

The following illustrates the percentage deviation from the ideal district size of 16,576 when applying the 2020 population to current legislative districts.

