Minutes: Senator Traynor, opened the hearing on HB 1071.

Penny Miller, Clerk for the Supreme Court also the Secretary of the State Bar Board, (testimony attached).

Senator Trenbeath, who spent their time going through the bill making it gender neutral?

Penny Miller, the problem came to head when the Legislative Council made a mistake of mixing things. I did not get a notice till the day before the meeting.

Senator Trenbeath, that doesn't necessitate a change in the law. This law was gender neutral until they made it politically correct.

Senator Traynor, the state bar board used to handle disciplinary procedures. What is it now?

Penny Miller, disciplinary board of the Supreme Court.

Senator Watne, doesn't change any duties of the committees?

Penny Miller, correct.

Senator Traynor, still three on the board?

2001 TESTIMONY

HB 1071

Summary of House Bill No. 1071

HB No. 1071 relates to changing the name of the State Bar Board to State Board of Law Examiners.

This proposed name change will more accurately reflect the primary role of the Board, which is examining the fitness and moral character to practice law, and will help alleviate the continued confusion between the Board and the State Bar Association. Additionally, the name change will make it easier for out-of-state attorneys and others to direct inquiries to the correct office, as the majority of other states use the Board of Law Examiner or Board of Bar Examiner designation.

Other proposed amendments are grammatical in nature and make the affected sections gender neutral.
