a third or subsequent violation of this section occurs within five years of the first violation.

Before the issuance of or the renewal of a trailer dealer's license, as provided by law, the applicant for the license shall furnish a continuous surety bond executed by the applicant as principal and executed by a surety company licensed and qualified to do business within the state of North Dakota, which must be in the amount of ten thousand dollars, and be conditioned upon the faithful compliance by the applicant as a dealer, if the license be issued to the applicant, that the dealer will comply with all the laws of this state pertaining to the business, and regulating or being applicable to the business of the dealer as a dealer in trailers, and indemnifying any person dealing or transacting business with the dealer in connection with any trailer from any loss or damage occasioned by the failure of the dealer to comply with the laws of this state, including the furnishing of a proper and valid certificate of title to the vendee of a trailer within fifteen days of the sale of the trailer, and that the bond shall be filed with the director before the issuance of the license. However, the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons for all losses or damages may not exceed the amount of the bond. Any third party sustaining injury within the terms of the bond may proceed against the principal and surety without making the state a party to any proceedings. Any applicant bonded under chapter 39-18 or 39-22 may not be required to furnish the surety bond provided for in this section if the bond issued under chapter 39-18 or 39-22 is written to include the requirements of this section.
