Minutes:

Chair Nelson called the meeting to order.

Rep. Porter: Introduced HB 1223 relating to the opening date of pheasant season and the hunting of pheasants on certain lands in the state. (See Attached Testimony)

Lanceford Johnson: Restaurant and lounge owner. Testified in favor of HB 1223. There will be a Pheasant capital of the world. We could be the place. This will be based on the attitudes of the people in the area.

Chair Nelson: In the Mott area the residents would get preferential treatment the 1st week.

What is the attitude of the Mott area in this?

Lance Johnson: There will some be concerns over resident hunting.

Rep. Clark: How does this affect your business?

Lance Johnson: It will have an impact. 20% of my business happens in the first week. 60% between October and December.

Dan Vodde: Testified on behalf of HB 1223. Rather have a one license policy like HB 1353, but this bill would be a good compromise.

Rep. Norland: How do you find the hens in the first week?

Dan Vodde: They look very differently in the opener.

Rep. Norland: The birds grow a lot in that week.

Bill Pfffer: ND wildlife Society. Testified against parts of HB 1223. (See Attached Testimony). Proposed an amendment.

Rep. Porter: Explained that the changes would move the opener very little.

Chair Nelson: What is your objection on a biological basis?

Bill Pfffer: The problem is the date is picked out of the sky to correlate with the federal.

Harold Neaumeier: Cass County Wildlife Club. (See Attached Testimony).

Mike Donahue: Testified against HB 1223. The problem is the decisions have been made on this issue based on hanging a dollar sign on the resource. We thought this matter had been settled last year in the governor's office. We are disturbed by this.

Chair Nelson: The legislature never had a part in that. This is the first time this has come up. It is not the intent of this committee to hang a dollar sign on the resource. I thought your organization wanted recognition for resident hunters.

Chair Nelson adjourned the meeting.
