Minutes: Chairman DeKrey opened the hearing on HCR 3017. A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to study the method of providing legal representation for indigent criminal defendants and the feasibility and desirability of establishing a public defender system.

Judge Newmann: Judge of the North Dakota Supreme Court introduced the bill. It has been more than 25 years since we have looked at this. We should have a study as this question is being addressed by study in very state. It would be a question of money and how to spend it.

Chairman DeKrey: We have seen this in one bill form and one resolution, could these all be done at once.

Judge Newmann: I would like it to be done this way as a bill and as a resolution, because it could be lost in the shuffle, this needs some attention paid to it now.

Chairman DeKrey: Is this more than a money problem?

Judge Newmann: I think it is, it is an ethical problem, judges are now deciding how the money is to be spent.

Rep Mahoney: There is a lot of material and a lot to study.

Judge Newmann: Right now there is a group called the Stenjem that tells us a lot of the information that we are using.

Rep Mahoney: Has it all been compiled yet?

Judge Newmann: I don't know.

Rep Mahoney: You are saying that this would be better as an independent study.

Judge Newmann: An independent study, preferably.

Chairman DeKrey: Is it pro bono work or what the legislature appropriates?

Judge Newmann: The legislature gives more than a little, currently it is 3.8 million.

Vice Chr Kretschmar: Currently the appeals are they based on the fact that the attorneys are not to smart?

Judge Newmann: I don't recall any cases, but that doesn't mean that the attorneys are doing the best job. Quality of representation is always a concern.

Rep Klemin: Right now do we have contracts with more then one company.

Judge Newmann: If we use nothing but public defenders right now, we would have to hire more people.

Vice Chr Kretschmar: In the statue, is there a provision, if time goes on, must the defendant pay back the state, if they acquire property.

Judge Newmann: Yes, we have records of this, but not enough money has come back in to cover the cost.

Chairman DeKrey: If there are not further questions, thank you for appearing. Is there anyone else wishing to appear in support? In opposition, if not we will close the hearing on HCR 3017.

Minutes: Senator Traynor, opened the hearing on HCR 3017.

Chief Justice Van der Walle, of ND, deals with a study of indigent defense services. Indigent defense is becoming a greater cost to ND. There are a lot of different methods dealing with this. How do we finance those who can't afford a defense attorney. We can do the study ourselves we would like the judiciary committee join us. I urge you to pass this study.

Senator Lyson, contracts between counties, do we pay them?

Chief Justice, the counties pay some, we pay most of it. Most defense lawyers burn out. I'm concerned about representation. I expect these lawyers to defend these people to the best of their abilities. They need adequate defense.

Senator Traynor, I've heard complaints that the compensation is not adequate.

Chief Justice, I don't doubt that. We are trying to up it. We're trying to up it to $65 dollars an hour.

Senator Traynor, is the compensation situation the same?
