11-01-01-01 Organization of Board of Examiners on Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology

11-01-01-01. Organization of board of examiners on audiology and speech-language pathology.

1. History and function. The 1975 legislative assembly passed legislation to license audiologists and speech-language pathologists, codified as North Dakota Century Code chapter 43-37. In 1983 chapter 43-37 was revised. This chapter requires the governor to appoint a state board of examiners on audiology and speech-language pathology. It is the responsibility of the board to license audiologists and speech-language pathologists.

2. Board membership. The board consists of seveneight members appointed by the governor. Two members are audiologists, twofour members are speech-language pathologists, one member is a hearing aid dealer, one member is an otolaryngologist, and one is a consumer. Each board member serves a term of three years. No member may serve on the board more than two successive terms.

3. Officers. Officers are elected annually. The board may hire an executive secretary as necessary.

4. Inquiries. Inquiries regarding the board may be addressed to:

11-02-01-03. Licensure with examination. Repealed effective May 1, 1984.

11-02-01-04. Licensure renewal. Licenses are renewable by January first of each year. They must be renewed on forms provided by the board. The renewal forms must be accompanied by the renewal fee and proof of meeting the continuing education requirements. If a person is unlicensed for a period of five years, the board may require that such person retake and pass the national teacher examinations specialty examination prior to licensure or relicensure. The board will allow a license to elapse only upon preapproval with a showing of unusual hardship conditions. An individual may be granted a second licensure only once in a five-year period. Renewal of licensure and re-licensure.

1. Applications for the renewal of license are due by the first date of each year.

2. At least two months before the first date of each year, the board will notify the licensee of the requirement for renewal. The notice will be made to the address last provided to the board by the licensee and will encourage applicants to submit applications for renewal upon receiving that notice.

3. A license shall be renewed by the board if, on or before the thirty-first day of January of each year, the licensee meets all of the following requirements:

   a. The licensee filed a complete application for renewal form provided by the board.

   b. The licensee paid the renewal fee.

   c. The licensee provided proof of completion of the continuing education required by section 11-02-01-06.

4. If the completed application for renewal, renewal fee, and proof of completion of continuing education are not filed before the first day of each year, the licensee shall pay the late fee associated with the license.

5. If the completed application for renewal, renewal fee, proof of completion of continuing education, and late fee is not filed before the last day of January, the license expires and the individual shall not practice until the board renews the license or grants re-licensure.

6. The board may extend the expiration date and the deadlines for filing the application for renewal, renewal fee, proof of completion of continuing education, and late fee upon proof of medical or other hardship preventing the individual from meeting the deadlines.

7. If an individual is unlicensed for a period of less than five calendar years, the individual shall be granted re-licensure upon the filing of a completed application for a license, the licensing fee, a two hundred and fifty dollar re-licensure fee, and proof of completion of ten clock hours of continuing education for each calendar year for which the individual was unlicensed.

8. If an individual is unlicensed for a period of five or more calendar years, the individual may be required by the board to re-take and pass the Praxis II specialty examination or another examination approved by the board, and shall be required to file a completed application for a license, the licensing fee, a two hundred and fifty dollar re-licensure fee, and proof of completion of ten clock hours of continuing education for each calendar year for which the individual was unlicensed in order to be considered for re-licensure.

9. An individual may be granted a re-licensure only once in a five-year period.

CHAPTER 11-02-03
GRIEVANCES

Section
11-02-03-01 Grievance Procedures
11-02-03-02 Complaint Procedures

11-02-03-01. Grievance procedures. Grievances must be processed in accordance with North Dakota Century Code chapter 28-32.

History: Amended effective May 1, 1984.
General Authority: NDCC 43-37-06
Law Implemented: NDCC 28-32-05

11-02-03-02. Complaint procedures. The board will respond only to complaints submitted in writing.

1. Upon filing of a written and signed complaint alleging a licensee engaged in conduct identified as grounds for disciplinary action under North Dakota Century Code section 43-37-13, the board shall notify the licensee of the complaint and require a written response from the licensee.

2. A licensee who is the subject of an investigation by the board shall cooperate fully with the investigation. Cooperation includes responding fully and promptly to any reasonable question raised by or on behalf of the board relating to the subject of the investigation and providing copies of patient or client records if reasonably requested by the board and accompanied by the appropriate release.

3. The board may direct an ethics subcommittee or a board member to investigate the complaint. After completing the investigation, the ethics subcommittee or board member will recommend whether the board should take disciplinary action against the licensee.

4. When conducting an investigation, the board may subpoena and examine witnesses and records, including patient and client records, and may copy, photograph, or take samples of the records. The board may require the licensee to give statements under oath, to submit to a physical or psychological examination, or both, by a physician or other qualified evaluation professional selected by the board, if requiring an examination is in the best interest of the public. The patient and client records released to the board are not public records.

5. The board shall determine if there is a reasonable basis to believe the licensee engaged in conduct identified as grounds for disciplinary action under North Dakota Century Code section 43-37-13. If the board determines there is not a reasonable basis, the board will notify the complainant and the licensee. If the board determines there is a reasonable basis, the board may proceed with a disciplinary action in accordance with North Dakota Century Code chapter 28-32.

6. The board, at any time, may offer or accept a proposal for informal resolution of the complaint or disciplinary action.

7. The board may impose a fee on the licensee for all or part of the costs of an informal resolution or a formal action resulting in discipline, including administrative costs, investigation costs, attorney’s fees, witness fees, the cost of the office of administrative hearings services, and court costs.
