Other Sections in Bill

Gifts, grants, and donations - Section 2 provides that, in addition to the amount appropriated as special funds, any other income received from gifts, grants, and donations received by the Supreme Court, district courts, and Judicial Conduct Commission and Disciplinary Board is appropriated for the purposes designated for the 2011-13 biennium.

Line item transfers - Section 4 requires the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and the State Treasurer to transfer funds between line items of appropriation for the judicial branch of government as requested by the Supreme Court upon a finding by the court that the nature of the duties of the court and its staff requires the transfers to carry on properly the functions of the judicial branch of government.

Supreme Court justices' salaries - Section 5 provides the statutory changes increasing Supreme Court justices' salaries by 5 percent each year of the biennium. Supreme Court justices' annual salaries are increased from the current level of $138,159 to $145,067, effective July 1, 2013, and to $152,320, effective July 1, 2014. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is entitled to receive an additional $4,166 per annum effective July 1, 2013, and $4,375 per annum effective July 1, 2014, an increase from the current additional amount for the Chief Justice of $3,968 per annum.

District judges' salaries - Section 6 provides the statutory changes increasing district court judges' salaries by 5 percent each year of the biennium. District court judges' annual salaries are increased from the current level of $126,597 to $132,927, effective July 1, 2013, and $139,573, effective July 1, 2014. A presiding judge of a judicial district is entitled to receive an additional $3,840 per annum effective July 1, 2013, and $4,032 per annum effective July 1, 2014, an increase from the current additional amount for presiding judges of $3,657.

Continuing Appropriations

Restitution collection assistance fund - North Dakota Century Code Section 12.1-32-08 - This fund is used for defraying expenses incident to the collection of restitution through imposing a fee equal to the greater of $10 or 25 percent of the amount of restitution ordered, not to exceed $1,000.

Court facilities improvement and maintenance fund - Sections 27-05.2-08 and 29-26-22 - Funding from this fund may be used by the Court Facilities Improvement Advisory Committee to make grants to counties to provide funds for court facilities and improvement and maintenance projects. The source of these funds is a $100 fee charged in all criminal cases except infractions. The first $750,000 collected is used for indigent defense services, the next $460,000 is used for court facilities, and additional collections are deposited equally into the two funds.

Court receivables fund - Section 27-05.2-04 - Any money received by the clerk which is not required to be deposited in the state general fund, a different special fund, or the county treasury, and which is received as bail or restitution, or otherwise received pursuant to an order of the court is deposited in this fund. Amounts are used for refunding bail, forwarding restitution amounts to entitled recipients, or otherwise making payments as directed by the court.
